Power Tom H. Hastings,2005-12-12 In Power Tom Hastings unpacks the methods and considers causes and correlatives to violence and nonviolence Hastings presents an overview of nonviolent power potential examining it on personal community and transnational levels He provides evidence of theories and historical records of nonviolent power through personal stories and the annals of human kind Nonviolent alternatives are proposed and considered      India after the

1857 Revolt M. Christhu Doss,2022-11-23 Weaving together the varied and complex strands of anti colonial nationalism into one compact narrative Christhu Doss takes an incisive look at the deeper and wider historical process of decolonization in India In India after the 1857 Revolt Doss brings together some of the most cutting edge thoughts by challenging the cultural project of colonialism and critically examining the multi dimensional aspects of decolonization during and after the 1857 revolt He demonstrates that the deep rooted popular discontent among the Indian masses followed by the revolt generated a distinctive form of decolonization movement redemptive nationalism that challenged both the supremacy of the British Raj and the cultural imperatives of the controversial proselytizing missionary agencies Doss argues that the quests for decolonization of mind that got triggered by the revolt were further intensified by the Indocentric national education the historic Chicago discourse of Swami Vivekananda the nonviolent anti colonial struggles of Mahatma Gandhi the seditious political activism displayed by the Western Gandhian missionary satyagrahis and the de Westernization endeavours of the sandwiched Indian Christian nationalists A compelling read for historians political scientists and sociologists it is refreshingly an indispensable guide to all those who are interested in anticolonial struggles and decolonization movements worldwide

In an Inescapable Network of Mutuality Lewis V. Baldwin,Paul R. Dekar,2013-08-30 The scholarship on Martin Luther King Jr has too often cast him in the image of the Southern black preacher and the American Gandhi while ignoring or trivializing his global connections and significance This groundbreaking work written by scholars religious leaders and activists of different backgrounds addresses this glaring pattern of neglect in King studies King is treated here as both a global figure and a forerunner of much of what is currently associated with contemporary globalization theory and praxis The contributors to this volume agree that King must be understood not only as a thinker visionary and social change agent in his own historical context but also in terms of his meaning for the different generations who still appeal to him as an authority inspiration and model of exemplary service to humanity The task of engaging King both in context and beyond context is fulfilled in remarkable ways in this volume without doing essential violence to this phenomenal figure      Psychology of Non-violence and Aggression V.K. Kool,2008-02 Covering the theories and models of the psychology of non violence this book explores the idea that this practice is not synonymous with the control of aggression but is an active behavior combining mainstream ideas with new contemporary perspectives      An Anthology of Nonviolence Krishna Mallick, Doris Hunter, 2002-09-30 What is the basis for choosing a nonviolent response to conflict and violence By presenting and analyzing some of the most significant answers that have been given to this question throughout history this anthology of writings from both Western and nonwestern traditions proposes principled and strategic nonviolence as a realistic alternative It includes a selection of historical sources on nonviolence ranging from the Bhagavad Gita to the Bible as well as a wide range of writings by authors such as Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr and Nelson Mandela who have contributed to both the theory and the practice of nonviolence Besides tracing the historical development of the concept this volume also suggests ways of applying nonviolence to our everyday lives in the first decade of the 21st century which the United Nations General Assembly has declared to be the Decade for Education for a Culture of Peace and Nonviolence      Leo Tolstoy David R. Egan, Melinda A. Egan, 2005 More than 1200 books essays articles and dissertations about Tolstoy can be found in this bibliography The entries are divided into sections on Tolstoy's fiction art and aesthetics philosophy religion education and political social and economic thought The volume also lists Tolstoy biographies comparisons with other authors and works abo      Journal of the Society of Christian Ethics , 2009      Studies in African American Leadership Victor Oguejiofor Okafor, Tunde Adeleke, 2006 This anthology presents a variety of essays dealing with contributions made by a select group of African American men women and organizations to the intergenerational struggles of New World Africans for social equality and racial justice These essays are updated versions of papers delivered at the Southern Convention on African American Studies in 2001      American Book Publishing Record , 2000      A Time for Choices Michael Toms, 2002 In the months after 9 11 Michael Toms selected and interviewed people from a diverse range of professions and perspectives in a quest to uncover responses to encourage dialogue and to present voices and views not being heard in the American mass media The result is this collection of wisdom from more than forty leading thinkers educators political analysts activists social innovators clergy journalists philosophers and spiritual teachers These are the voices of the fourth branch of government the bedrock of American democracy the people speaking out and questioning American values and policy The dialogues are grouped in nine sections that address concerns ranging from democracy peace and security to the spiritual dimension and the role of the media They include such luminaries as Terry Tempest Williams Paul Hawken Howard Zinn Susan Griffin John Mohawk Amy Goodman Joanna Macy Vicki Robin and Thomas Moore A Time for Choices will appeal to all seeking to understand the deeper roots of the crises facing the U S A Book jacket      Fasting Carole G.
