Remarkable Modernisms Contemporary American Authors On Modern Art:

Remarkable Modernisms Daniel Morris, 2009-06 For the authors discussed in Remarkable Modernisms poets John Yau Charles Simic and Mark Strand and novelists Ann Beattie and Joyce Carol Oates writing about modern art not only helps to illuminate the work of the artist but also serves as a stimulus to verbal self portraiture By revealing as much about their own lives and works as they do about the visual objects reviewed pieces for example by Jasper Johns Andy Warhol Joseph Cornell Alex Katz Edward Hopper and George Bellows the authors studied by Daniel Morris extend the scope of their analysis In all five cases writing about art becomes a critical inquiry into the nature of public acts of witnessing and private acts of seeing and not seeing While challenging older rigidly formalist approaches these authors also diverge from the strictly contextual approaches favored by many contemporary academic critics As poets and novelists they remain sensitive to the value of compositional techniques when they address a visual artifact and they reject the shibboleth of content versus formalist approaches to art They reveal that this dichotomy fails to account for the semantics of form the interwoven relationship between the how and the what of a work of art Indebted to visual art as a basis for their own compositional discoveries in words these authors writings on art have the effect of turning pictures into a language that extends our frame of reference beyond the flat surface of the picture plane to each author s version of contemporary society as social text Not Born

Digital Daniel Morris, 2018-01-25 Not Born Digital addresses from multiple perspectives ethical historical psychological conceptual aesthetic the vexing problems and sublime potential of disseminating lyrics the ancient form of transmission and preservation of the human voice in an environment in which e poetry and digitalized poetics pose a crisis understood as opportunity and threat to traditional page poetry The premise of Not Born Digital is that the innovative contemporary poets studied in this book engage obscure and discarded but nonetheless historically resonant materials to unsettle what Charles Bernstein a leading innovative contemporary U S poet and critic of official verse culture refers to as frame lock and tone jam While other scholars have begun to analyze poetry that appears in new media contexts Not Born Digital concerns the ambivalent ways page poets rather than electronica based poets have grappled with screen memory that is electronic and new media sources through the re purposing of found materials The Cambridge Companion to American Poetry and Politics since 1900

Modernism, Rubén Darío, and the Poetics of Despair Alberto Acereda, Rigoberto Guevara, 2004 Modernism Ruben Dar o and the Poetics of Despair presents a detailed study of a neglected facet of Ruben Dar o and in general of Hispanic Modernism metaphysical and existential dimensions as preludes to Modernity Alberto Acereda and J Rigoberto Guevara approach the life and death issues in Dar o works with special emphasis on his poetry The authors demonstrate how the Nicaraguan poet takes the first steps towards poetic modernity The tragic component of Dar o works are examined in the light of Nineteenth Century philosophy especially the work of Arthur Schopenhauer Various thematic proposals are also formulated for the study of the works of Ruben Dar o Mantis ,2004 Middlebrow Modernism Melinda J.

Cooper, 2022-10-01 Eleanor Dark 1901 85 is one of Australia s most innovative 20th century writers Her extensive oeuvre includes ten novels published from the early 1930s to the late 1950s and represents a significant engagement with global modernity from a unique position within settler culture Yet Dark s contribution to 20th century literature has been undervalued in the fields of both Australian literary studies and world literature Although two biographies have been written about her life there has been no book length critical study of her writing published since 1976 Middlebrow Modernism counters this neglect by providing the first full length critical survey of Eleanor Dark s writing to be published in over four decades Focusing on the fiction that Dark produced during the interwar years and reading this in the context of her larger body of work this book positions Dark s writing as important to the study of Australian literature and global modernism Melinda Cooper argues that Dark s fiction exhibits a distinctive aesthetic of middlebrow modernism which blends attributes of literary modernism with popular fiction It seeks to mediate and reconcile apparent binaries modernism and mass culture liberal humanism and experimental aesthetics settler society and international modernity The term middlebrow modernism also captures the way Dark negotiated cosmopolitan commitments with more place based attachments to nation and local community within the mid 20th century Middlebrow Modernism posits that Dark s fiction and the broader phenomenon of Australian modernism offer essential case studies for larger debates operating within global modernist and world literature studies providing perspectives these fields might otherwise miss

On the Edge of America Paul J. Karlstrom, 1996-01-01 The past quarter century has witnessed the emergence of a scholarly appreciation of American art in California Yet assessments of the early modern pre 1950 have been haphazard Now in one bold volume these scholars have remedied that deficiency Thanks to the rich essays of this wonderful book the art history of California and the nation is graced with further light Dr Kevin Starr State Librarian of California The authors of these essays illuminate a diverse and compelling history one in which what happened at the geographic edges sheds new light on the European points of origin A lively and valuable contribution not just to regional history but to the making and transmission of modernism Whitney Chadwick Professor of Art History San Francisco State University A welcome and overdue evaluation of the distinctive history of modernism in California these essays sensitively explore a cultural terrain at once familiar and strange surveying memorable achievements from painting to photography to architecture and film The authors provocatively suggest the centrality of edges wherever they are found to the national tale and demonstrate it through significant developments on our western margin A must for any serious student of American art and culture Charles C Eldredge The University of Kansas An engrossing examination of modernist practices in California before the Abstract Expressionists and beatniks came to town It includes art scenes peopled by Mexican muralists European artists in exile third generation Californians idealist photographers and immigrant artisans Wanda Corn Professor of Art History Stanford University These fascinating essays do much more than fill a major gap in our understanding of American regionalism Their scope is superb because of the inclusive range of their definition of art the varied ethnicities of the artists discussed and the distinctive impact of environment light and culture on California art A dazzling treasure as pleasing to the eye as it is to the mind Michael Kammen Professor of History Cornell University

Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth Iskin, 2016-12-08 Re envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies
