Religion And Society A Text For Africa:

Religion and Society M. F. C. Bourdillon, 1991 Law and Religion in Africa Pieter Coertzen, M Christiaan Green, Len Hansen, 2015-05-01 In our time the study of law and religion is emerging as a wide ranging and vital academic discipline with increasingly urgent implications for society at large Lying at the intersection of a variety of other disciplines law theology religious studies political science sociology and anthropology to name only the most obvious the field of law and religion is generating a burgeoning volume of interdisciplinary and trans disciplinary research and study The current volume is proof of this The discussion of the relationship between law and religion as seen from a variety of perspectives in Africa underscores the critical importance of the issues involved in the everyday life of all citizens It is accordingly vital for governments to take note of the scholarly results that are produced We hope that this volume will contribute to this aim Religion and Society in Sub-Saharan Africa and Southern Asia Carole Rakodi, 2019-03-18 This book analyses how religion is entangled in people s lives in Sub Saharan Africa and southern Asia It provides an introduction to the teachings practices and values promoted by the main religious traditions in these regions and an overview of the evidence on what religion means to people in terms of their beliefs and religious practices and how it influences their values attitudes and day to day relationships with others especially their families Over the course of the book Carole Rakodi explores similarities and differences between and within religious traditions and identifies some of the key factors that influence and explain the roles played by religion in people s personal lives and social relationships A separate companion volume will go on to focus on the social and political roles and relationships of religious groups and organisations This book will be of great interest to academics and students working in a range of disciplines especially sociology religious studies and development studies but also anthropology geography and area studies Dreaming, Religion and Society in Africa M.C. Jedrej, Rosalind Shaw, 2023-11-20 The contributors to this investigation of dreaming in a diversity of African cultures and settings have each approached the matter with a respect for an indigenous discourse which does not necessarily subscribe to Western evaluations of the objective and subjective The matter of dreaming is not so much a psychological constant as ultimately sociological and historical Dream discourse as a strategy deploys contingencies in the elaboration of social relationships and the defence restoration and promotion of identities Dreaming is therefore prominent in such critical settings as sickness and healing artistic inspiration and craftwork election to religious office conversion to Islam or Christianity Religious Freedom and Religious Pluralism in Africa Pieter Coertzen, M Christian Green, Len Hansen, 2016-05-22 Africa continues to be a region with strong commitments to religious freedom and religious pluralism These however are rarely mere facts on the ground they are legal political social and theological projects that require considerable effort to realise This volume compiling the proceedings of the third annual conference of the African Consortium for Law and Religion Studies focuses on various issues which vastly effect the understanding of religious pluralism in Africa These include amongst others religious freedom as a human right the importance of managing religious pluralism and the permissibility of religious practice and observance in South African public schools

The Routledge Handbook of Disability in Southern Africa Tsitsi Chataika, 2018-07-27 This comprehensive ground breaking southern African centred collection spans the breadth of disability research and practice Reputable and emerging scholars together with disability advocates adopt a critical and interdisciplinary stance to prove challenge and shift commonly held social understanding of disability in traditional discourses frontiers and practices in prominent areas such as inter national development disability studies education culture health religion gender sports tourism ICT theatre media housing and legislation This handbook provides a body of interdisciplinary analyses suitable for the development of disability studies in southern Africa Through drawing upon and introducing resources from several disciplines theoretical perspectives and personal narratives from disability activists it reflects on disability and sustainable development in southern Africa It also addresses a clear need to bring together interdisciplinary perspectives and narratives on disability and sustainable development in ways that do not undermine disability politics advanced by disabled people across the world The handbook further acknowledges and builds upon the huge body of literature that understands the social cultural educational psychological economic historical and political facets of the exclusion of disabled people The handbook covers the following broad themes Disability inclusion ICT and sustainable development Access to education from early childhood development up to higher education Disability employment entrepreneurship and community based rehabilitation Religion gender and parenthood Tourism sports and accessibility Compelling narratives from disability activists on societal attitudes toward disability media advocacy accessible housing and social exclusion Thus this much awaited handbook provides students academics practitioners development partners policy makers and activists with an authoritative framework for critical thinking and debates that inform policy and practice in incomparable ways with the view to promoting inclusive and sustainable development

Jewish Culture and Society in North Africa Emily Benichou Gottreich, Daniel J. Schroeter, 2011-07-01

With only a small remnant of Jews still living in the Maghrib at the beginning of the 21st century the vast majority of today's inhabitants of North Africa have never met a Jew Yet as this volume reveals Jews were an integral part of the North African landscape from antiquity Scholars from Morocco Algeria Tunisia Israel and the United States shed new light on Jewish life and Muslim Jewish relations in North Africa through the lenses of history anthropology language and literature The history and life stories told in this book illuminate the close cultural affinities and poignant relationships between Muslims and Jews and the uneasy coexistence that both united and divided them throughout the history of the Maghrib

Doubt, Scholarship and Society in 17th-Century Central Sudanic Africa Dorrit van Dalen, 2016-07-11 The seventeenth century was a period of major social change in central sudanic Africa Islam spread from royal courts to rural communities leading to new identities new boundaries and new tasks for experts of the religion Addressing these issues the Bornu scholar Mu ammad al W l acquired an exceptional reputation Dorrit van Dalen's study places him within his intellectual environment and portrays him as responding to the concerns of ordinary Muslims. It shows that scholars on the geographical margins of the Muslim world participated in the debates in the centres of Muslim learning of the time but on their own terms. Al W l s work also sheds light on a century in the Islamic history of West Africa that has until now received little attention. New Media and Religious Transformations in Africa Rosalind I. J. Hackett, Benjamin F. Soares, 2015-01-21

New Media and Religious Transformations in Africa casts a critical look at Africa's rapidly evolving religious media scene. Following political liberalization, media deregulation, and the proliferation of new media technologies, many African religious leaders and activists have appropriated such media to strengthen and expand their communities and gain public recognition. Media have also been used to marginalize and restrict the activities of other groups, which has sometimes led to tension, conflict, and even violence. Showing how media are rarely neutral vehicles of expression, the contributors to this multidisciplinary volume analyze the mutual imbrications of media and religion during times of rapid technological and social change in various places throughout Africa. Polity And Society In Contemporary North Africa I. William Zartman, William Mark Habeeb, I William Zartman, 2019-06-04

In the twenty-five years since the last comprehensive book on state and society in North Africa was published, the nations of the Maghrib have undergone profound social, political, and economic changes. The region has, for example, experienced one of the highest population growth rates in the world, accompanied by a dramatic increase in migration. African Traditional Religion in South Africa David Chidester, Chirevo Kwenda, Robert Petty, Judy Tobler, Darrel Wratten, 1997-08-07

In a changing South Africa, recovering the meaning and power of African tradition is a matter of crucial importance. This work participates in that recovery by providing a comprehensive guide to research on the indigenous religious heritage of this dynamic country. Detailed reviews of over 600 books, articles, and theses are offered along with introductory essays and detailed annotations that define the field of study. This work, plus two forthcoming volumes, Christianity in South Africa: An Annotated Bibliography and Islam, Hinduism, and Judaism in South Africa: An Annotated Bibliography, will become the standard reference work on South African religions. Scholars and students in Religious Studies, Social Anthropology, History, and African Studies will find this set particularly useful. This work organizes and annotates all the relevant literature on Khoisan, Xhosa, Zulu, Sotho, Tswana, Swazi, Tsonga, and Venda traditions. The annotations are concise yet detailed essays written in an engaging and accessible style and supported by an exhaustive index which comprises a full and complex profile of African traditional religion in South Africa. Multiculturalism and the Convergence of Faith and Practical Wisdom in Modern Society Pascal, Ana-Maria, 2016-12-21

Trajectories of Religion in Africa Cephas N. Omenyo, Eric B. Anum, 2014-03-01 The book in the main discusses issues relating to mission ecumenism and theological education and is presented in four sections The first segment discusses works on ecumenical and theological education and assesses the relevance of the World Council of Churches Other issues discussed in this segment relate to the interrelationships that exist between academic theology ecumenism and Christianity The World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 which set the agenda for world wide mission in a promising manner in the 1920s is also assessed in this section of the work The second segment which covers Religion and Public Space discusses works that examine the relationships between religion and power religion and development religion and traditional religious beliefs and religion and practices in Africa The third segment of the book treats Religion and Cultural Practices in African and how all these work out in couching out an African theology and African Christianity Some of the issues discussed in this section related to African traditional philosophy spiritism and the interrelationships that exist between African Christianity and African Traditional Religion The last segment of the book discusses the issue of African biblical hermeneutics and specifically looks at contemporary hermeneutical approaches to biblical interpretations in Africa

The Middle East and North Africa Florian Zemmin, Nequin Yavari, Markus Dressler, Nurit Stadler, 2024-12-16 This volume collects reflections on secularity from the Middle East and North Africa To highlight proximate connections as well as resonances with debates elsewhere it includes premodern contributions from the region as well as Jewish thought from Europe that have provided significant references for modern appropriations of secularity The texts for the most part previously untranslated reflect commonalities within the region as well as its great diversity Thus while Islam is a common reference for most of our authors the selections point to its varied invocations in the interest of differing political ends Others write from a Christian or Jewish perspective or subscribe to non religious intellectual traditions They range from premodern Muslim jurists and philosophers to Ottoman statesmen Arab socialist and nationalist intellectuals of the interwar period Iranian revolutionaries Israeli novelists and finally post secular intellectuals lay and religious predominantly from the former Islamic heartland modern Arab states and Iran Several introductions weave together the swathe of topics raised in the discussions beginning with a schematic presentation of the concerns that undergird the volume s organization

Islam in West Africa Nehemia Levtzion, 2017-01-12 First published in 1994 this volume brings together essays from the celebrated scholar of African history Nehemia Levtzion The articles cover a wide range of themes including Islamization Islam in politics Islamic revolutions and the work of the historian in studying this field This collection is a rich source of supplementary material to Professor Levtzion s major publications on Islam in West Africa This book will be of key interest to those studying Islamic and West African history

Reinventing Africa Annie E.

Coombes,1994-01-01 Between 1890 and 1918 British colonial expansion in Africa led to the removal of many African artifacts that were subsequently brought to Britain and displayed Annie Coombes argues that this activity had profound repercussions for the construction of a national identity within Britain itself the effects of which are still with us today Through a series of detailed case studies Coombes analyzes the popular and scientific knowledge of Africa which shaped a diverse public s perception of that continent the looting and display of the Benin bronzes from Nigeria ethnographic museums the mass spectacle of large scale international and missionary exhibitions and colonial exhibitions such as the Stanley and African of 1890 together with the critical reaction to such events in British national newspapers the radical and humanitarian press and the West African press Coombes argues that although endlessly reiterated racial stereotypes were disseminated through popular images of all things African this was no simple reproduction of imperial ideology There were a number of different and sometimes conflicting representations of Africa and of what it was to be African representations that varied according to political institutional and disciplinary pressures The professionalization of anthropology over this period played a crucial role in the popularization of contradictory ideas about African culture to a mass public Pioneering in its research this book offers valuable insights for art and design historians historians of imperialism and anthropology anthropologists and museologists

Religion and Social Reconstruction in Africa Elias Kifon Bongmba,2018-06-13 Religion has played a major role in both the division and unification of peoples and countries within Africa Its capacity to cause and to heal societal rifts has been well documented This book addresses this powerful societal force and explores the implications of a theology of reconstruction most notably articulated by Jesse Mugambi This way of thinking seeks to build on liberation theology aiming to encourage the rebuilding of African society on its own terms An international panel of contributors bring an interdisciplinary perspective to the issues around reconstructing the religious elements of African society Looking at issues of reconciliation postcolonialism and indigenous spirituality among others they show that Mugambi s cultural and theological insight has the potential to revolutionise the way people in Africa address this issue This is a fascinating exploration of the religious facets of African life As such it will be of great interest to scholars of religious studies theology and African studies

European Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa Ulrich Berner,Christoph Bochinger,2004 This volume comprises case studies of five centuries of European encounters with and imaginations of Africa encompassing her triple religious heritage African Traditional Religions Christianity and Islam The introductory chapters outline the challenges and present overviews some of them also analyze the early accounts of European travelers and missionaries The following contributions examine the lasting legacy of the European Enlightenment in employing an ambivalent language of human equality and universalism while in actual fact consigning Africa to an inferior position It has been difficult for western scholars to divorce themselves wholly from the perceptions thus established However there have been quite different approaches This is indicated in the papers discussing the role and impact of influential European academics scholars of religion theologians historians and social scientists during the colonial and postcolonial period Other contributions examine specific institutional centers of African religious studies in Europe The concluding chapters critically assess European approaches and their use for the study of religion in Africa from an African perspective
