Reminiscences of Anton Chekhov Maxim Gorky, Alexander Kuprin, Ivan Bunin, 2021-04-10 Reminiscences of Anton Chekhov offers a poignant exploration into the life and literary impact of one of Russia's most celebrated playwrights and short story writers. The anthology encompasses a range of literary styles from reflective narratives to intimate anecdotes capturing Chekhov's multifaceted persona and the profound influence he had on his contemporaries. Readers will encounter a spectrum of emotions and insights as the collection weaves together tales of wit, melancholy, and introspection, each contributing a unique piece to the larger mosaic of Chekhovian legacy. The collected narratives not only illuminate Chekhov's character but also the cultural and intellectual milieu of his time. The contributions from eminent Russian authors such as Maxim Gorky, Alexander Kuprin, and Ivan Bunin add rich textures to the anthology, drawing from their personal experiences and interactions with Chekhov. These authors, renowned for their own significant contributions to Russian literature, bring diverse perspectives that delve into the complexities of the era. The anthology aligns with the Silver Age of Russian literature, capturing a critical period of innovation and transition in Russian cultural history. Their voices collectively provide an enriched understanding of Chekhov's enduring influence and the literary currents he navigated. A recommended compendium for scholars and enthusiasts alike, Reminiscences of Anton Chekhov presents a rare opportunity to experience the confluence of voices that celebrated and critiqued Chekhov's work contemporaneously. This collection is not just a tribute to Chekhov but an invitation to engage with broader literary conversations and historical contexts through the thoughtful reflections of his peers. Delving into these pages offers educational insights and fosters a deeper dialogue with the timeless narratives shaped by Chekhov and preserved by those who knew him intimately.

Anton Chekhov Mikhail Chekhov, 2024-09-04 In a style reminiscent of Anton Chekhov himself realistic intimate and dynamic Mikhail Chekhov shares unparalleled memories and insights transporting readers into the world of the Chekhov family He visits the places where his brother lived and worked and introduces the people he knew and loved Leo Tolstoy and Piotr Tchaikovsky among them As a unique eyewitness to the beloved writer s formative years and his artistic maturity Mikhail Chekhov shows here first hand the events that inspired the plots for The Seagull The Black Monk and The Steppe among other enduring works Captivating surprising and a joy to read this memoir reveals the remarkable life of one the most masterful storytellers of our time

Reminiscences of Anton Chekhov Kuprin, Gorky, Bunin, 2014-07-07 Once he invited me to the village Koutchouk Koy where he had a tiny strip of land and a white two storied house There while showing me his estate he began to speak with animation If I had plenty of money I should build a sanatorium here for invalid village teachers You know I would put up a large bright building very bright with large windows and lofty rooms I would have a fine library different musical instruments bees a vegetable garden an orchard There would be lectures on agriculture mythology Teachers ought to know everything everything my dear fellow He was suddenly silent coughed looked at me out of the corners of his eyes and smiled that tender charming smile of his which attracted one so irresistibly to him and made one listen so attentively to his words Does it bore you to listen to my fantasies I do love to talk of it If you knew how badly the Russian village needs a nice sensible educated teacher We ought in Russia to give the teacher particularly good conditions and it ought to be done as quickly as possible We ought to realize that without a wide education of the people Russia will collapse like a house built of badly baked bricks A teacher must be an artist in love with his calling but with us he is a journeyman ill educated who goes to the village to teach children as though he were going into exile He is starved crushed terrorized by the fear of losing his daily bread But he ought to be the first man in the village the peasants ought to recognize him as a power worthy of attention and respect no one should dare to shout at him or humiliate him personally as with us every one does the village constable the rich shop keeper the priest the rural police commissioner the school guardian the councilor and that official who has the title of school inspector but who cares nothing for the improvement of education and only sees that the circulars of his chiefs are carried out It is ridiculous to pay in farthings the man who has to educate the people It is intolerable that he should walk in rags shiver with cold in damp and draughty schools catch cold and about the age of thirty get laryngitis rheumatism or tuberculosis
