Schwatka's Search William Henry Gilder, 2017-12-12 Excerpt from Schwatka's Search Sledging in the Arctic in Quest of the Franklin Records Lieutenant Schwatka has now resolved the last doubts that could have been felt about the fate of the Franklin expedition. He has traced the one untraced ship to its grave beyond the ocean and cleared the reputation of a harmless people from an undeserved reproach. He has given to the unburied bones of the crews probably the only safeguard against desecration by wandering wild beasts and heedless Esquimaux which that frozen land allowed. He has brought home for reverent sepulture in a kindlier soil the one body which bore transport. Over the rest he has set up monuments to emphasize the undying memory of their sufferings and their exploit He has gathered tokens by which friends and relatives may identify their dead and revisit in imagination the spots in which the ashes lie Lastly he has carried home with him material evidence to complete the annals of Arctic exploration About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Schwatka's Search
