Schooling As A Ritual Performance:

Schooling as a Ritual Performance Peter McLaren, 1999 One of the most compelling ethnographies of school ever written Schooling as a Ritual Performance has for over a decade made its mark among educators sociologists and those seeking to understand the cultural meaning of classroom practices Written by one of the major world figures on the educational left Schooling as a Ritual Performance is a pioneering study of the partnership between capitalism and religion and the educational offspring it produces Not since Paul Willis Learning to Labor has an educational ethnography about schooling so pushed the limits of current social theory Now in a new edition to this classic text McLaren engages with some of the latest anthropological thinking and presents readers with a powerful manifesto for critical ethnography in the coming millennium

Schooling as a Ritual Performance Peter McLaren, 1986 Rituals and Student Identity in Education R. Quantz, 2011-01-31 An exploration of how the nonrational aspects of schooling especially ritual s have been harnessed to construct a commonsense which serves the interests of transnational corporations leaving those educators committed to democracy to develop a new pedagogy that rejects the technical solutions that present reforms demand Towards Critical Environmental Education Aristotelis S. Gkiolmas, Constantine D. Skordoulis, 2020-11-03 This volume discusses theory philosophy praxis and methods in Environmental and Ecological education and considers the junction with the main visions and issues of Critical Pedagogy The volume and its separate chapters address four axes which can also be seen as the guidelines of the content as well as the central objectives of the book The first axis concerns the missing theoretical and practical pieces at this point in time The volume considers the issues that are not included in contemporary Environmental Education and thus deprive it from critical orientations This implies that in Environmental Education very little discussion exists about the political economic racial gender and class issues that in most cases govern the actions of leaders and stakeholders The second axis concerns what has been done so far and in what directions This involves descriptions of theoretical approaches or actual applied methodologies in the classroom such as curricula or syllabus used or the kind of actions certain educators have taken to infuse the issues of justice and critical reflection within the Environmental Education teaching agenda The third axis examines proposals It looks at ways to enrich domains of Environmental Education with the argumentations of Critical Pedagogy The fourth axis concerns the way in which proposals can be effectuated This part contains specific methodologies and teaching sequences depicting ways of including major aspects of Critical Pedagogy and Critical Education in Environmental Education Examples are Non anthropocentric ecological approaches in the classroom political activism in the Curricula mixture of field activities and political activities Performance and Appropriation Michel Conan, 2007 Breaking with the idea that gardens are places of indulgence and escapism these studies of ritualized practices reveal that gardens in Europe Asia the United States and the Caribbean have in fact made significant contributions to cultural change This book demonstrates methods and the striking results of garden reception studies The first section explores how cultural changes occur and devotes chapters to public landscapes in the Netherlands seventeenth century Parisian gardens Freemason gardens in Tuscany nineteenth century Scottish kitchen gardens and the public parks of Edo and modern Tokyo The second part provides striking examples of construction of self in vernacular gardens in Guadeloupe and American Japanese style gardens in California Finally the third section analyzes struggles for political change in gardens of Yuan China and modern Britain

Critical Theory: Rituals, Pedagogies and Resistance Peter McLaren, 2022-03-28 This collection of essays incorporates some of the most important and longstanding foundational texts in education developed by the leading educational neo Gramscian social theorist Peter McLaren The volume provides a much necessary framework for understanding more precisely not only the historical and philosophical foundations for McLaren's ideas but even more importantly it unpacks a clear understanding of the dynamics of ideological production framing the epistemicidal nature of capitalist schools The chapters provide state of the art approaches grounded in both Marxist social theory and post critical sensibilities They show the unique opportunities provided by critical theoretical approaches towards revolutionary pedagogies which are crucial to address the current challenges one is facing locally nationally and internationally Critical Theory Rituals Pedagogies and Resistance speaks to the current challenges we face as humanity not only situating them historically but also securitizing the role that our educational institutions curriculum matrixes and teacher education programs have played in such social havoc It provides crucial insights not only to help a better understanding of the accomplishments produced by the critical educational and curriculum river in the struggle against the educational and curriculum epistemicide but also to help explore alternative ways responsive to the world's endless epistemological difference and diversity While the future of our field needs to go beyond Peter McLaren's intellectual thesaurus it cannot certainly avoid going through him The itinerant curriculum theory and the ICTheorists are conscious about that Jo o M Paraskeva Professor of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies University of Strathclyde

A Critical Pedagogy of Resistance James D. Kirylo, 2013-11-04 The diverse range of critical pedagogues presented in this book comes from a variety of backgrounds with respect to race gender and ethnicity from various geographic places and eras and from an array of complex political historical religious theological social cultural and educational circumstances which necessitated their leadership and resistance How each pedagogue uniquely lives in that tension of dealing with pain and struggle while concurrently fostering a pedagogy that is humanizing is deeply influenced by their individual autobiographical lens of reality the conceptual thought that enlightened them the circumstances that surrounded them and the conviction that drove them To be sure people of justice people who resist are framed by a vision that embraces an inclusive tolerant more loving community that passionately calls for a more democratic citizenship That is just what the 34 critical pedagogues represented in this text heroically do Through the highlighting of their lives and work this book is not only an excellent resource to serve as a springboard to engage us in dialogue about pivotal issues and concerns related to justice equality and opportunity but also to prompt us to further explore deeper into the lives and thought of some extraordinary people A Critical Pedagogy of Resistance 34 Pedagogues We Need to Know is an ambitious undertaking Kirylo s narrative enterprise which seeks to chronicle the lives of transformative pedagogues is a project whose time has come This text is an excellent resource for all those interested in the aesthetic that as Kierkegaard believed exercised power for the common good Luis Mir n

Multicultural Research Carl A. Grant,2005-08-12 With contributions from leading American authors in the field of multicultural research this text both dissects the multicultural issues facing education in the USA and reveals the methods and procedures of research in this area Learning to Teach Natalie G. Adams,Christine Mary Shea,Delores D.

Liston,Bryan Deever,2006-08-15 This text is designed to assist preservice and inservice teachers in creating a critical and reflective dialogue with themselves their assigned classroom cultures and the larger school environment It engages readers in a series of classroom and school based activities observations and exercises that can be used in any teacher education course with a field component Different from other field experience guides this text aims to disrupt traditional conceptions of teacher education and field experiences by emphasizing the problematic nature and dynamics of public schooling and encouraging readers to seek a greater awareness of their own attitudes toward and connections with these educational processes Learning to Teach A Critical Approach to the Field Experience Second Edition dramatically reconceptualizes the field experience by asking preservice and inservice teachers to be active and critical researchers of classroom practices and processes provides a coherent framework for analyzing both structural and cultural aspects of schooling provides specific exercises to help preservice and inservice teachers evaluate and understand the intersections of race class gender and culture in real life school settings and grounds the observations of everyday school life within critical feminist and poststructuralist discourses New in the Second Edition A new section No Child Left Untested has been added to help preservice teachers explore the implications of a very changed post September 11world in which xenophobia violence patriotism citizenship and democracy have taken on new meanings The introduction to the book as a whole the section introductions the retained activities in existing sections and the references have been thoroughly updated Action
