Religion And Society In The Himalayas:

Religion and Society in the Himalayas Tanka Bahadur Subba, Karubaki Datta, 1991 The Vacuum created by the earlier authors by not touching several important areas on this subject have been properly bridged by these authors of the twelve papers included in the book Seven of them centre around Buddhism one on the interrelationship of B Culture and the Environment in the Himalaya Arjun Guneratne, 2009-12-24 Drawing on Himalayan ethnography to interrogate and critique contemporary theorizing about the environment this book examines how the environment is conceptualized among different social groups in the region A new approach to the study of the environment in South Asia this book introduces the new thinking in environmental anthropology and geography into the study of the Himalaya The Sherpas of the Himalayas Manis Kumar Raha, Palash Chandra Coomar, Sudip Bhui, 2016-01-01 The present book is a detailed first of its kind study of the Sherpas inhabiting Darjeeling District of West Bengal and South District of Sikkim This ethnographic study among the Sherpas of these two areas was undertaken by the authors because firstly the Sherpas here have very interesting culture and secondly these people here are very little known All detailed studies so far published are on the Sherpas of Nepal So people know about the Sherpas of Nepal but not about them living in Darjeeling and Sikkim From this detailed study the readers of this book particularly those who are interested about the people of the Himalayas and of North East India will get a comprehensive idea about the life and activities of these inhabitants of the Himalayas Moreover in this book a comparison between their society and culture and those of their congeners in Nepal has also been made As a result the readers will get a complete life sketch of these people from this book This book will also help in formulating and undertaking development programmes among them and also in the areas they live Culture and the Environment in the Himalaya Arjun Guneratne, 2009-12-24 This book is concerned with human environment relations in the Himalaya It explores how different populations and communities in the region understand or conceive of the concept of environment how their concepts vary across lines of gender class age status and what this implies for policy makers in the fields of environmental conservation and development The chapters in this book analyse the symbolic schema that shape human environment relations whether that of scientists studying the Himalayan environment public officials crafting policy about it or people making a living from their engagement with it and the way that natural phenomena themselves shape human perception of the world A new approach to the study of the environment in South Asia this book introduces the new thinking in environmental anthropology and geography into the study of the Himalaya and uses Himalayan ethnography to interrogate and critique contemporary theorizing about the environment The Ravaged Paradise Dipanwita Dasgupta, 2023-04-03 This book makes a systematic attempt to explore the environmental history of Darjeeling during the British colonial period 1835 1947 which profoundly transformed the environment of Darjeeling by introducing commercial control over the natural resources After the foundation of Darjeeling as the hill station for the low income groups of British administration living in Bengal and Burma the place was transformed into a social recreational and commercial centre for the British authorities The railway construction boom introduction of tea plantation the growth of a commercial market for timber and increasing demands for fuel and building materials depleted the forest cover The less explored regions of Darjeeling attracted the adventure thirsty Britons A series of investigations were made on the marketable products the condition of roads and quality of soil of these regions The ethnographic geological botanical and zoological study of the Darjeeling was started by the colonial officials in the nineteenth century In the early stage of expansion of colonialism in Asia Africa Australia and South America the European colonizers faced numerous problems in dealing with the untouched nature The accumulation of the knowledge of surrounding regions and proper management of the labour became essential for the colonial authority for transformation of the existing environment of the densely forested tropical colonies Taylor and Francis does not sell or distribute the print editions of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka
