Our Nations and Nationalisms Owen Dudley Edwards, 2022-06-30 Nationalism is an increasingly unpopular word Few would apply the label of nationalist to themselves and fewer still to any part of our history before the 1700s But then where does it come from And what does it mean for us today With one eye on the present as he unpicks the past Owen Dudley Edwards finds nationalism to be older than recorded history and broader than modern geography Our Nations and Nationalisms traces the phenomena back as far as the Old Testament and the works of Homer and Virgil through the attempts of Shakespeare and James VI it is incumbent upon each of us to find ways to use this fact in the interests of humanity and not a single nation

The Correspondence of Sarah Morgan and Francis Warrington Dawson, with Selected Editorials Written by Sarah Morgan for the Charleston News and Courier Sarah Morgan Dawson, Francis Warrington Dawson, 2004 The private and public writings in this volume reveal the early relationship between renowned Civil War diarist Sarah Morgan 1842 1909 and her future husband Francis Warrington Dawson 1840 1889 Gathered here is a selection of their letters along with various articles that Morgan wrote anonymously for the Charleston News and Courier which Dawson owned and edited In January 1873 Morgan met Frank Dawson an English expatriate Confederate veteran and newspaperman By then Morgan had left her native Louisiana and was living near Columbia South Carolina with her younger brother James Morris Morgan When Sarah Morgan and Frank Dawson met he was mourning the recent death of his first wife She in turn was still grieving over her family's many wartime losses The couple's relationship came to encompass both the personal and the professional To free Morgan from an unhappy dependence on her brother Dawson urged her to write professionally for his paper During 1873 Morgan wrote more than seventy pieces on such topics as French and Spanish politics race relations the insanity plea funerals and fashion gossip editorials that caused a sensation in Charleston Only after attaining financial independence through her secret newspaper career did Morgan marry Frank Dawson in 1874 Morgan's commentary gives us a candid portrayal of the way one southern woman viewed her postwar world even as she struggled to find her place in it

Court , Flutter by Eleanor Ditrick, 2008-12 Flutter by began just as its name implies with the sharing of little flutters of thought among co workers and friends The messages fluttered into their lives quietly and with serenity much like the Monarch butterfly a personal favorite of mine My daily messages include a prayer and oftentimes a short story or quotation to show how that reflection applies to our lives and to our humanness They revolve around the people places and particulars in my world which are pretty much the same as those in yours My prayer is that this book helps you through each day with a flutter of thought a breath of calmness and a reflection for peace love and endurance I pray that these little thoughts help you smile and see the true beauty of God s touch in each day even in those filled with sorrow For as we flutter by we flutter on Through Flutter by you ll meet my husband Howard often referred to as Ole Buckeye Ohio State is his alma mater our daughters Diane and Lori and of course Chaplain Ditrick the Third our Shetland sheepdog Most times Chap concludes my prayerful thoughts with a flutter of his own They usually involve treats As a hospital chaplain I got to know and become close to many of the staff especially the nurses One friend in particular was going through a very difficult time in her personal life She faced continuous challenges and difficult decisions Often she confided that she didn t know how or even if she would get through it all Each time that we talked I came away feeling that I wanted to be so much more than someone who listened I wanted to do something to ease her pain I asked God to guide me to an answer to calm her burden On one particularly busy day I knew that our paths would not cross but I wanted my friend to know that I was thinking about and praying for her I wrote her a quick little prayer and sent it off through the inner office mail This was before computers A few days later I sent another prayer then another and another When we met up several days later she thanked me again and again She told me how much those little prayers meant to her and how she looked forward to receiving them She asked if she could share them with friends at the hospital I was touched and said of course From there the prayer mailing list grew to over 300 co workers and friends Thank goodness computers came along May you flutter by others as you have fluttered by me
