Comparing Cultures and Religions in a Postmodern World Basile Sede Noujio, 2021-03-22 Culture and religion are basic to every human society and the history of a people always sustains her cultural and religious values We decided to use the African culture and religion as our departing point for the mere fact that Africa is generally considered as the cradle of civilization and it is a very historic and controversial continent However while examining some prominent world cultures and religions in a comparative manner our major focus is on the Christian Thomistic culture religion as illustrated by Jacques Maritain in comparison with the African culture religion as expressed by Joseph Ki Zerbo Both thinkers consider that in the midst of multiculturalism and globalization authentic humanism or personalism that is based on the sacredness of the human person should be endorsed as a new civilization or culture Only such a culture can make the future of humankind essentially meaningful and interesting Shifting from all mediocre standards of culture which are based on relativism supported by postmodern thinkers there is a need to get back to the original culture that is based on authentic and objective standards The major difference that we noticed between the Thomistic Christian ideas and those of the Africans is that while Jacques Maritain appeals for Thomistic humanism to grow from the formal classrooms and the books into the streets and the fields Ki Zerbo explains that African humanism has always existed in the streets and in the fields it might never even have existed in the books and in the classrooms The global reaction toward the killing of George Floyd in USA defying all fears of the COVID 19 intensifies the argument that a culture which qualifies one race as being superior over another has to be reexamined and radically eradicated and replaced by authentic humanism

From World Religions to Axial Civilizations and Beyond Saïd Amir Arjomand, Stephen Kalberg, 2021-03-01 The post World War II idea of the Axial Age by Karl Jaspers and as elaborated into the sociology of axial civilizations by S N Eisenstadt in the later twentieth and early twenty first centuries continues to be the subject of intense scholarly debate Examples of this can be found in recent works of Hans Joas and Jürgen Habermas In From World Religions to Axial Civilizations and Beyond an internationally distinguished group of scholars discuss advance and criticize the Jaspers Eisenstadt thesis and go beyond it by bringing in the critical influence of Max Weber's sociology of world religions and by exploring intercivilizational encounters in key world regions The essays within this volume are of unusual interest for their original analysis of relatively neglected civilizational zones especially Islam and the Islamicate civilization and the Byzantine civilization and its continuation in Orthodox Russia
