Non-alignment in an Age of Alignments A. W. Singham, Shirley Hune, 1986      Non-alignment in an Age of Alignments Arch W. Singham, Shirley Hune, 1986      The Soviet Union and the Strategy of Non-Alignment in the Third World Roy Allison, 1988-12-15 This study investigates the overall Soviet conception of non alignment in the Third World and assesses Soviet policy in relation to this issue      Non-Aligned Movement Summits Jovan Cavoški, 2022-05-19 Using newly declassified documents from Serbian British Indian Chinese Myanmar U S and Soviet archives Non Aligned Movement Summits shows how the Non Aligned Movement NAM gradually evolved into the third force of Cold War politics enveloping most of the post colonial and non bloc world Jovan Cavo ki follows the evolution of the NAM through its summits and other gatherings during which major political decisions pertaining to the destiny of the Third World were made These events were scrutinized by all major powers and had a corresponding effect on their policies From the Belgrade Conference in 1961 until 1989 all major Third World and non bloc nations met to demonstrate to the Eastern and Western Blocs that they were independent active and respected participants in world affairs Cavo ki shows how these summits were also closely related to events occurring in the relationship between the two blocs providing opportunities for non bloc actors to influence the global balance of power By moving the focus of 20th century international history away from the bloc nations and instead giving developing nations in Africa and Asia due attention this book provides a fresh perspective on Cold War history and fills a significant gap in the literature It is an important study for all students and scholars of the Cold War and international history

Nuclear Politics and the Non-Aligned Movement William Potter, 2017-10-03 The Non Aligned Movement NAM is the largest and most diverse political grouping of states engaged on issues related to nuclear nonproliferation and disarmament Drawing on the authors first hand experiences as members of NAM observer state delegations in NPT and IAEA negotiations as well as the findings of a larger CNS research project on NAM nuclear politics the book will provide important new insights about how a small subset of NAM states has tended to dominate NAM politics and have promoted policies that are often at odds with those advanced by Western states on issues such as nuclear terrorism IAEA safeguards nuclear export controls multinational fuel arrangements proliferation in the Middle East NPT and nuclear arms control and disarmament Based on an analysis of NAM perspectives politics and priorities the book will provide practical recommendations for engaging NAM members in a more constructive fashion on issues related to nuclear nonproliferation disarmament peaceful use and counter nuclear terrorism Particular attention will be given to problems likely to be encountered when Iran assumes the chairmanship of NAM in 2012 and how these difficulties can best be mitigated in the lead up to the next NPT Review Conference      The Principles of Non-alignment Hans Köchler, 1982      The Theory and Practice of Third World Solidarity Darryl C. Thomas, 2001-02-28 This study examines the development of Third World solidarity within the broader historical context of changing hegemonic power systems from Pax Britannia to Pax Americana Thomas focuses on the political economic and racial structures that are fundamental to hegemonic supremacy over peripheral and semiperipheral states and he analyzes the divergent modes of Third World incorporation subordination into the world system He concludes that the racial structure of global apartheid that dominated the world system during the colonial period is re emerging under the rubric of a New World Order

The Non-Aligned Movement: Genesis, Organization and Politics (1927-1992) Jürgen Dinkel, 2018-11-26 The Non Aligned Movement had an important impact on the history of decolonization South South cooperation the Global Cold War and the North South conflict During the 20th century nearly all Asian African and Latin American countries joined the movement to make their voice heard in global politics In The Non Aligned Movement Jürgen Dinkel examines for the first time the history of the NAM since the interwar period as a special reaction of the Global South to changing global orders The study shows breaks and caesurae as well as continuities in the history of globalization and analyses the history of international relations from a non western perspective For this book empirical research was undertaken in Germany Great Britain Indonesia Russia Serbia and the United States

Syria and the Doctrine of Arab Neutralism Rami Ginat, 2010-02-03 This book examines the modern history of post mandatory Syria The evolution of the Syrian ideology and policy of neutralism since the early stages of the Cold War is explained and the effects that Arab neutralism had on shaping Syria's foreign policy and the shaping of its national identity are identified The phenomenon of Arab neutralism has never before been comprehensively investigated The prevailing belief is that the formulation and realisation of the policy of anti alignment began only during Nasser's first years in power in Egypt However the author demonstrates that the roots of neutralism were already sown in Arab soil in the early 1940s and that successive Syrian governments carved out this policy during the final stages of World War II A core issue in the analysis is the dynamic between ideology and policy A conceptual framework is developed to explain the various patterns of neutralism that emerged and the complex of relationships between features exhibited by Syria the Arab world and the Third World The book makes extensive use of newly declassified material gleaned from archives in India the former USSR Poland Britain the United States and Israel primary sources studied and interpreted in the original Arabic are also widely utilised

Neutrality and Neutralism in the Global Cold War Sandra Bott, Jussi M. Hanhimäki, Janick Schaufelbuehl, Marco Wyss, 2015-12-22 This book sheds new light on the foreign policies roles and positions of neutral states and the Non Aligned Movement NAM in the global Cold War The volume places the neutral states and the NAM in the context of the Cold War and demonstrates the links between the East the West and the so called Third World In doing so this collection provides readers an alternative way of exploring the evolution and impact of the Cold War on North South connections that challenges traditional notions of the post 1945 history of international relations The various contributions are framed against the backdrop of the evolution of the Cold War international system and the decolonization process in the Southern hemisphere By juxtaposing the policies of European neutrals and countries of the NAM this book offers new perspectives on the evolution of the Cold War With the links between these two groups of countries receiving very little attention in Cold War scholarship the volume thus offers a window into a hitherto neglected perspective on the Cold War Via a series of case studies the chapters here present new viewpoints on the evolution of the global Cold War through the exploration of the ensuing internal and mainly external policy choices of these nations This book will be of much interest to students of Cold War Studies international history foreign policy security studies and IR in general

Revolutionary States, Leaders, and Foreign Relations Houman A. Sadri, 1997-04-16 This book compares and contrasts the foreign relations strategies of China Cuba and Iran in the first decade of their post revolutionary periods Among a variety of explanatory variables leadership particularly the type of revolutionary leaders played a significant role in explaining the outcome of the policymaking process in each case Three distinct patterns of foreign relations strategies are evident among all three revolutionary regimes in the ten year period Two Track Conflictual and Conciliatory This book is a valuable source for both experts and non experts alike in providing insight into the foreign relations of revolutionary regimes in developing countries and in helping U S policymakers anticipate behaviors of future revolutionary leaders A focal point of this book is the examination of the nonalignment strategies of these prominent developing countries during the infancy of their regimes Each state s particular strategy is described and explained in detail and then contrasted and compared Although there are differences among their foreign policies considering their geographic locations size wealth military capabilities leadership characteristics and political institutions there are significant similarities regarding their foreign policy goals and trends in their foreign relations with the Great Powers Among explanatory factors leadership played a significant role in the policy making process although the foreign relations strategies of these revolutionary regimes were fed by a combination of national and international variables In all three states the tone of foreign policy was set by revolutionary leaders who were either idealists or realists Idealists tended to take a more active and conflictual approach toward one or both of the superpowers while Realists were more cautious and less willing to resort to a conflictual posture This book also investigates the gap between the theoretical and practical nonalignment stance of each state This cross regional study provides policy analysts with clues about the foreign policies of other revolutionary developing countries in similar situations Finally it makes suggestions about how a Great Power may relate to a developing country during its first post revolution decade

India and the Nonaligned Summits Renu Srivastava, 1995 It historically examines India s impact on the non aligned movement as manifest at the Belgrade Summit 1961 to the Jakarta Summit 1992 It dilates upon Nehru s eloquent theoretical exposition of non alignment at the Belgrade Summit Shastri s concern with regional issues at Cairo and Mrs Gandhi s espousal of restructuring the international order at Lusaka and at the subsequent conferences as well as Rajiv s optimistic leadership towards the unfinished task of his mother Special attention has been given to India s performance at the New Delhi summit It highlights Indian efforts to resolve the various contentious issues that had plagued the movement since the last summit at Havana in 1979 and explains why the Summit was hailed as the fresh beginning of the NAM Detailed analysis of the post New Delhi Summit era encompassing India's Chairpersonship of the movement under Rajiv Gandhi's leadership his dynamic support to the African cause at Harare in 1986 and his contribution to moot a Planet Protection fund at the second Belgrade Summit 1989 It also incorporates Mr Narashimha Rao's strong stand against attaching conditionalities to all forms of assistances intellectual property rights terrorism etc at the Jakarta Summit 1992

Nonalignment and Peace Versus Military Alignment and War Nihal Henry Kuruppu, 2004 The Book Posits That The India Australia Relationship Has Greater Significance Than Previously Recognised As The Largest Democracy In The World One Of The Few In The Region That Has Steadfastly Clung To A Robust Democracy In The Face Of Considerable Challenges Including Early Western Pessimism About Its Future Viability India In View Of Some Is On Course To Become A Major Player In Global Trade And Regional Politics In The New Century

The Non-Aligned Movement and the Cold War Natasa Miskovic, Harald Fischer-Tiné, Nada Boskovska, 2014-04-16 The idea of non alignment and peaceful coexistence was not new when Yugoslavia hosted the Belgrade Summit of the Non Aligned in September 1961 Freedom activists from the colonies in Asia Africa and South America had been discussing such issues for decades already but this long lasting context is usually forgotten in political and historical assessments of the Non Aligned Movement This book puts the Non Aligned Movement into its wider historical context and sheds light on the long term connections and entanglements of the Afro Asian world It assembles scholars from differing fields of research such as Asian Studies Eastern European and Southeast European History Cold War Studies Middle Eastern Studies and International Relations In doing so this volume looks back to the ideological beginnings of the concept of peaceful coexistence at the time of the anticolonial movements and at the multi faceted challenges of foreign policy the former freedom fighters faced when they established their own decolonized states It analyses the crucial role Yugoslav president Tito played in his determination to keep his country out of the blocs and finally examines the main achievement of the Non Aligned Movement to give subordinate states of formerly subaltern peoples a voice in the international system An innovative look at the Non Aligned Movement with a strong historical component the book will be of great interest to academics working in the field of International Affairs international history of the 20th century the Cold War Race Relations as well as scholars interested in Asian African and Eastern European history

Making a World after Empire Christopher J. Lee, 2010-06-15 In April 1955 twenty nine countries from Africa Asia and the Middle East came together for a diplomatic conference in Bandung Indonesia intending to define the direction of the postcolonial world Representing approximately two thirds of the world's population the Bandung conference occurred during a key moment of transition in the mid twentieth century amid the global wave of decolonization that took place after the Second World War and the nascent establishment of a new cold war world order in its wake Participants such as Jawaharlal Nehru of India Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt Zhou Enlai of China and Ahmed Sukarno of Indonesia seized this occasion to attempt the creation of a political alternative to the dual threats of Western neocolonialism and the cold war interventionism of the United States and the Soviet Union The essays in this volume explore the diverse repercussions of this event tracing the diplomatic intellectual and sociocultural histories that have emanated from it Making a World after Empire consequently addresses the complex intersection of postcolonial history and cold war history and speaks to contemporary discussions of Afro Asianism empire and decolonization thus reestablishing the conference s importance in twentieth century global history Contributors Michael Adas Laura Bier James R Brennan G Thomas Burgess Antoinette Burton Dipesh Chakrabarty Julian Go Christopher J Lee Jamie Monson Jeremy Prestholdt Denis M Tull The Cold War in the Third World Robert J.

McMahon,2013-04-24 The Cold War in the Third World explores the complex interrelationships between the Soviet American struggle for global preeminence and the rise of the Third World Those two distinct but overlapping phenomena placed a powerful stamp on world history throughout the second half of the twentieth century Featuring original essays by twelve leading scholars this collection examines the influence of the newly emerging states of the Third World on the course of the Cold War and on the international behavior and priorities of the two superpowers It also analyzes the impact of the Cold War on the developing states and societies of Asia Africa the Middle East and Latin America Blending the new internationalist approaches to the Cold War with the latest research on the global south in a tumultuous era of decolonization and state building The Cold War in the Third World bring together diverse strands of scholarship to address some of the most compelling issues in modern world history The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume IV Martin

Shipway,2016-12-05 The collection of essays in this volume offers an overview of scholarly approaches to the ways in which diverse actors representing the colonised or the colonising nations or indeed the international community reacted to colonialism during the lifetime of the modern colonial empires or in their aftermath The coverage is broad in terms of geographical scope and historical period with articles on the major colonial empires in Asia and Africa and the imperial centres of Paris London and Berlin from the conquests of the late nineteenth century to the period of decolonisation The selection also reflects recent academic trends by focusing on countries whose colonial past and experience of decolonisation have been studied and debated with particular intensity such as Algeria Kenya and India The volume draws on previously published articles and book chapters by leading international scholars writing in or translated into English and includes a critical introduction which situates each essay in relation to recent debates in this dynamic and expanding field of study
