 Margareth Stewart is a seasoned and accomplished author This is her tenth published book She lives and works in Brazil and is of Italian extraction She prides herself in being multilingual and can speak Italian English and Portuguese fluently When not writing Margareth works as a teacher She relaxes by reading cooking jogging and listening to music Margareth s poetry is enthused with life experience and empathy I am impressed by the poetry s quality I drew my own interpretations from it Only Margareth knows the true meaning of each poem and that is the way it should be Margareth writes in several different styles some traditional some prose and some with various degrees and formats of rhyme In fact the style and structure of each poem is never the same This stimulated me and challenged me anew in my own interpretation of each poem Many of the poems made me think of areas where I could develop my own poetry There are forty eight pieces of poetry and prose within the book Many subjects are covered Margareth talks about maintaining self worth promoting positivity and living life to the full She shows how man is just a pawn in the scheme of things His threat to Nature The Universe and humanity is examined Many pieces reflect on love isolation and rejection as well as death dreams and grief Margareth stresses that it is time for action rather than just talking if we are to save the World from human interference I was left wondering whether some of the poems were based in the real world or in a dream world This made me think even more about their meaning She also writes about the value of a woman s role in Society This is an important subject at the moment and so it should be My favourite poems are Perfect Dream Magic Erotique I am Sorry The Nursing Home Independance 7 Sins Plastic Age Favor the Unfavored All in all I love the book I recommend it to read and it has been an honour to write an editorial for it Regards Jules Clare Nop's Hope Donald McCaig,1995-11-01 The Idler ,1897 Bentley's Miscellany Charles Dickens,William Harrison Ainsworth,Albert Smith,1866 Mastering Turbo Assembler Tom Swan,1989 Mastering Turbo Assembler is a hands on tutorial combined with an advanced level reference making this book an excellent resource for MS DOS programmers using Borland s newest language product An indispensable addition to any user s library The Naval Chronicle, Containing a General and Biographical History of the Royal Navy of the United Kingdom, with a Variety of Original Papers on Nautical Subjects , London Bicycle Club Gazette ,1883 Eaglewood ,2001 The Dental Century ,1898
The Goals of the Committee on Commerce for the Second Session of the 94th Congress United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce,1976 Changing Politics of Education Michael Fabricant,Michelle Fine,2015-11-17 The authors persuasively argue that the present cascade of reforms to public education is a consequence of a larger intention to shrink government The startling result is that more of public education s assets and resources are moving to the private sector and to the prison industrial complex Drawing on various forms of evidence structural economic narrative and youth generated participatory research the authors reveal new structures and circuits of dispossession and privilege that amount to a clear failure of present policy Policymaking is at war with the interests of the vast majority of citizens and especially with urban youth of color In the final chapter the authors explore democratic principles and offer examples essential to mobilizing in solidarity with educators youth communities labor and allied social movements the kind of power necessary to contest the present direction of public education reform
