Contemporaries Maud Soethout, Sakip Sabanci Müzesi, Rijksmuseum, The Eye of the Connoisseur Anna Tummers, 2011 Attributing old master paintings is one of the most demanding tasks of the art historian The stakes can be high especially when the work in question might indeed be the hand of a great master The difference in price between an authentic work and one in the manner of a well known artist can add up to several million dollars In addition to the financial consequences a revised attribution can also have dramatic consequences for our understanding of art history In her fascinating account of connoisseurship in action Tummers highlights issues regarding the attribution of seventeenth century Dutch and Flemish art

Rembrandt and the Inspiration of India Stephanie Schrader, 2018-03-20 This sumptuously illustrated volume examines the impact of Indian art and culture on Rembrandt 1606-1669 in the late 1650s By pairing Rembrandt's twenty-two extant drawings of Shah Jahan Jahangir Dara Shikoh and other Mughal courtiers with Mughal paintings of similar compositions the book critiques the prevailing notion that Rembrandt brought life to the static Mughal art Written by scholars of both Dutch and Indian art the essays in this volume instead demonstrate how Rembrandt's contact with Mughal painting inspired him to draw in an entirely new refined style on Asian paper an approach that was shaped by the Dutch trade in Asia and prompted by the curiosity of a foreign culture Seen in this light Rembrandt's engagement with India enriches our understanding of collecting in seventeenth-century Amsterdam the Dutch global economy and Rembrandt's artistic self-fashioning A close examination of the Mughal imperial workshop provides new insights into how Indian paintings came to Europe as well as how Dutch prints were incorporated into Mughal compositions
