Dana Andrews arguably the finest minimalist actor of his generation as one critic commented could convey more with one look than many actors could with a soliloquy In a film career spanning nearly five decades Andrews appeared in some of Hollywood s most prestigious productions including The Ox Bow Incident 1943 and The Best Years of Our Lives 1946 His unique screen presence was shown at its best in such film noir classics as Laura 1944 and Where the Sidewalk Ends 1950 Beginning with an absorbing biographical chapter this critical survey of Dana Andrews screen career features a complete filmography with synopses reviews behind the scenes anecdotes and insightful comments from Andrews and his coworkers A chronological list of television radio and theater credits is included James Bond and the Sixties Spy Craze Thom

Shubilla, 2024-04-02 James Bond the the 60s Spy Craze will explore James Bond films and the number of movies and television shows of the 1960s inspired by Ian Fleming s character The book also delves into the production casting merchandise and music that helped to make James Bond a household name and a cultural touchstone The 1960s spy craze lasted seven years ostensibly from 1962 1969 peaking in 1966 1967 However in that time many secret agent films flooded theaters and drive ins and television shows filled station line ups in the United States throughout the 1960s All of which were directly inspired by the first James Bond adventure to hit the big screen Dr No 1962 This is the story from a historical perspective of those films and how they became a part of American pop culture The book explores the various other top agents of the time Matt Helm Dereck Flint and Harry Palmer and the many spy spoof imitators coming from the United States England Europe and Mexico and discusses the impact James Bond had on each of these films and the ways in which

James Bond influenced media Also discussed are budgets casting production box office numbers ratings development merchandising and how these elements have contributed to the success and longevity of the popularity of James Bond films

To Kill a Country Pamela J. Ray, 2006-05-01 WRONG TURN: The Fifth Season of Love Vincent Risoli-Black, 2010-09-23 Using the Bible especially the Gospels as a source of consolation for the believed potential devastation that would result in the Wrath of God once seen imminent through Global Warming one is led through by the author to view positive signs of God s mercy and a new City of God that the Bible promises in Revelations The dolphins trapped in our rivers were our delight as we witnessed the twists and turns brought upon life through our eco systems and society Also a film maker Risoli Black details this additional dialog in the novel with anecdotes and criticisms of films of the fifties sixties and seventies when one had choices of decent role models with ideal standards not idols that led away from God WRONG TURN The Fifth Season of Love is a novel of true events where the townsfolk are the heavies that recall plots like Peyton Place and Town Without Pity Also includes the novella The Song of the Bow about the love between Jonathan and David a love greater than the love of women

Gender in Science Fiction Films, 1964-1979 Bonnie Noonan, 2015-06-15 The 1950s era of science fiction film effectively ended when space flight became a reality with the first manned orbit of Earth in 1962 As the genre s wildly speculative depictions of science and technology gave way to more reality based representations relations between male and female characters reflected the changing political and social climates of the era Drawing on critical analyses film reviews and cultural commentaries this book examines the development of science fiction film and its representations of gender from the groundbreaking films of 1968 including 2001 A Space Odyssey Barbarella and Planet of the Apes through its often overlooked Middle Period which includes such films as Colossus

The Forbin Project 1970 The Stepford Wives 1975 and A Boy and His Dog 1975 The author examines intersections of gender and race in The Omega Man 1971 and Frogs 1972 gender and dystopia in Soyent Green 1973 and Logan's Run 1976 and gender and computers in Demon Seed 1977 The big budget films of the late 1970s Close Encounters of the Third Kind Alien and Star Wars are also discussed

Science Fiction America David J. Hogan, 2015-05-07 From the inception of the science fiction film writers directors producers and actors have understood that the genre lends itself to a level of social commentary not available in other formats Viewers find it easier to accept explorations of such issues as domestic violence war xenophobia faith identity racism and other difficult topics when the protagonists exist in future times or other worlds that are only vaguely similar to our own The 22 original essays in this collection examine how the issues in particular science fiction films from 1930's High Treason to 1999's The Iron Giant reflect and comment on the prevailing issues of their time The 16 writers including such noted contributors as Ted Okuda Gary Don Rhodes Bryan Senn John Soister and Ken Weiss provide insight on how the genre's wistful daydreaming forthcoming wonders and nightmarish scenarios are often grounded in the grimmer realities of the human condition Films covered include It Came from Outer Space Godzilla The 27th Day Alien and Starship Troopers plus television's The Adventures of Superman the Flash Gordon serials and vintage space cartoons by Fleischer
