Sartre Literature And Theory:

Sartre's Theory of Literature Christina Howells,1979      Sartre: Literature and Theory Rhiannon Goldthorpe,1984 In this major study Rhiannon Goldthorpe takes up the challenge of Sartre's diversity in an original and provocative way Her detailed and comprehensive exploration of the relationship between the theoretical and literary works pays due attention to their characteristic complexity The discussion of La Naus e Les Mouches Huis clos Les Mains sales and Les S questr s e Altona for example does not present these literary texts as mere illustrations of Sartre's theories of consciousness imagination and emotion but as subtle philosophical and linguistic investigations in their own right In addition by reference to recently published fragments from Sartre's earlier work Goldthorpe calls into question existing views of Sartre's intellectual development and provides a new history of the crucial Sartrean concept of commitment

Reading for Democracy

Laura Bieger,2025-09-26 Is literature of political use and if yes how might this use be defined Reading for Democracy addresses this question in a series of essays with topics ranging from reading as a political practice to the relational aesthetics of literary engagement from the public sphere as a space of appearance to public intellectuals and the predicament of popularity from Jesmyn Ward s poetics of breathing while Black to the art of the essay in the digital age In considering these topics it engages with a range of philosophical sociological media and literary critical works by scholars including J rgen Habermas Michael Warner John Dewey Hannah Arendt Jean Paul Sartre Theodor Adorno Nicolas Bourriaud and Pierre Bourdieu But the baseline of the essays collected in this volume is an understanding of literature as a social practice a collective doing and making that involves a multiplicity of human and non human actors writers readers publishers agents book covers prize committees

English departments literary characters and styles adaptations for stage and screen In this framework literary texts are not stable objects They are bonding agents in a complex and shifting web of relations and in this capacity they catalyze and channel the activities necessary to forge these relations reading writing publishing republishing citing reciting reviewing recommending Moving back and forth between two shape shifting actors the reading public and a socially engaged literature the assembled essays show how the political functions and uses of literature are defined from within this constellation or more precisely through the collective and reflective forms of judgment including aesthetic judgement that are tried and institutionalized in practicing literature And that are essential to negotiating the shape of the world Which is what the political is all about

Reorienting Modernism in Arabic and Persian Poetry

Levi Thompson,2022-12-08 Re orienting

Modernism in Arabic and Persian Poetry is the first book to systematically study the parallel development of modernist poetry in Arabic and Persian. It presents a fresh line of comparative inquiry into minor literatures within the field of world literary studies. Focusing on Arabic-Persian literary exchanges allows readers to better understand the development of modernist poetry in both traditions and in turn challenge Europe's position at the center of literary modernism. The argument contributes to current scholarly efforts to globalize modernist studies by reading Arabic and Persian poetry comparatively within the context of the Cold War to establish the Middle East as a significant participant in wider modernist developments. To illuminate profound connections between Arabic and Persian modernist poetry in both form and content the book takes up works from key poets including the Iraqis Badr Shakir al Sayyab and Abd al Wahhab al Bayati and the Iranians Nima Yushij, Ahmad Shamlu and Forough Farrokhzad.
