The Five-Factor Model of Personality Across Cultures Robert R. McCrae, Juri Allik, 2012-12-06 ROBERT R MCCRAE it is simply personality research conducted in different countries The implicit assumption behind this practice is that personality processes are universal and where they are studied is thus of no consequence An insensitivity to cultural context once imputed mostly to Americans now appears to characterize the field worldwide Fortunately recent years have also seen a rise of interest in studies of personality and culture Church 2001 Church Lee McCauley McCrae 2000 What do these new studies show Are personality processes indeed universal or are there significant variations across cultures that necessitate a more nuanced approach to research There is as yet no definitive answer to that question In some respects human personality does seem to transcend the boundaries of language and culture in other respects it is profoundly influenced by social and historical forces Sorting these issues out must be a priority for our field if we are to understand the current personality literature

Esthetics of the Moment Thomas M. Kavanagh,2015-11-16 The literature and art of the French Enlightenment is everywhere marked by an intense awareness of the moment The parallel projects of living in representing and learning from the moment run through the Enlightenment s endeavors as tokens of an ambition and a heritage imposing its only and ultimately impossible cohesion In this illuminating study Thomas M Kavanagh argues that Enlightenment culture and its tensions contradictions and achievements flow from a subversive attention to the present as present freed from the weight of past and future Examining a wide sweep of literary and artistic culture Kavanagh argues against the traditional view of the Age of Reason as one of coherent recognizable ideology expressed in a structured narrative form In literature he analyzes the moment at work in the inebriating lightness of Marivaux's repartee the new found freedom of Lahontan's and Rousseau's ideals of a consciousness limited to the present Diderot's championing of Epicurean epistemology Graffigny's portrayal of abrupt cultural displacement and Casanova's penchant for chance's redefining moment The moment in art theory and practice is explored in such forms as de Piles's defense of color Du Bos's foregrounding of perception Watteau's indulgence in a corporeal present Chardin's dismantling of mimesis and Boucher's and Fragonard's thematics of desire

Committing the Future to Memory Sarah Clift, 2013-11-11 Whereas historical determinacy conceives the past as a complex and unstable network of causalities this book asks how history can be related to a more radical future To pose that question it does not reject determinacy outright but rather seeks to explore how it works In examining what it means to be determined by history it also asks what kind of openings there might be in our encounters with history for interruptions re readings and re writings Engaging texts spanning multiple genres and several centuries from John Locke to Maurice Blanchot from Hegel to Benjamin Clift looks at experiences of time that exceed the historical narration of experiences said to have occurred in time She focuses on the co existence of multiple temporalities and opens up the quintessentially modern notion of historical succession to other possibilities The alternatives she draws out include the mediations of language and narration temporal leaps oscillations and blockages and the role played by contingency in representation She argues that such alternatives compel us to reassess the ways we understand history and identity in a traumatic or indeed in a post traumatic age Echoes of the Abyss Brandon Rowell,2024-12-22 In Echoes of the Abyss Celeste faces a world where the line between dreams and reality blurs pulling her into a mysterious journey through forgotten memories and shadows of her past As she navigates a landscape shaped by both beauty and darkness Celeste must confront her deepest fears and unravel secrets that lie hidden in the depths of her mind This gripping tale of self discovery and resilience challenges her to face the echoes of an abyss that threatens to consume her and to emerge stronger reclaiming her past to build a brighter future Silence in Modern Irish Literature ,2017-08-21 Silence in Modern Irish Literature is the first book to focus exclusively on the treatment of silence in modern Irish literature It reveals the wide spectrum of meanings that silence carries in modern Irish literature a mark of historical loss a form of resistance to authority a force of social oppression a testimony to the unspeakable an expression of desire a style of contemplation This volume addresses silence in psychological ethical topographical spiritual and aesthetic terms in works by a range of major authors including Yeats Joyce Beckett Bowen and Friel Northrop Frye's Notebooks and Lectures on the Bible and Other Religious Texts Northrop Frye,2003-01-01 In the third published volume of Canadian literary critic Frye s 1912 91 77 holograph notebooks the material is mostly from the 1970s when he was writing the first of his books on the Bible The Great Code However it begins with Notebook Three from the late 1940s in which he writes primarily on religious themes It concludes with Notebook 23 from the middle 1980s written between his first and second book on the Bible and one from the 1960s devoted largely to his reading of Dante s Purgatorio and the first ten cantos of the Paradiso Altogether the volume contains 11 notebooks three sets of typed notes and a transcription of 24 lectures on The Mythological Framework of Western Culture in 1981 82 Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com A Newsman in the Nixon White House Wafa Unus,2018-11-27 Herbert G Klein was a significant figure in both journalism and political history during the mid to late Twentieth Century Klein is best known as longtime advisor to Richard Nixon and was with Nixon at peak moments in his career including the Checkers Speech and Nixon s 1960 and 1962 campaigns Upon Nixon s election as President Klein became the White House Director of Communications a new position Klein was tasked with designing For four years Klein was known as one of Nixon s chief advisors But then for reasons historians have never fully explored he disappears from Nixon s political landscape as well as from scholarly and public prominence This book establishes Herbert G Klein as a formative figure in the Richard Nixon White House whose contributions to Nixon s press strategies their subsequent impact on the president s actions attitudes and eventual fall have been largely overshadowed in scholarly literature It explores the then emerging and now enduring conflict between journalistic truth and presidential image The work draws from previously unexplored materials on Klein in the Richard Nixon Presidential Library The account is notable for the first examination of Klein s only known oral history lessening a gap in the existing literature on Nixon s aides and his relationship with the media
