Structural Novelty and Tradition in the Early Romantic Piano Concerto Stephan D. Lindeman, 1999 Lindeman a musicologist traces and defines the historical development of the concerto form as it passed from Mozart to succeeding generations He then assesses Beethoven's contributions and examines the classical model of the form in the early 19th century by overviewing several early romantic composers works Subsequent chapters analyze and assess the responses of five precursors of Schumann whose work offers a synthesis of radical experiments and traditional tenets He concludes by suggesting that concertos of Liszt offer a road into further developments of the genre in the second half of the century Illustrated with bandw portraits of composers and excerpts from musical scores Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Piano Concerto in a Minor Op. 54 \(Edition for 2 Pianos\): Sheet Michael Musgrave, 2022-05 New Urtext Edition by Michael Musgrave Schumann's Piano Concerto traces its origins through the first movement to a single movement Phantasie in A minor for piano and orchestra which was completed in May 1841 his symphonic year and revised at the beginning of 1843 Clara Schumann who had long wanted a major work for piano and orchestra from Schumann played through the Phantasie with the Leipzig Gewandhaus Orchestra in 1841 but although she played it again in 1843 it was never publicly performed nor a publisher found even though they were both happy with the work In the summer of 1845 in Dresden where they had now moved Schumann revised the Phantasie and added a second and third movement to form what is described on the surviving manuscript of the full score as Concerto for piano with accompaniment It was premiered on 4 December 1845 at a special Clara Schumann concert with Dresden musicians independent of the regular subscription concerts conducted by their friend and supporter Ferdinand Hiller the dedicatee The performance was critically successful and a second performance was arranged at the more prestigious Leipzig Gewandhaus at the 11th subscription concert on New Year's Day 1846 under its conductor Mendelssohn. This performance was an even greater success than the first and quickly established itself as a repertory work. Schumann made corrections to the orchestral parts for the performance he conducted with Clara at the Lower Rhine Music Festival in May 1853. The history of the work is dominated by Clara Schumann's promotion of it over a period of 40 years or so. Robert Schumann never played the work since he had given up public performance by the time of its composition. All evidence is that Clara played it to his great satisfaction and it was obviously meant for her. This Urtext edition by Schumann scholar Michael Musgrave contains a preface in English, German, and French.
