Reluctant Regulators Barry G. Cole, Mal Oettinger, 1978 The Television Code Deborah L. Jaramillo, 2018-09-26 The broadcasting industry's trade association the National Association of Broadcasters NAB sought to sanitize television content via its self-regulatory document the Television Code The Code covered everything from the stories images and sounds of TV programs no profanity illicit sex and drinking negative portrayals of family life and law enforcement officials or irreverence for God and religion to the allowable number of commercial minutes per hour of programming It mandated that broadcasters make time for religious programming and discouraged them from charging for it And it called for tasteful and accurate coverage of news public events and controversial issues Using archival documents from the Federal Communications Commission NBC the NAB and a television reformer Senator William Benton this book explores the run up to the adoption of the 1952 Television Code from the perspectives of the government TV viewers local broadcasters national networks and the industry's trade association Deborah L Jaramillo analyzes the competing motives and agendas of each of these groups as she builds a convincing case that the NAB actually developed the Television Code to protect commercial television from reformers who wanted more educational programming as well as from advocates of subscription television an alternative distribution model to the commercial system By agreeing to self-censor content that viewers local stations and politicians found objectionable Jaramillo concludes the NAB helped to ensure that commercial broadcast television would remain the dominant model for decades to come

Security Companies (PMSCs) and the Quest for Accountability George Andreopoulos, John Kleinig, 2019-03-18 Private Military and Security Companies PMSCs have constituted a perennial feature of the security landscape Yet it is their involvement in and conduct during the ongoing wars in Iraq and Afghanistan that have transformed the outsourcing of security services into such a pressing public policy and world order issue The PMSCs ubiquitous presence in armed conflict situations as well as in post conflict reconstruction their diverse list of clients governments in the developed and developing world non state armed groups intergovernmental and non governmental organizations and international corporations and in the context of armed conflict situations involvement in instances of gross misconduct have raised serious accountability issues The prominence of PMSCs in conflict zones has generated critical questions concerning the very concept of security and the role of private force a rethinking of essential governmental functions a rearticulation of the distinction between public private and global local in the context of the creation of new forms of security governance and a consideration of the relevance as well as limitations of existing regulatory frameworks that include domestic and international law in particular international human rights law and international humanitarian law This book critically examines the growing role of PMSCs in conflict and post conflict situations as part of a broader trend towards the outsourcing of security functions Particular emphasis is placed on key moral legal and political considerations involved in the privatization of such functions on the impact of outsourcing on security governance and on the main challenges confronting efforts to hold PMSCs accountable through a combination of formal and informal domestic as well as international regulatory mechanisms and processes It will be of interest to scholars policymakers practitioners and advocates for a more transparent and humane security order This book was published as a special issue of Criminal Justice Ethics

Seeds of Change John Atlas, 2010-06-28 There is more value on a single page of Seeds of Change than in a year s worth of Rush Limbaugh screeds combined with a lifetime of Sarah Palin sneers at community organizers Todd Gitlin Seeds of Change goes beyond the headlines of the last Presidential campaign to describe what really happened in ACORN s massive voter registration drives why it triggered an unrelenting attack by Fox News and the Republican Party and how it confronted its internal divisions and scandals Based on Atlas s own eyewitness original reporting as the only journalist to have access to ACORN s staff and board meetings this book documents the critical transition from founder Wade Rathke a white New Orleans radical to Bertha Lewis a Brooklyn African American activist The story begins in the 1970s when a small group of young men and women led by a charismatic college dropout began a quest to help the powerless help themselves In a tale full of unusual characters and dramatic conflicts the book follows the ups and downs of ACORN s organizers and members as they confront big corporations and unresponsive government officials in Albuquerque Brooklyn Chicago Detroit Little Rock New Orleans Philadelphia and the Twin Cities The author follows the course of local and national campaigns to organize unions fight the subprime mortgage crisis promote living wages for working people struggle for affordable housing and against gentrification and help Hurricane Katrina s survivors return to New Orleans The book dispels the conservative myth that we can only help the poor through private soup kitchens and charity and the liberal myth that the solution rests simply with more government services Seeds of Change not only provides a gripping look at ACORN's four decades of effective organizing but also offers a hopeful analysis of the potential for a revival of real American democracy An offering of The Progressive Book Club Save the Bees! Lisa Jean Moore, Mary Kosut, 2014-09-01 Grappling with the strange phenomenon of colony collapse disorder the baffling disappearance of all bees from a hive that is often blamed for the honeybee's increasingly endangered status New York City's hobbyist beekeeping communities have gone green Lisa Jean Moore and Mary Kosut introduce beekeepers of all stripes the careful cultivators of scientific beekeeping groups the passionately political radical backwards beekeepers who hope to return the species to its most natural state and DIY influenced hipster beekeepers who share a holistic approach to lowering their environmental impact Though their approaches may differ these beekeepers agree on one thing to save the bee is to save our planet Routledge Revivals: Radio Broadcasting from 1920 to 1990 (1991) Diane Foxhill Carothers, 2016-11-10 First published in 1991 this book presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of radio broadcasting Its eleven chapter categories cover almost the entire range of radio broadcasting with the exception of radio engineering due to its technical complexity although some of the historical volumes do encompass aspects thus providing background material Entries are primarily restricted to published books although a number of trade journals and periodicals are also included Each entry includes full bibliographic information including the ISBN or ISSN where available and an annotation written by the author with the original text in hand The Age of Deleveraging A. Gary Shilling, 2010-10-12 Top economist Gary Shilling shows you how to prosper in the slow growing and deflationary times that lie ahead While many investors fear a rapid rise in inflation author Gary Shilling an award winning economic forecaster argues that the global economy is going through a long period of de leveraging and weak growth which makes deflation far more likely and a far greater threat to investors than inflation Shilling explains in clear language and compelling logic why the world economy will struggle for several more years and what investors can do to protect and grow their wealth in the difficult times ahead The investment strategies that worked for last 25 years will not work in the next 10 years Shilling advises readers to avoid broad exposure to stocks real estate and commodities and to focus on high quality bonds high dividend stocks and consumer staple and food stocks Written by one of today's best forecasters of economic trends twice voted by Institutional Investor as Wall Street's top economist Clearly explains what to invest in what to avoid and how to cope with a deflationary slow growth economy Demonstrates how Shilling has been consistently right about major economic trends since he began forecasting in the early 1980s Filled with in depth insights and practical advice this timely guide lays out a convincing case for why investors need to be prepared for a long period of weak growth and deflation not inflation and what you can do to prosper in the difficult times ahead A First-Class Catastrophe Diana B. Henriques, 2017-09-19 The definitive history of the 1987

market crash known as Black Monday by the New York Times bestselling author of The Wizard of Lies Compelling Burton Malkiel The Wall Street Journal On October 19 1987 the Dow fell 22.6 percent almost twice as bad as the worst day of 1929 and equal to a one day loss of nearly 10 000 points today Black Monday was more than seven years in the making and threatened nearly every US financial institution Drawing on superlative archival research and dozens of original interviews Diana B Henriques weaves a tale of missed opportunities market delusions and destructive actions that stretched from the silver crisis of 1980 to turf battles in Washington a poisonous rivalry between the New York Stock Exchange and the Chicago Mercantile Exchange and the almost fatal success of two California professors whose idea for reducing market risk spun terribly out of control As the story hurtles forward the players struggle to forestall a looming market meltdown and unexpected heroes step in to avert total disaster For decades investors regulators and bankers have failed to heed the lessons of 1987 even as the same patterns have resurfaced most spectacularly in the financial crisis of 2008 A First Class Catastrophe offers a new way of looking not only at the past but at our financial future A valuable and unfailingly interesting account of a crucial two decade period in Wall Street history A highly intelligent and perceptive analysis The New York Times Book Review A first class cautionary tale that should be on every financial regulator's and policy maker's desk and many an investor too The Washington Post A fast paced thriller the book is much more than financial history It is a tale of unheeded warnings and misguided confidence that is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand how the fault lines in our modern markets came to be Bethany McLean New York Times bestselling coauthor of The Smartest Guys in the Room

Creating Sustainable Communities Rik Scarce, 2015-02-23 Explores efforts aimed at creating sustainable communities throughout the Hudson River region From Mount Marcy to Manhattan and beyond the Hudson River region has become an incubator for rich and varied experiments in sustainable living In this fascinating book Rik Scarce showcases some of these efforts by telling the stories of dynamic individuals and organizations that are remaking the region's landscape through ecosystem stewardship nurturing agricultural practices and urban renewal for the twenty first century along with those promoting creative land use planning richly functioning communities and green businesses Together their achievements point to the potential for other areas of the country to forge sustainable futures and also remind us of the sobering realities and daunting challenges that await us as we attempt to remake our relationships with the planet and with each other Powerful massively inspiring stories from one of the loveliest spots on the planet this is the new Hudson River School and we all should be taking notes Bill McKibben author of Deep Economy The Wealth of Communities and The Durable Future Unlike the bulk of environmental writing from the post World War II era dominated as it is by dystopian works and pessimistic predictions this book offers hope We meet good people doing good things and doing them effectively as models for others to imitate Mark Hamilton Lytle author of The Gentle Subversive Rachel Carson Silent Spring and the Rise of the Environmental Movement Re-Inventing Labour Law Enforcement Louise Munkholm, 2020-04-30 This monograph investigates current issues in labour law enforcement from a socio legal perspective It analyses how local Italian enforcement actors promote the protection of workers in Prato a city that in recent decades has seen a significant influx of Chinese migrants who run small workshops as part of the local clothing industry Many of the Chinese firms in Prato fail to live up to core labour standards such as maximum working hours health and safety at work and payment of social security contributions The book analyses the strategies and practices employed by three local enforcement actors labour inspectors labour unionists and a new type of labour law consultant in their efforts to assist Chinese firms in improving their level of labour law compliance Combining documentary interview and observational data the book applies theories of legal culture and legal development to address the interaction between law and society It focuses on the operational aspects of law by asking three interrelated research questions How do local enforcement actors promote the protection of workers in Chinese firms in Prato Which tools are employed and which rationalities drive the initiatives The book thereby sheds light upon processes of legal cultural adaptation informing ongoing international and national debates about what can actually be done to combat contemporary gaps in the protection of workers
