

Remnant

O spiritual reunion

In old autumn.

Yellow roses

Defoliated by the garden fence,

A great pain melted

To a dark tear,

O sister!

So still the golden day ends.

Liuzza, 2013-01-11 Taken from the same manuscript as Cynewulf the Junius 11 poems Genesis Exodus Daniel and Christ and Satan comprise a series of redacted Old English works that have been traditionally presented as the work of Bede s Caedmon Medieval scholars have concluded that the four poems were composed by more than one author and later edited by Junius in 1655 All of the poems are notable for their Christian content Apart from its focus on the Junius 11 manuscript this collection of essays is also important as a study of how to read edit and define any medieval literary text Poetry of the Remnant or a Bit of the Sky's Blue A.G. Brooke, 1920 The Poetry of Bloody Sunday Kübra Özermiş, 2025-09-29 As a turning point that changed the course of the Troubles the Bloody Sunday massacre continues to define ongoing debates about the legacy of the Troubles and the impact of state violence Bloody Sunday has been at the centre of numerous cultural and literary expressions which deal with the grief and trauma of the massacre such as murals songs plays and poetry This volume is the first comprehensive study of the poetry of Bloody Sunday written by critically acclaimed Irish poets including Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Thomas Kinsella Seamus Deane and Medbh McGuckian By focusing on poems written between 1972 and 2015 this book examines each poet s attempt to find an apt way of articulating the anger trauma and grief over the massacre with most of the poets continuously returning to the shooting in their poetry throughout their careers The monograph outlines how in the face of adversity the poets draw on old Irish literary traditions such as Gaelic laments and Aisling poetry which offer an indigenous anti colonial and counter hegemonic response to a massacre that was experienced as a colonial aggression It also discusses the complex relationship between poetry and politics and the negotiation between aesthetic freedom and the moral obligation to write about Bloody Sunday

Remnants of My Mangled Soul Merab Giorgadze,2022-03-30 My years are heading already downhill The footprints of the past have a cold feeling I wander through fogs with my old shoulders And with my unfulfilled overdue dreams My poem cannot be more rhythmic than yours Raiment of the ploughman attracts my rhythms Your words are the beautiful play of the leopardess And my poems rise from the moistened earth

Still Songs: Music In and Around the Poetry of Paul Celan Axel Englund,2016-04-01 What does it mean for poetry and music to turn to each other in the shadow of the Holocaust as a means of aesthetic self reflection How can their mutual mirroring of such paramount importance to German Romanticism be reconfigured to retain its validity after the Second World War These are the core questions of Axel Englund s book which is the first to address the topic of Paul Celan and music Celan a Jewish Holocaust survivor who has long been recognized as one of the most important poets of the German language persistently evoked music and song in his oeuvre from the juvenilia to the posthumous collections Conversely few post war writers have inspired as large a body of contemporary music including works by Harrison Birtwistle Gy rgy Kurt g Wolfgang Rihm Peter Ruzicka and many others Through rich close readings of poems and musical compositions Englund s book engages the artistic media in a critical dialogue about the conditions of their existence In so doing it reveals their intersection as a site of profound conflict where the very possibility of musical and poetic meaning is at stake and confrontations of aesthetic transcendentality and historical remembrance are played out in the wake of twentieth century trauma

Remnants of the Literary Text Mounir Guirat, Henda Ammar-Guirat, 2024-07-15 Recycling the Remnants of the Literary Text Verandas for the Residual and the Emergent addresses literary recycling as a creative endeavour that supplements meaning through appropriating remnants of texts and transforming them into traces or echoes of their former selves within a new narrative design It approaches recycling as a process that extends verandas of meanings and creates sites for ongoing discursive accretion of signification through the dialogic encounter between the old and the new the residual and the emergent Whether seen as markers of the capacity of the literary text to surprise and haunt its readers or residues of systems of representations predicated on selective inclusion and strategies of exclusion remnants can offer rich material for setting in motion new cycles of renewal The contributors of this volume propose recycling as writing and reading strategies The first grants the remnants an afterlife and allow for an opening up of new narrative possibilities while the second constructs alternative readings by allowing unwanted remnants to return and fill in gaps and silences These oddments of the literary text are essential to question the iniquities of cultural racial and class prejudices They are unavoidable in the construction of an emergent literary and cultural matrix for disruption and change
