Religions Mario I. Aguilar, 2012-11-02 This work proposes a theological investigation of the community of the Church as outlined by liberation theology and a possible conversation with liberation from suffering in Tibetan Buddhism What unites both is the human process of sublimation for others whereby liberation theologians as well as enlightened lamas give the best of themselves for the liberation of others At this stage of discussions between inclusivists and exclusivists this work proposes that dialogue with world religions and therefore with Buddhism is not about finding possible dogmatic similarities but a common place a common purpose through a common humanity New SCM Dictionary of Christian Spirituality Philip

Damian 1007-1072 is an exceptional example of a paradox that is found in many saints and thinkers through the ages St Jerome St Bernard St Bridget of Sweden St Teresa of Avila and Thomas Merton come to mind of a lifelong tension between two competing vocations the call to solitude and holiness and the call to prophetic social and ecclesial engagement The author has explored this tension throughout his adult life both in his published work and in his own life as an Episcopalian Anglican priest and later bishop Damian's The Book of The Lord be with you is a profound exploration of the spirituality of solitude whereas his Book of Gomorrah is an intense attack on clerical sexual abuse which has helped to give Damian a new recent prominence in the light of the huge challenges facing the Church today The Bonds of Love shows that the paradox at the heart of Damian's life and everything he cared about was rooted in the remarkable theology of love which finds expression across the whole of his work and gives it both coherence and dynamism His life and spirituality are of far more than academic interest and will make a major contribution not only to those committed to ecclesial reform and renewal but to all who struggle to live with the kind of competing tensions that made St Peter Damian who he was A Brief History of

The Holy Way Paula Huston,2009-02-05 For many of us living simply is simply impossible We just have too much to do But one of the main reasons we think simple living is impossible is that we are unsure of how to get a simpler life started Drawing on the powerful histories of the saints and her own personal experience author Paula Huston shows us how living simply begins with a commitment to spiritual simplicity in our lives Each chapter in The Holy Way introduces a different spiritual practice including solitude purity and generosity and explores it through historical perspectives and Huston's compelling personal reflections From Saint Anthony's chosen life of solitude to Saint Catherine of Siena's strength of conviction Huston tells stories of courageous faith that exemplify the blessed and transformative power of being alone with God and living simply

Here Begins the Dark Sea Meredith Francesca Small, 2023-06-06 The remarkable story of the cartographic masterpiece the Venetian mappa mundi that revolutionized how we see the world In 1459 a Venetian monk named Fra Mauro completed an astonishing map of the world

Seven feet in diameter Fra Mauro's mappamundi is the oldest and most complete Medieval map to survive into modernity. And in its time this groundbreaking mappamundi provided the most detailed description of the known world incorporating accurate observation and geographic reality, urging viewers to see water and land as they really existed. Fra Mauro's map was the first in history to show that a ship could circumnavigate Africa and that the Indian Sea was in fact an ocean, enabling international trade to expand across the globe. Acclaimed anthropologist Meredith F. Small reveals how Fra Mauro's mappamundi made cartography into a science rather than a practice based on religion and ancient myths. Here Begins the Dark Sea brings Fra Mauro's masterpiece to life as a work of art and a window into Venetian society and culture. In telling the story of this cornerstone of modern cartography, Small takes the reader on a fascinating journey as she explores the human urge to find our way. Here Begins the Dark Sea is a riveting testament to the undeniable impact Fra Mauro and his mappamundi have had over the past five centuries and still holds relevance today. Thomas Merton Mario Aguilar, 2011-03-18 A fresh exploration of Merton's life and thought focussing on his role as a Christian activist. Written by an author who combines a contemplative life with political action, this is an inspirational book that will encourage readers to work towards a more just world. The Hermits of Big Sur Paula Huston, 2021-11-01 Between World War II and Vatican II as Italy struggled to rebuild after decades of Mussolini's fascism, an eleventh-century order of contemplative monks in the Apennines were urged by Thomas Merton to found a daughter house on the rugged coast of California. A brilliant but world-weary ex-Jesuit who had recently withdrawn from a high-intensity public life to go into reclusion at the ancient Sacro Eremo of Camaldoli was tapped for the job. Based on notes kept for over sixty years by an early American novice at New Camaldoli Hermitage, The Hermits of Big Sur tells the compelling story of what unfolds within this small and idealistic community when medievalism must finally come to terms with modernism. It traces the call toward fuga mundi in the young seekers who arrive to try their vocations only to discover that the monastic life requires much more of them than a bare desire for solitude. And it describes the miraculous transformation that sometimes occurs in individual monks after decades of lectio divina, silent meditation, liturgical faithfulness, and the communal bonds they have formed through the practice of the privilege of love.

The Monastic Way Hannah Ward, 2013-01-25 A book of daily readings drawn from the writings of those who have lived the monastic life in all the major spiritual traditions of the Eastern and Western Churches: Benedictine, Franciscan, Orthodox, Carmelite, and others. For each month there is a specific theme: Starting Out, Seeking Guidance, Living With Others, Balancing Life, and so on through the year. Each theme is introduced by quotations from one of the great monastic Rules, and for each day of the year there is an excerpt from the writings of a huge variety of men and women stretching across the centuries, from 5th-century Desert Mothers to Basil Hume, Joan Chittister, Thomas Merton, and many more familiar and new names. This is a book for all who are looking to an ancient, rooted wisdom for practical guidance on living in the world today. One Ordinary Sunday Paula Huston, 2024-06-15 Award-winning writer Paula Huston offers a rich spiritual reflection on the origin and meaning of the Catholic Mass For Catholics the Mass is the source and summit of the Christian life as the documents of the Church put it Yet many Catholics might confess to not understand in any depth what goes on in a typical celebration of the Eucharist In One Ordinary Sunday Paula Huston guides us through a Mass at her home parish in a rural California town Huston s personal and spiritual reflections offer fresh and often unexpected insights into the profound mystery at the heart of the Catholic faith A natural storyteller Huston deftly illuminates what might seem either mysterious to those unfamiliar with the Mass or overly familiar to those who have lost an appreciation of its mystery In the Mass we are healed and restored and spiritually fed she writes We are unified and made whole as a people and as a Church We get a little taste of heaven
