Religious Authority In An Age Of Doubt:

Religious Authority in an Age of Doubt Rupert E. Davies, 1968-01-01 Religious Authority in an Age of Doubt Rupert Eric Davies, 1968 Islamic Religious Authority in a Modern Age Shaheen Amid Whyte, 2024-01-22 This book situates Australian Muslim experiences of religious authority within the global context of Islam in the modern world While drawing on examples of Muslim majority states new empirical findings indicate the growing diversity of Muslim religious actors in Australia as well as the contextual realities shaping the way religious authority is legitimised and contested in democratic and authoritarian environments In particular the study challenges homogenous articulations of Islamic religious authority in unearthing new voices epistemologies and socio political factors shaping Muslim attitudes and experiences of religious authority The book fills important gaps in the field such as intra Muslim relations female religious authority digital Islam and the relationship between traditional ulama reformists and Muslim intellectuals in the West The Changing Shape of English Nonconformity, 1825-1925 Dale A. Johnson, 1999 This book addresses several dimensions of the transformation of English Nonconformity over the course of an important century in its history It begins with the question of education for ministry considering the activities undertaken by four major evangelical traditions Congregationalist Baptist Methodist and Presbyterian to establish theological colleges for this purpose and then takes up the complex three way relationship of ministry churches colleges that evolved from these activities As author Dale Johnson illustrates this evolution came to have significant implications for the Nonconformist engagement with its message and with the culture at large These implications are investigated in chapters on the changing perception or understanding of ministry itself religious authority theological questions such as the doctrines of God and the atonement and religious identity In Johnson's exploration of these issues conversations about these topics are located primarily in addresses at denominational meetings conferences that took up specific questions and representative religious and theological publications of the day that participated in key debates or advocated contentious positions While attending to some important denominational differences The Changing Shape of English Nonconformity 1825 1925 focuses on the representative discussion of these topics across the whole spectrum of evangelical Nonconformity rather than on specific denominational traditions Johnson maintains that too many interpretations of nineteenth century Nonconformity especially those that deal with aspects of the theological discussion within these traditions have tended to depict such developments as occasions of decline from earlier phases of evangelical vitality and appeal This book instead argues that it is more appropriate to assess these Nonconformist developments as a collective necessary and deeply serious effort to come to terms with modernity and further to retain a responsible understanding of what it meant to be evangelical It also shows these developments to be part of a larger schema through which Nonconformity assumed a more prominent place in the English culture of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Religion Authority in an Age of Doubt Rupert Eric Davies, 1968 Secularisms in a Postsecular Age? José Mapril, Ruy

Blanes,Emerson Giumbelli,Erin K. Wilson,2017-02-24 This volume ethnographically explores the relation between secularities and religious subjectivities As a consequence of the demise of secularization theory we live in an interesting intellectual moment where the so called post secular coexists with the secular which in turn has become pluralized and historicized This cohabitation of the secular and post secular is revealed mainly through political dialectical processes that overshadow the subjective and inter subjective dimensions of secularity making it difficult to pinpoint concrete sites agents and objects of expression Drawing on cases from South America Africa and Europe contributors apply key insights from religious studies debates on the genealogies and formations of both religion and secularism They explore the spaces persons and places in which these categories emerge and mutually constitute one another Children in Colonial America James Alan Marten,2007 Examining the aspects of childhood in the American colonies between the late 16th and late 18th centuries this text contains essays and documents that shed light on the ways in which the process of colonisation shaped childhood and in turn how the experience of children affected life in colonial America Tradition and Modernity David Marshall,2013-05-20 Tradition and Modernity focuses on how Christians and Muslims connect their traditions to modernity looking especially at understandings of history changing patterns of authority and approaches to freedom The volume includes a selection of relevant texts from 19th and 20th century thinkers from John Henry Newman to Tariq Ramadan accompanied by illuminating commentaries Berkeley Journal of Religion and Theology, Vol.2, No. 2 BJRT GTU,2016-06-18 Volume 2 Issue 2 of the Berkeley Journal of Religion and Theology is a special issue honoring the work of Judith Berling and Arthur Holder Judith Berling the 4th academic dean of the Graduate Theological Union is retiring from the faculty and Arthur Holder the 6th academic dean is stepping down from the deanship of the GTU This issue brings students and colleagues of both Drs Berling and Holder to celebrate their achievements and honor their service to the GTU by engaging their work Featuring contributions by Margaret Miles Henry Kuo Lisa Dahill Ken Butigan Sandra Schneiders William Short Mary Mee Yin Yuen Jennifer Howe Peace and Riess Potterveld Messianic Zionism in the Digital Age Rachel Z. Feldman,2024-03-15 Judaism in the twenty first century has seen the rise of the messianic Third Temple movement as religious activists based in Israel have worked to realize biblical prophecies including the restoration of a Jewish theocracy and the construction of the third and final Temple on Jerusalem s Temple Mount Through groundbreaking ethnographic research Messianic Zionism in the Digital Age details how Third Temple visions have gained considerable momentum and political support in Israel and abroad The role of technology in this movement s globalization has been critical Feldman skillfully highlights the ways in which the internet and social media have contributed to the movement s growth beyond the streets of Jerusalem into communities of former Christians around the world who now identify as the Children of Noah Bnei Noah She charts a path for future research while documenting the intimate effects of political theologies in motion and the birth of a new transnational Judaic faith Politics of Religious Freedom Winnifred Fallers,Elizabeth Shakman Hurd,Saba Mahmood,Peter G.

Danchin,2015-07-22 In a remarkably short period of time the realization of religious freedom has achieved broad consensus as an indispensable condition for peace Faced with widespread reports of religious persecution public and private actors around the world have responded with laws and policies designed to promote freedom of religion But what precisely is being promoted What are the cultural and epistemological assumptions underlying this response and what forms of politics are enabled in the process The fruits of the three year Politics of Religious Freedom research project the contributions to this volume unsettle the assumption ubiquitous in policy circles that religious freedom is a singular achievement an easily understood state of affairs and that the problem lies in its incomplete accomplishment Taking a global perspective the more than two dozen contributors delineate the different conceptions of religious freedom predominant in the world today as well as their histories and social and political contexts Together the contributions make clear that the reasons for persecution are more varied and complex than is widely acknowledged and that the indiscriminate promotion of a single legal and cultural tool meant to address conflict across a wide variety of cultures can have the perverse effect of exacerbating the problems that plague the communities cited as falling short

Law and Faith in a Sceptical Age Anthony Bradney,2009-10-16 Law and Faith in a Sceptical Age is an analysis of the legal position of religious believers in a dominantly secular society Great Britain is a society based upon broadly liberal principles It claims to recognise the needs of religious believers and to protect them from discrimination But whilst its secular ideology pervades public discourse the vestigial remains of a Christian Protestant past are seen in things as varied as the structure of public holidays and the continued existence of established churches in both England and Scotland Religious Christian values also form the starting point for legal rules relating to matters such as marriage Active religious communities constitute a very small minority of the population however those who belong to them often see their religion as being the most important element of their identity Yet the world view of these communities is frequently at odds with both the prevailing liberal secular climate of Great Britain and its Christian Anglican past This necessarily entails a clash of ideologies that puts in question the secular majority's claim to want to protect religious minorities the possibility of it being able to sufficiently understand the needs of those minorities and the desirability or practicality of any accommodation between the needs of the various religious communities and the secular mainstream of society Law and Faith in a Sceptical Age addresses these issues by raising the question of whether a liberal secular state can protect religion Accommodation to different religious traditions forms part of the history of the legal systems of Britain This book asks whether further accommodation can and should be made

Practical Spiritualities in a Media Age Curtis Coats,Monica M. Emerich,2015-11-19 We live in a media age where technologies become the sites and sources of our practices and beliefs including those deeper values that guide decisions about how we should live Practical Spiritualities in a Media Age explores how and why media become the site and source of spiritual expressions that address the mundane or everydayness of our lives Including international case studies and essays from leading scholars such as Stewart Hoover and

Graham Harvey the book examines the ways and the places in which people have employed media and information technologies to weave spiritual meaning throughout the demands and pastimes of their lives Topics range from food and sex to spiritual tourism In doing so the volume takes up a call from Paul Heelas seminal work Spiritualities of Life to provide more examples more richness and more depth to the variety of spiritual practices that exist in late modernity Providing critical scholarly explorations of the complexities and contradictions of late modern spiritual practices Practical Spiritualities in a Media Age is a must read for anyone working in the intersection of media religion or spirituality and culture Sufism in an Age of Transition Erik Ohlander,2008-02-28 Although the early thirteenth century was a critical period in the development of Sufism it has received little scholarly attention Based on heretofore unexplored sources this book examines a pivotal figure from this period the scholar mystic statesman and eponym of one of the earliest ar qa lineages Umar al Suhraward In situating Suhraward s life work in its social political and religious contexts this book suggests that his universalizing Sufi system was not only enmeshed within a broader economy of Muslim religious learning but also furnished social spaces which allowed for novel modes of participation in Sufi religiosity In doing so this book provides a framework for understanding the increasingly ubiquitous presence of intentional Sufi communities and institutions throughout the late medieval Islamic world Discipleship in a Post-Christian Age Thiago Silva,2025-05-20 This is an age where Christianity is no longer the assumed foundation of culture Instead secularism relativism and individualism shape how people think live and even approach faith Many within the church have unknowingly embraced a shallow self focused spirituality that offers comfort without transformation How can the church recover a robust life giving vision of discipleship in such a world With a little help from C S Lewis this book offers a way forward Lewis s insights rooted in reason imagination and community speak powerfully to this modern crisis equipping believers to engage both mind and heart Through cultural analysis and biblical wisdom this book calls the church to rediscover discipleship as an intellectual imaginative and relational pursuit one that forms resilient thoughtful and deeply rooted followers of Christ Whether picked up by a pastor church leader or everyday disciple longing for deeper faith this book will challenge and inspire readers to cultivate a Christianity that is not only true but beautiful and compelling in an increasingly post Christian world Attacks on Christendom in a World Come of Age Matthew D. Kirkpatrick,2011-08-19 Though Soren Kierkegaard and Dietrich Bonhoeffer both made considerable contributions to twentieth century thought they are rarely considered together Against Kierkegaard s melancholic individual Bonhoeffer stands as the champion of the church and community In Attacks on Christendom Matthew D Kirkpatrick challenges these stereotypical readings of these two vital thinkers Through an analysis of such concepts as epistemology ethics Christology and ecclesiology Kirkpatrick reveals Kierkegaard s significant influence on Bonhoeffer throughout his work Kirkpatrick shows that Kierkegaard underlies not only Bonhoeffer s spirituality but also his concepts of knowledge being and community So important is this relationship that it was through Kierkegaard s powerful representation of Abraham and Isaac that Bonhoeffer came to adhere to an ethic that led to his involvement in the assassination attempts against Hitler. However, this relationship is by no means one-sided. Attacks on Christendom argues for the importance of Bonhoeffer as an interpreter of Kierkegaard, drawing Kierkegaard's thought into his own unique context, forcing Kierkegaard to answer very different questions. Bonhoeffer helps in converting the obscure, obdurate Dane into a thinker for his own unique age. Both Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer have been criticized and misunderstood for their final works that lay bare the religious climates of their nations. In the final analysis, Attacks on Christendom argues that these works are not unfortunate endings to their careers but rather their fulfilment, drawing together the themes that had been brewing throughout their work.

A Secular Age beyond the West Mirjam Künkler, John Madeley, Shylashri Shankar, 2018-07-05. This book traces religion and secularity in eleven countries not shaped by Western Christianity: Japan, China, Indonesia, India, Pakistan, Iran, Russia, Turkey, Israel, Egypt, and Morocco, and how they parallel or diverge from Charles Taylor's grand narrative of the North Atlantic world. A Secular Age (2007) in all eleven cases, the state, enhanced by post-colonial and post-imperial legacies, highly determines religious experience by variably regulating religious belief, practice, property, education, and/or law. Taylor's core condition of secularity, namely, legal permissibility and social acceptance of open religious unbelief, Secularity III, is largely absent in these societies. The areas affected by state regulation, however, differ greatly. In India, Israel, and most Muslim countries, questions of religious law are central to state regulation. But it is religious education and organization in China, and church property and public practice in Russia, that bear the brunt. This book explains these differences using the concept of differential burdening.

By what Authority? Robert L. Millet, 2010. After the apostles Peter and John had healed the lame man at the Gate Beautiful, the two disciples were arrested and later brought before the Sanhedrin to account for their deed, one that continued to stir the already anxious leaders of the Jews. And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, "By what power or by what name have ye done this?" (Acts 4:7). Indeed, what was the source of their miracle? And by what power or authority did they perform it? Those queries ring through the centuries because people in our day still pose the questions. Most Christians want to be a part of a denomination or organization that is true, faithful to what existed in the first century, authorized and therefore approved of by God. They want to know, in other words, that God is governing among his people, that he is empowering the body of Christ of which they are a part. The essays in this book address the central issue of such authority in the Christian life.

Social Conflict in the Age of Justinian Peter N. Bell, 2013-04-04. Social Conflict in the Age of Justinian explores a range of often violent conflicts across the whole empire during AD 527-565. These conflicts were reflected at the ideological level and led to intense persecution of intellectuals and Pagans as an ever more robust Christian ideological hegemony was established.
