Dumville,1998 Historians numismatists and philologists consider fundamental aspects of 9c political and economic history The ninth century was a period of upheaval in England as the kingdoms of Mercia and Wessex vied for supremacy and East Anglia and Kent sought to regain their independence with the arrival of the Vikings introducing a further element of unrest This interdisciplinary collection of papers by historians numismatists and philologists considers fundamental aspects of the period s political and economic history Alliances and treaties are a central theme political and monetary A radical reassessment of events in London in the later ninth century is presented prompted by a detailed examination of the numismatic evidence marshalled here along with the written sources it is argued that the Vikings were not in control of the city prior to Alfred's reoccupation in AD 886. The volume includes an illustrated corpus of the coinage of Berhtwulf and another for the middle years of Alfred's reign; moneyers are identified as witnesses to charters and the forms of their names are analysed according to the Old English dialects they represent. A listing of some 500 single coin finds forms the basis for a discussion of the nature and extent of monetary use in ninth-century England.
