Religion Civil Society And The State:

Religion, Civil Society and the State J. P. Singh Uberoi, 1996 Religion civil society and the state form the three dimensions of this semiological study of Sikhism The author argues for a recognition of the figure of the martyr whose victory is over the self rather than the figure of the hero whose victory is over the victim Religion, Civil Society, and Peace in Northern Ireland John D. Brewer, Gareth I. Higgins, Francis Teeney, 2011-12 Religion is traditionally portrayed as nothing but trouble in Ireland but the churches played a key role in Northern Ireland's peace process This study challenges many existing assumptions about the peace process drawing on four years of interviewing with those involved including church leaders politicians and paramilitary members Religion, Civil Society and Democracy in Contemporary India Anindita Chakrabarti, 2018 Discusses the relevance of the reigning paradigms of Sanskritization and Islamization in the study of religious movements Religion and Civil Society David Herbert, 2017-03-02 This book presents the first full length study of the relationship between religion and the controversial concept of civil society Across the world in the last two decades of the twentieth century religions re entered public space as influential discursive and symbolic systems apparently beyond the control of either traditional religious authorising institutions or states This differentiation of religion from traditional institutions and entry into secular public spheres carries both dangers and possible benefits for democracy Offering a fresh interdisciplinary approach to understanding religion in contemporary societies this book provides an invaluable resource for students and researchers in religious studies sociology politics and political philosophy theology international relations and legal studies Part one presents a critical introduction to the interaction between religion modernization and postmodernization in Western and non Western settings America Europe the Middle East and India focussing on discourses of human rights civil society and the public sphere and the controversial question of their cross cultural application Part two examines religion and civil society through case studies of Egypt Bosnia and Muslim minorities in Britain and compares Poland as an example of a Christian majority society that has experienced the public reassertion of religion Religious Communities and Civil Society in Europe Rupert Graf Strachwitz, 2020-06-08 The seemingly vitalizing impact of religiosity on civil society is a research topic that has been extensively looked into not only in the USA but increasingly also in a European context What is missing is an evaluation of the role of institutionalized religious communities and of circumstances that facilitate or impede their status as civil society organisations This anthology in 2 volumes aims at closing this gap by providing case studies regarding political legal and historical aspects in various European countries Vol 2 provides some theoretical aspects a report on the final conference and case studies from Germany France United Kingdom Italy Poland and the Ukraine as well as a special chapter on Brazil and a Note on Religious Political Ideology Civil Society and Fanaticism Dominique Colas, 1997 Includes bibliographical references and index Knowledge and Human Liberation Ananta Kumar Giri, 2014-11-01 Human liberation has become an epochal challenge in today's world requiring not only emancipation from oppressive structures but also from the oppressive self It is a multidimensional struggle and aspiration in which knowledge self social and spiritual can play a transformative role Knowledge and Human Liberation Towards Planetary Realizations undertakes such a journey of transformation and seeks to rethink knowledge vis vis the familiar themes of human interest critical theory enlightenment ethnography democracy pluralism rationality secularism and cosmopolitanism The volume also features a Foreword by John Clammer United Nations University Tokyo and an Afterword by Fred Dallmayr University of Notre Dame
