Building a Successful

Social Venture Eric Carlson, James Koch, 2018-09-18 This is the first book on creating and running a social enterprise to combine theoretical discussions with current cases from around the world filling a huge gap in the literature It serves as an eminently practical blueprint for those who wish to build sustain and grow social ventures Building a Successful Social Venture draws on Eric Carlson's and James Koch's pioneering work with the Global Social Benefit Institute cofounded by Koch at Santa Clara University's Miller Center for Social Entrepreneurship Since 2003 over 200 Silicon Valley executives have mentored more than 800 aspiring social entrepreneurs at the GSBI It is this unparalleled real world foundation that truly sets the book apart Early versions of the book were used in both undergraduate and MBA classes Part 1 of the book describes the assumptions that the GSBI model is based on a bottom up approach to social change a focus on base of the pyramid markets and a specific approach to business planning developed by the GSBI Part 2 presents the seven elements of the GSBI business planning process and Part 3 lays out the keys to executing it The book includes Social Venture Snapshots illustrating how different organizations have realized elements of the plan as well as a wealth of checklists and exercises Social ventures hold enormous promise to solve some of the world's most intractable problems This book offers a tested framework for students social entrepreneurs and field researchers who wish to learn more about the application of business principles and theories of change for advancing social progress and creating a more just world Surviving the Future Gail Munde, Kenneth Marks, 2009-02-28 Every academic library strives to make improvements in its services its effectiveness and its contributions to overall university success Every librarian wants to improve library quality but few are knowledgeable or enthusiastic about the means and mechanisms of quality improvement This book assists librarians to make sense of data collection assessment and comparative evaluation as stepping stones to transformative quality improvement Creating value lies in a library's ability to understand communicate and measure what matters to users and what can be measured can be managed to successful outcomes Complex and fragmented subject matter is synthesized into clear and logical presentation Focuses on current research and best practices International in scope The Canonical Visitation of Parishes Gregory N. Smith, 2007-06-25 The ordinary episcopal visitation of parishes treated in canons 396-398 of the 1983 Code of Canon Law is studied here from its origins to the present The dissertation's first chapter traces the historical development of this ancient canonical institute particularly with a view to showing its usefulness for Church reform The second examines the canons of the 1917 and 1983 codes and provides a detailed commentary on the latter A final chapter studies the visitation of parishes in Canada Three methods are used corresponding to the three chapters In the first chapter a primarily historical review draws on Scripture the Fathers papal legislation the decrees of provincial and ecumenical councils particularly the Council of Trent and other sources The second chapter takes an exegetical approach interpreting the 1983 canons on the visitation in light of the former law the Second Vatican Council and contemporary papal and curial documents The visitation is related to the diocesan bishop's power of governance The third chapter presents the results of the author's survey of Canadian bishops carried out according to the methods of social science research Without arguing that the visitation is a panacea for all the Church's ills the author concludes that it is a highly effective way for bishops to address some present difficulties and avoid future ones

Syracuse University and a CLU and ChFC from the American College      Strategic Management for Nonprofit Organizations Roger Courtney, 2002-09-11 This UK European text provides a much needed summation of strategic management issues in nonprofit organizations addressing both academic theory and current practice      Balancing the Value-Based Corporate Scorecard Mario Schmidt, 2005-07-01 Inhaltsangabe Introduction Today operating companies are exposed to a whole series of influence factors The globalization and deregulation of capital markets the end of capital and exchange controls new challenges on the information technology sector more liquid securities markets new trends with regard to investment decisions especially for institutional investors represent only some of these factors The competition around investment capital moves more to the foreground As a consequence of this fact is mentioned that the orientation is specified at the shareholders Thus a focusing is carried out on the profit of the shareholders With other words a culture of shareholder value has developed A special meaning befits the corporate value with regard to the shareholder value The corporate value represents the result of the investments of the shareholders Therefore the effort to increase the corporate value is mirrored by the claims of the shareholders In the recent years the term Value Based Management as synonymous has become noted for a whole series of approaches to increase the corporate value Value Based Management focuses the view on the tools which are necessary to produce performance and value It means that everything every process and every part of a company has to be oriented in creating value This diploma thesis therefore will analyze how corporate value can be created which activities are necessary and how it can be measured Furthermore it will be represented how this process can be embedded in an integral approach Therefore in Chapter 2 will be explained main aspects of the Value Based Management In connection with this special attention is given to the components of value The meaning and problems of the intangible assets shall particularly be stressed in section 2 1 2 A general analysis of the process of value creation follows it in section 2 1 3 A further aspect of Value Based Management is the measurement of the results of the company s activities Therefore a bundle of different measures can be used As examples for this shall be mentioned the Cash Flow Return On Investment CFROI the Economic Profit EP the Added Value VA or the Economic Value Added EVA The CFROI approach was developed by the Boston Consulting Group The internal rate of return of an investment can be expressed with the CFROI The Economic Profit is a development of the McKinsey Company Inc and is explained by Copeland      Third Sector Management William B. Werther, Evan M. Berman, 2001 Trying to do good deeds does not guarantee that a nonprofit organization will succeed The organization must do good deeds well This textbook offers a blueprint for nonprofit success adopting a strategic perspective that assumes vision mission strategy and execution as the pillars upon which success is built While many experts on nonprofits argue that fundraising is the single key to success William B Werther Jr and Evan M Berman show that effective fundraising depends largely on how the nonprofit is positioned and how it performs They address such issues as leadership and board development strategic planning staffing fundraising partnering productivity improvement and accountability

Emphasizing the context of nonprofits and detailing improvements that can be made by managers at all levels the book strikes a balance between policy discussion and practical usefulness Written for use in graduate courses in nonprofit management Third Sector Management will also be invaluable to directors staff volunteers and board members of nonprofit organizations
