book draws on all of Pater's oeuvre and includes discussions of a range of his unpublished manuscripts, essays and reviews. It engages with Pater's dialogue with the visual portrait and problematises the oscillation between type and individual, the generic and the particular which characterises both the visual and the literary portrait. Exploring Pater's involvement with nineteenth-century historiography and collective memory, the book positions Pater's fiction solidly within such nineteenth-century genres as the historical novel and the Bildungsroman, while also discussing the portraits as specimens of biographical writing. As the Ur-texts from which generations of modernist life writing developed, Pater's imaginary portraits became pivotal for such modernist writers as Virginia Woolf and Harold Nicolson. Walter Pater's European Imagination explores such twentieth-century successors together with French contemporaries like Sainte-Beuve and followers like Marcel Schwob.
