School Of Marble And Mud:

Gulchin' Out Vince S. Garrod, 2013-08 Born in 1918 Vince Garrod lived on the family property in Saratoga CA his entire life He his brother and his sister grew up without running water and without cars He learned to drive when he was 8 and got his license at 14 He grew up picking prunes and cutting apricots He stacked trays and hauled hay He watched the world put a man on the moon and learn to communicate instantly via email In the 1960s he moved the family business from prunes and apricots to horses and vineyards and later wine In 1970 he fell off a haystack and broke a hip so during his forced inactivity he bought himself an Osborne computer and taught himself how to use it He never sat back and expected something to change if he wanted something different he created it He could tell you how much fruit an orchard should produce and could identify insect pests and fungus He could hitch up a horse and milk a cow He could grow tomatoes and catch gophers Vince loved the land and was an advocate of conservation his entire life and served on several conservation district boards and open space land trusts He was an active community member and served on the local school board as a 4 H leader and fire commissioner Everyone who met him liked him right away There was a way about him an easy smile an interested question and wise response And he liked everyone As part of his interest in conservation he also thought family history was important These stories he wrote from memories of his youth They are stories of friends and with friends They are stories of a different time when kids walked home from school and made kites by hand and played marbles They are also stories of a man who didn't begrudge time moving forward and understood after all that people are just people trying to do what they know how to do and make their lives a little bit better I Sight James Eliot Mercer, 2022-11-23 I Sight The Power of Perception By James Eliot Mercer Harrowing and deeply personal I Sight The Power of Perception is a memoir detailing the journey of author James Mercer as he comes to the realization that he suffers from a rare genetic eye disorder one that deteriorates with time and threatens to leave him fully blind by middle age Starting in early childhood Mercer recognizes he is different from his peers his parents never let him stay out past sundown and often in low light or bright light conditions the world becomes an indecipherable blur With adolescence comes a better understanding of his sight deficiency but it also creates a greater divide between Mercer and other normal teenagers who can freely go to school dances and to local nightly hangouts getting to experience a freedom Mercer may never know This memoir tells a story of how disability can bring fear shame and isolation but through the love of family and true friends one can find acceptance and joy School of Marble and Mud Chad Dean, 2004-05 Jack Manchester loser women's shoe salesman turned substitute teacher is running from his cheating fiancée with equilibrium problems a radical feminist group enforcer named Ambrosia the neighbor who stole his fence and his psychotic gun-wielding grandmother Most of all Jack Manchester is running from himself With only a few seconds to live however Manchester isn't going to run very far without recounting the memories and sorting things out from there Through his bitterly witty descriptions and ludicrous tales of debauchery Manchester attempts to understand and survive in the
