Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 1 Robert Boyd, 2017-05-04 Philosophically Thinking about World Religions is different from other works in the discipline today It deviates from the typical approaches used for the study of world religions Its goal is to engage readers in thinking hard about world religions not about the data surrounding those traditions By focusing on philosophical questions each reader should be challenged to do their own investigations that may reveal the heart of these traditions Another stance that this project takes that distinguishes it from other texts in the discipline is that it advocates an inclusivist perspective regarding the world religions Pluralism which is the predominate assumption today ends either in contradiction or in the development of a metatheory that dismisses crucial distinctions between the various traditions or eliminates some ancient religions because they do not fit the metatheory By taking an open inclusivist approach all religious traditions may engage at the table of dialogue The final essay is about justice and social affairs While that discussion is couched within the context of a particular tradition each religious tradition must have the discussion But it must be more than an intrareligious dialogue it must become an interreligious dialogue The Role of the Indigenous African Psyche in the Evolution of Human Consciousness Mike Loutzenhiser, 2008 a major work an intellectual and cultural tour de force Loutzenhiser's range in the world of the metaphysicians is sure His sections on the arts are most penetrating and offer original ideas and insights Edward Bruce Bynum author of The African Unconscious Director of Behavioral Medicine University of Massachusetts Amherst I was impressed with the range of issues and thinkers covered It is a rare thinker who can find the thread that connects Hegelian phenomenology transpersonal psychology holonic theory the chakra system the prose of Jack Kerouac and the music of Sun Ra Samuel Oluoch Imbo author of An Introduction to African Philosophy thought provoking thoroughgoing Nikitah Okembe Imani associate professor of Sociology Africentric Critical Studies James Madison University brilliant and intriguing ideas Loutzenhiser's mind is amazing vigorous and rich John Davis professor of Transpersonal Psychology Naropa University important Molefi Kete Asante author of The Afrocentric Idea

Traditional Churches, Born Again Christianity, and Pentecostalism Yonatan N. Gez, 2018-09-08 In Kenya's vibrant urban religious landscape where Pentecostal and traditional churches of various orientations live side by side religious identity tends to overflow a single institutional affiliation While Kenya's Christianity may offer modes of coping with the fragilities of urban life it is subject to repeated crises and schisms often fueled by rumors and accusations of hypocrisy In order to understand the unfolding of Kenyans' dynamic religious identities and inspired by the omnipresent distinction between religious membership and church visits Yonatan N. Gez considers the complementary relations between a center of religious affiliation and expansion towards secondary practices Building on this basic distinction the book develops a theoretical innovation in the form of the religious repertoire model which maps individuals' religious identities in terms of three intertwined degrees of practice Religions in the Modern World Linda Woodhead, Christopher Partridge, Hiroko

Re-imagining African Christologies Victor I. Ezigbo,2010-02-08 Who do you say that I am Mark 8 29 is the question of Christology By asking this question Jesus invites his followers to interpret him from within their own contexts history experience and social location Therefore all responses to Jesus s invitation are contextual But for too long many theologians particularly in the West have continued to see Christology as a universal endeavor that is devoid of any contextual influences This understanding of Christology undermines Jesus s expectations from us to imagine and appropriate him from within our own contexts In Re imagining African Christologies Victor I Ezigbo presents a constructive exposition of the unique ways that many African theologians and lay Christians from various church denominations have interpreted and appropriated Jesus Christ in their own contexts He also articulates the constructive contributions that these African Christologies can make to the development of Christological discourse in non African Christian communities The Oxford Handbook of Global Religions Mark Juergensmeyer,2011-08-25 This is a reference for understanding world religious societies in their contemporary global diversity Comprising 60 essays the volume focuses on communities rather than beliefs symbols or rites The contributors are leading scholars of world religions many of whom are also members of the communities they study
