Alyson Campbell,Dirk Gindt,2018-03-20 This book analyses the impact of HIV and AIDS on performance in the twenty first century from an international perspective It marks a necessary reaffirmation of the productive power of performance to respond to a public and political health crisis and act as a mode of resistance to cultural amnesia discrimination and stigmatisation It sets out a number of challenges and contexts for HIV and AIDS performance in the twenty first century including the financial interests of the pharmaceutical industry the unequal access to treatment and prevention technologies in the Global North and Global South the problematic division between dominant white gay urban cis male and marginalised narratives of HIV the tension between a damaging cultural amnesia and a potentially equally damaging partner AIDS nostalgia the criminalisation of HIV non disclosure and sustaining and sustained by all of these the ongoing stigmatisation of people living with HIV This collection presents work from a vast range of contexts grouped around four main areas women s voices and experiences generations memories and temporalities inter national narratives and artistic and personal reflections and interventions

AIDS-Trauma and Politics Aimee Pozorski,2019-06-26 AIDS Trauma and Politics considers American literary representations of the social and political silence surrounding the AIDS crisis in the U S in the 1980s The book offers close readings of such authors as Paul Monette Mark Doty Rafael Campo Sarah Schulman Tony Kushner and Larry Kramer in order to argue that the AIDS crisis was born largely without a witness and as a result marks a significant trauma in U S history Grounded by trauma studies AIDS Trauma and Politics argues that the arts exemplified here by literature and film uniquely underscore social problems otherwise overlooked by such discourses as politics the law and journalism Defining the 1980s AIDS crisis as a perfect case this book proposes to redefine trauma not simply as an event that happened too soon but rather as an ongoing series of oversights resulting in a failure to acknowledge or witness the humanity of those who suffer

Public/Private Gail Merrifield Papp,2023-10-17 Blending a behind the scenes history about New York City s Public Theater with an engrossing account of her life working alongside her husband the Public s founder Joe Papp Public Private is Gail Merrifield Papp s enthralling and highly entertaining memoir about the legendary theatrical institution Opening with its early days in the Sixties her narrative spans the decades long theatrical partnership the couple enjoyed until Joe's death in 1991 During that time the Public staged hundreds of productions ranging from free Shakespeare in Central Park to new plays such as Ntozake Shange's for colored girls who have considered suicide when the rainbow is enuf and musicals like Hair and A Chorus Line an extraordinary body of work that launched the careers of dozens of actors including James Earl Jones Colleen Dewhurst Gloria Foster Morgan Freeman Ra'l Juli Kevin Kline George C Scott Martin Sheen Meryl Streep and Diane Venora all of whom make an appearance in the book In a witty conversational style Gail Papp paints a comprehensive picture of the ways that the Public was driven by Joe's ambition to create a democratic theater whose artists and audiences would reflect the city's population Also highlighted are unfamiliar aspects of his many battles with the establishment from tilts with Robert Moses to theater critics The scourge of AIDS is also documented in the form of people close to Joe and Gail and in the toll it exacted on Joe's son Tony In recounting setbacks and frustrations alongside moments of passionate artistry and theatrical innovation Gail's personal remembrances lend the narrative a keen emotional edge which will captivate readers At a time when America remains divided over issues of equality identity and freedom of expression Public Private is an important chronicle of how the Public Theater became a transformative beacon for social change and of the man who created it

Representations of HIV and AIDS Gabriele Griffin, 2000 Gabriele Griffin argues that the explosion of HIV/AIDS into highly visible cultural forms from movies theatre activist interventions and art from the late 1980s to the mid 1990s has been replaced by a retreat to artistic invisibility
