Religious Leaders And Faith Based Politics:

Religious Leaders and Faith-based Politics Jo Renee Formicola, Hubert Morken, 2001 Religious Leaders and Faith Based Politics Ten Profiles offers a powerful and timely analysis of the dynamic relationship between religious leaders of all faiths and political activism in the United States By examining the lives and works of such prominent leaders as Reverend Floyd Flake Bishop T D Jakes Reverend Al Sharpton Elder Dallin H Oakes Rabbi Daniel Lapin Reverend Benjamin Chavis Muhammed and Sister Maureen Fiedler this volume reveals an American tradition of religious influence on public policy that continues to be an important hallmark of our democracy From the colonial era to the present religious leaders have raised Americans' moral and political awareness of countless issues including revolution slavery temperance civil rights and most recently the culture wars This book is the first to explore the renewed and intense commitment of evangelicals Catholics Muslims and Jews to preach teach and participate in politics today Among the questions answered in this book are religious leaders today as active and vocal as the radicals of the turbulent 1960s Are these activists still involved in civil rights or have other contentious topics such as abortion and traditional family values preempted such issues In the wake of the 2000 election and at the start of a new administration committed to elevating the role of religion in politics Jo Renee Formicola Hubert Morken and this prominent collection of contributors ask might we expect greater American religious involvement in the years ahead This is essential reading for anyone interested in religious and political activism or the evolving relationship between church and state in America

Faith and the Presidency From George Washington to George W. Bush Gary Scott Smith, 2006-10-12 Publisher description Peace, Politics, and Religion Jeffrey Haynes, 2020-12-14 Relationships between peace politics and religion are often controversial and sometimes problematic Religion is a core source of identity for billions of people around the world and it is hardly surprising that sometimes it becomes involved in conflicts At the same time we can see religion involved not only in conflict It is also central to conflict resolution peace making and peacebuilding Religious involvement is often necessary to try to end hatred and differences frequently central to political conflicts especially but not only in the Global South Evidence shows that religious leaders and faith based organisations can play constructive roles in helping to end violence and in some cases build peace via early warnings of conflict good offices once conflict has erupted as well as advocacy mediation and reconciliation The chapters of this book highlight that religion can encourage both conflict and peace through the activities of people individually and collectively imbued with religious ideas and ideals

When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G. Maness, 2023-05-22 When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ's executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400 000 000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100 000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of the dollars

The Politics of Latino Faith Catherine E. Wilson, 2008-06-01 Pundits and commentators are constantly striving to understand the political behavior of Latinos the largest minority in the United States and a key voting block As Catherine E Wilson makes clear in The Politics of Latino Faith not only are Latinos a religious community but their religious institutions in particular faith based organizations inform daily life and politics in Latino communities to a considerable degree Timely and discerning The Politics of Latino Faith is a unique scholarly work that addresses this increasingly powerful political force As Wilson shows Latino religious institutions whether congregations or faith based organizations have long played a significant role in the often poor and urban communities where Latinos live Concentrating on urban areas in the South Bronx Philadelphia and Chicago she provides a systematic look at the spiritual social and cultural influence Latino faith based organizations have provided in American life Wilson offers keen insight into how pivotal religious identity is in understanding Latino social and political involvement in the United States She also shows the importance of understanding the theological underpinnings at work in these organizations in order to predict their political influences Faith-Based Organizations in Transnational Peacebuilding Tanya B. Schwarz, 2018-03-23 How do faith based organizations influence the work of transnational peacebuilding development and human rights advocacy How is the political role of such organizations informed by their religious ideas and practices This book investigates this set of questions by examining how three transnational faith based organizations Religions for Peace the Taiz Community and International Justice Mission conceptualize their own religious practices values and identities and how those acts and ideas inform their political goals and strategies The book demonstrates the political importance of prayer in the work of transnational faith based organizations specifically in areas of conflict resolution post conflict integration agenda setting and in constituting narratives about justice and reconciliation It also evaluates the distinctive strategies that faith based organizations employ to navigate religious difference A central goal of the book is to propose a new way to study religion in international politics by actively questioning and reflecting on what it means for an act idea or community to be religious Proselytization Revisited Rosalind I. J. Hackett, 2014-12-05 The act of converting people to certain beliefs or values is highly controversial in today's postcolonial multicultural world

Proselytization has been viewed by some as an aggressive act of political domination Proselytization Revisited offers a comprehensive overview of the many arguments for and against proselytization in different regions and contexts Proselytization is examined in the context of rights talk globalisation and culture wars The volume brings together essays demonstrating the global significance of proselytization ranging from Christians in India to Turkish Islamic Movements and the Wiccan use of modern media technologies The cross cultural and multidisciplinary nature of this collection of essays provides a fresh perspective and the book will be of value to readers interested in the dynamic interaction of beliefs ideas and cultures The Role of Religion and Ethnicity in Contemporary Conflict Basil Ugorji, René Lemarchand,

Welcome to the first edition of the International Center for Ethno Religious Mediation's Journal of Living Together We were surprised and delighted to receive so many outstanding submissions and see the resounding response to our very first call for papers as an appreciable indication of the connection people feel to our mission and our community Through this journal it is our intention to inform inspire reveal and explore the intricate and complex nature of human interaction in the context of ethno religious identity and the roles it plays in war and peace By sharing theories observations and valuable experiences we mean to open a broader more inclusive dialogue between policymakers academics researchers religious leaders representatives of ethnic groups and indigenous peoples and field practitioners around the world Lasting peace stems from changes in thinking about what it is to be a part of the human family who we are to one another and what mutual obligations and responsibilities exist between us It requires us to accept that we are each a resource an advantage an asset to the whole It hinges on our ultimate acceptance of cultural identity history faith and tradition as simply vivid aspects of our overarching human kinship The belief based perspectives that influence these patterns of being however are among the most deeply ingrained of all individual and social mechanisms Any efforts to reshape them are highly ambitious and fraught with seemingly insurmountable obstacles Yet cultures and their societies are not static and their adaptive nature requires that even within the most intractable of conflicts there will be change how they change will depend upon shifts in the environment changes in human experience and the availability of new information with which to make different choices The theme of this issue The Role of Religion and Ethnicity in Contemporary Conflict Related Emerging Tactics Strategies and Methodologies of Mediation and Resolution looks at ways to influence these changes improve interethnic and interfaith experiences and offers information which can enlighten social discourse and reveal the possibility of previously unforeseen choices We begin with Words from the Board where Dr David Silvera explains that mediation is at the very heart of democratic thought lays out the value of mediation as a vital aspect of adult education in his commentary Education for Democratic Citizenship and Intercultural Conflicts by Mediation Dr Ren Lemarchand's cautionary discussion regarding the risks involved in mankind's willingness and even propensity to ignore some of history's worst atrocities follows in his article Remembering Forgotten Genocides Jamie L Hurst's paper Holy Conflict the Intersection of Religion and Mediation explores the junction where religion and mediation meet focusing on the unique challenges and opportunities this crossroads brings to bear In her piece Identity Reconsidered Zarr n Caldwell describes the cost of narrowly construed identity formations and puts forward the idea that the teachings of the Bah Faith on nested identities might offer some new ways of approaching peacebuilding Similarly in their work Storytelling as a Means for Peace Education Intercultural Dialogue in Southern Thailand Erna Anjarwati Allison Trimble describe their research conducting peace storytelling as a means to encourage social reconciliation between Thai Buddhists and Malay Muslims youth And finally Lanhe S Shan presents an in depth assessment of the long term outcomes following the implementation of unfortunate conflict mitigation strategies and offers suggestions for improved results in Analysis of Tito's Policies on Ethnic Conflict the Case of Kosovo This journal is not meant to be a bastion of declarative wisdom rather it is intended to be a conduit a medium for vibrant exchange and discussion of its contents is vital to its purpose We want your input your ideas your thoughts and your insights You will find plenty to discuss every quarter in the articles book reviews Living Together Movement updates social media buzz and Photos from the Field here and in the issues ahead

Encyclopedia of American Religion and Politics Paul A. Djupe, Laura R. Olson, 2014-07 Presents an encyclopedia of religion and politics in America including short biographies of important political and religious figures like Ralph Abernathy civil rights leader and Ralph Waldo Emerson writer and synopses of religious entities like the Branch Davidians and the Episcopal church as well as important court cases of relevancy like Epperson et al v Arkansas having to do with evolution

Social Justice Goes To Church: The New Left in Modern American Evangelicalism Jon Harris, 2020-10-06 The infusion of social justice into the gospel may well be the most dangerous problem facing the church today Yet it is going unnoticed in far too many circles Social Justice Goes to Church can serve as a wake up call Samuel C Smith Ph D Chair and Graduate Program Director Department of History Liberty University In order to understand why so many evangelicals recently support left leaning political causes it is important to know a little history In the 1970s many campus radicals raised in Christian homes brought neo Marxist ideas from college back to church with them At first figures like Jim Wallis Ron Sider and Richard Mouw made great gains for their progressive evangelical cause But after the defeat of Jimmy Carter the religious right stole the headlines Today a new crop of mainstream evangelicals has taken up the cause of the New Left whether they know it or not As pro life evangelicals rush to support movements like BlackLivesMatter and MeToo it is important to realize they are walking in footprints already laid down Their mission may be more successful but it is not new To understand where the evangelical social justice movement is heading it is vital to understand the origins of the movement

Social Justice Goes to Church The New Left in Modern American Evangelicalism answers from a historical perspective the vital question Why are American evangelicals moving Left The great injunction to the Church was to preach the Gospel to the world while not being of the world Social justice neatly reverses this trend preaching the ways of the world into the church That is not its only critical reversal The Gospel is about freedom from guilt and sin and bondage Social justice seeks above all to apportion guilt and sin and bondage enslaving entire demographics and requiring that they kneel before man in attrition How important that a book of this nature should enter the fray right now I applaud Mr Harris for his excellent work in providing the practical means of identifying and repelling this fraudulent force this ideological interloper this dangerous false teaching Douglas Kruger Author of Political Correctness Does More Harm Than Good How to Identify Debunk and Dismantle Dangerous Ideas

War on Sacred Grounds Ron E. Hassner, 2025-05-15 In War on Sacred Grounds Ron E Hassner investigates the causes and properties of struggles over sites that are both venerated and contested and proposes ways for managing these disputes Holy places can create the potential for clashes not only between competing religious groups but also between religious groups and secular actors Hassner illustrates this complex violent dynamic through a series of case studies including the conflict over Jerusalem and competing Hindu and Muslim claims over Ayodhya He also analyses successful compromises that reduced conflict in Jerusalem in 1967 and in Mecca in 1979 In this updated edition of War on Sacred Grounds Hassner reevaluates his findings and conclusions and surveys ongoing conflicts over holy sites Religious Leaders and Conflict Transformation Nukhet A. Sandal, 2017-02-16 The book introduces a theoretical framework to understand the role of religious leaders in conflict transformation and peacebuilding Muslim Faith-Based Organizations and Social Welfare in Africa Holger Weiss, 2020-08-11 This book addresses the discourses agendas and actions of Muslim faith based organizations and activists to empower Muslim communities in contemporary sub Saharan Africa The individual chapters discuss how traditional Muslim welfare and charity institutions zakat obligatory or mandatory almsgiving sadaqa voluntary almsgiving and donations and waqf pious endowments are used to improve social welfare focusing on instrumentalization and institutionalization in the collection and distribution of zakat The book includes case studies from West Africa Ghana Burkina Faso Cote d Ivoire Ghana and Senegal the Horn of Africa Somalia and East Africa Kenya and Tanzania highlighting the role and interplay of local national and international Sunni Shia and Ahmadiyya Muslim faith based organizations and NGOs Chapters Muslim NGOs Zakat and the Provision of Social Welfare in Sub Saharan Africa An Introduction and Discourses on Zakat and Its Implementation in Contemporary Ghana are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com Faith- Based Diplomacy Trumping Realpolitik Douglas Johnston, 2008-06-02 For most of the twentieth century the most critical concerns of national security have been balance of power politics and the global arms race The religious conflicts of this era and the motives behind them however demand a radical break with this tradition If the United States is to prevail in its long term contest with extremist Islam it will need to re examine old assumptions expand the scope of its thinking to include religion and other irrational factors and be willing to depart from past practice A purely military response in reaction to such attacks will simply not suffice What will be required is a long term strategy of cultural engagement backed by a deeper understanding of how others view the world and what is important to them In non Western cultures religion is a primary motivation for political actions Historically dismissed by Western policymakers as a divisive influence religion in fact has significant potential for overcoming the obstacles that lead to paralysis and stalemate The Incorporation of religion as part of the solution to such problems is as simple as it is profound It is long overdue This book looks at five intractable conflicts and explores the possibility of drawing on religion as a force for peace It builds upon the insights of Religion the Missing Dimension of Statecraft OUP 1994 which examined the role that religious or spiritual factors can play in preventing or resolving conflict while achieving social change based on justice and reconciliation The world class authors writing in this volume suggest how the peacemaking tenets of five major world religions can be strategically applied in ongoing conflicts in which those religions are involved Finally the commonalities and differences between these religions are examined with an eye toward further applications in peacemaking and conflict resolution Agree to Differ UNESCO,Tudor Rose,2015-05-11 The International Decade for the Rapprochement of Cultures IDRC builds on the strong momentum created by and the achievements of both the International Decade for a Culture of Peace and Non Violence for the Children of the World 2001 2010 and the International Year for the Rapprochement of Cultures 2010 It is to be understood as a commitment for addressing the urgent need to take into account and clearly demonstrate new articulations between cultural diversity and universal values The rapprochement of cultures implies that international security and social inclusion cannot be attained sustainably without a commitment to such principles as compassion conviviality hospitality solidarity and brotherhood which are the corner stones of human coexistence inherent in all faiths and secular ideologies The current surge of flaring conflicts acts of violence and intolerance demands urgent actions Peoples and nations have to join forces for the development of a universal global consciousness free from racial ethnic and social prejudices The United Nations have proclaimed the period 2013 2022 as International Decade for the Rapprochement of Cultures to address these global challenges with UNESCO as the lead agency for the United Nations system Report of the WHO and Religions for Peace global conference World Health Organization,2023-04-20
