Reluctant Memory:

Reluctant Memory Dorothy L. Gray, 1977-09 Politics of Memory Ana Lucia Araujo, 2013-05-07 The public memory of slavery and the Atlantic slave trade which some years ago could be observed especially in North America has slowly emerged into a transnational phenomenon now encompassing Europe Africa and Latin America and even Asia allowing the populations of African descent organized groups governments non governmental organizations and societies in these different regions to individually and collectively update and reconstruct the slave past This edited volume examines the recent transnational emergence of the public memory of slavery shedding light on the work of memory produced by groups of individuals who are descendants of slaves The chapters in this book explore how the memory of the enslaved and slavers is shaped and displayed in the public space not only in the former slave societies but also in the regions that provided captives to the former American colonies and European metropolises Through the analysis of exhibitions museums monuments accounts and public performances the volume makes sense of the political stakes involved in the phenomenon of memorialization of slavery and the slave trade in the public sphere Mapping Generations of Traumatic Memory in American Narratives Dana Mihăilescu, Roxana Oltean, Mihaela Precup, 2014-06-12 This volume collects work by several European North American and Australian academics who are interested in examining the performance and transmission of post traumatic memory in the contemporary United States The contributors depart from the interpretation of trauma as a unique exceptional event that shatters all systems of representation as seen in the writing of early trauma theorists like Cathy Caruth Shoshana Felman and Dominick LaCapra Rather the chapters in this collection are in conversation with more recent readings of trauma such as Michael Rothberg's multidirectional memory 2009 the role of mediation and remediation in the dynamics of cultural memory Astrid Erll 2012 Aleida Assman 2011 and Stef Craps focus on postcolonial witnessing and its cross cultural dimension 2013 The corpus of post traumatic narratives under discussion includes fiction diaries memoirs films visual narratives and oral testimonies A complicated dialogue between various and sometimes conflicting narratives is thus generated and examined along four main lines in this volume trauma in the context of multidirectional memory the representation of trauma in autobiographical texts the dynamic of public forms of national commemoration and the problematic instantiation of 9 11 as a traumatic landmark The Palgrave Handbook of Literary Memory Studies Lucy Bond, Susannah Radstone, Jessica Rapson, 2025-05-23 This handbook offers a comprehensive overview of the connections between memory and literature Organized into six interrelated sections the book explores both the value of approaches and concepts from literary studies for memory scholarship and the plurality of ways in which literature can advance theories of memory Chapters cover reading and writing memory and literature remediations and intersections local and global cultures postcolonial and decolonial approaches environmental and more than human memory and literature and law and justice It offers an indispensable resource for students and scholars of both literary and memory studies Forbidden Memories

THE DAILY MAIL STRIKING THE SUNDAY TIMES RADICAL TATLER Described by The Telegraph as Edward's truth Once a King is the never before seen and unfiltered story of King Edward VIII the original royal renegade who abdicated his throne and left the royal family to pursue his own destiny Fifteen years after having abdicated the throne to marry the woman he loved Wallis Simpson King Edward VIII now the Duke of Windsor published his memoirs But whilst preparing the manuscript for his published and mostly ghostwritten book which unlike Prince Harry's autobiography Spare largely avoided controversy the Duke also produced a private manuscript for posterity This was written in his own words and with an uninhibited frankness Once a King The Lost Memoir of Edward VIII reproduces this uncrowned King's previously unseen writing including much that he could or would not write for publication in 1951 Jane Marguerite Tippet weaves together Edward's writing alongside newly uncovered interviews with the Duke and Duchess diary entries from ghostwriter Charles Murphy and other sources Together this forms an extraordinary new portrait of one of the most famous characters in modern royal history and his recollections and innermost feelings particularly around the abdication of 1936 Munsey's Magazine, 1915
