The Oxford Handbook of Governance and Public Management for Social Policy Karen J. Baehler, 2023 Public administration plays an integral role at every stage of social policy creation and execution Program operators management decisions shape policymakers perceptions of what can and should be accomplished through social programs while public administrators wield considerable power to mobilize tangible and intangible resources and fill gaps in policy designs Furthermore the cumulative effects of public administrators daily activities directly influence outcomes for program participants and may shift policy itself Location also matters to social policy as those same administrators are expected to innovate continuously in response to shifting local and national conditions including changes in budgetary allocations client needs and capacities and public attitudes This Handbook will aim to capture what is being learned across six geographical regions Africa Asia Australasia Europe Latin America and the U S and Canada Specifically each regional section will contain 6-10 chapters canvassing a particular set of promising practices or emerging challenges at the regional or sub regional level in addition to a brief overview written by the section editor The regional sections will be flanked by integrative chapters As a whole the volume contains 65 chapters

Regulating Charities Myles McGregor-Lowndes, Bob Wyatt, 2017-04-07 In this volume charity commissioners and leading charity policy reformers from across the world reflect on the aims and objectives of charity regulation and what it has achieved Regulating Charities represents an insider's review of the last quarter century of charity law policy and an insight for its future development Charity Commissioners and nonprofit regulatory agency heads chart the nature of charity law reforms that they have implemented with a warts and all analysis They are joined by influential sector reformers who assess the outcomes of their policy agitation All reflect on the current state of charities in a fiscally restrained environment often with conservative governments and offer their views on productive regulatory paths available for the future This topical collection brings together major charity regulation actors and will be of great interest to anyone concerned with contemporary third sector policy making public administration and civil society

The State of Nonprofit America Lester M Salamon, 2012-05-14 Today America's nonprofit organizations seem caught in a force field buffeted by four impulses voluntarism professionalism civic activism and commercialism Too little attention however has been paid to the significant tensions among these impulses Understanding this force field and the factors shaping its dynamics thus becomes central to understanding the future of particular organizations and of the nonprofit sector as a whole In this second edition of an immensely successful volume Lester Salamon and his colleagues offer an overview of the current state of America's nonprofit sector examining the forces that are shaping its future and identifying the changes that might be needed The State of Nonprofit America has been completely revised and updated to reflect changing political realities and the punishing economic climate currently battering the nonprofit sector which faces significant financial challenges during a time when its services are needed more than ever The result is a comprehensive analysis of a set of institutions that Alexis de Tocqueville recognized to be more deserving of our attention than any other part of the American experiment

How Information Matters Kathleen Hale, 2011-03-11 How Information Matters examines the ways a network of state and local governments and nonprofit organizations can enhance the capacity for successful policy change by public administrators Hale examines drug courts programs that typify the highly networked collaborative environment of public administrators today These special dockets implement justice but also drug treatment case management drug testing and incentive programs for non violent offenders in lieu of jail time In a study that spans more than two decades Hale shows ways organizations within the network act to champion challenge and support policy innovations over time Her description of interactions between courts administrative agencies and national organizations highlight the evolution of collaborative governance in the state and local arena with vignettes that share specific experiences across six states Alabama Florida Georgia Indiana Missouri and Tennessee and ways that they acquired knowledge from the network to make decisions How Information Matters offers valuable insight into successful ways for collaboration and capacity building It will be of special interest to public administrators or policymakers who wish to identify ways to improve their own programs performance

Social Enterprise in China Echo Lei Wang, 2023-07-21 Wang offers an empirically based exploration into work integration social enterprises as a means for delivering social services in China

Focusing on the political economy of social enterprise development in China Wang examines the nature of the relationship between the state and social enterprises and the implications of such relationships for their institutional effectiveness She adopts a bottom up approach that investigates indigenous practices embedded within the local political context Common ground has been established internationally that the social enterprise model provides new ways of social service delivery that could potentially change and restructure the social welfare economy However the development path differs across social contexts especially in an authoritarian country like China This study provides insights into China s efforts to develop its social welfare sector and reinvigorate customary ideas about how public services could be better offered given the country s political economy This book will be of great interest to both scholars of China s political economy and those with an interest in the development of the social enterprise sector looking to see how this works in a Chinese context Nonprofit
