, Captivity in War during the Twentieth Century Marcel Berni, Tamara Cubito, 2021-08-27 This book offers new international perspectives on captivity in wartime during the twentieth century It explores how global institutions and practices with regard to captives mattered how they evolved and most importantly how they influenced the treatment of captives From the beginning of the twentieth century international organisations neutral nations and other actors with no direct involvement in the respective wars often had to fill in to support civilian as well as military captives and to supervise their treatment This edited volume puts these actors rather than the captives themselves at the centre in order to assess comparatively their contributions to wartime captivity Taking a global approach it shows that transnational bodies whether non governmental organisations neutral states or individuals played an essential role in dealing with captives in wartime Chapters cover both the largest wars such as the two World Wars but also lesser known conflicts to highlight how captives were placed at the centre of transnational negotiations Intrusions Ursula Hegi, 2012-10-01 Brilliantly stretching literary conventions Ursula Hegi author of the best selling Stones from the River creates a funny and original novel within a novel to explore the doubts decisions and might have beens that mark not only the writing process but life itself As her author and her fictional heroine deal with their intrusions into each other's lives Hegi reveals much about the choices women make the ambiguities they face and the often surprising ways reality and fiction merge Monatsschrift Für Das Deutsche Geistesleben, 1902 Sisters Crossing Boundaries Katharina Stornig, 2013-10-02 The last third of the 19th century witnessed a considerable increase in the active participation of women in the various Christian missions Katharina Stornig focusses on the Catholic case and particularly explores the activities and experiences of German missionary nuns the so called Servants of the Holy Spirit in colonial Togo and New Guinea in the late 19th and first half of the 20th centuries Introducing the nuns ambiguous roles as travelers evangelists believers domestic workers farmers teachers and nurses Stornig highlights the ways in which these women shaped and were shaped by the missionary encounter and how they affected colonial societies more generally Privileging the sources produced by nuns i.e. letters chronicles and reports and emphasizing their activities Sisters Crossing Boundaries profoundly challenges the frequent depiction of women and particularly nuns as the largely passive observers of the missionizing and colonizing activities of men Stornig does not stop at adding women to the existing historical narrative of mission in Togo and New Guinea but presents the hopes and strategies that German nuns related to the imagination and practice of empire She also discusses the effects of boundary crossing both real and imagined in the context of religion gender and race Lascivious Scenes in the Convent Grove/Atlantic, Incorporated, 1898 Meyers Kinder-Weltatlas Erwin Konnecke, 2012-12-06 Erde Mond und Sterne Deutschland Große Ferien Deutschland Städte und Verkehr Bildkarfe Ferienerlebnisse Bildkarte Deutschland Wirtschaft Europa Ein Besuch im Zirkus Europa Tiere Bildkarte R tselspiel bei Monika Bildkarte Europa Staaten Wirtschaft und Verkehr Peter hat ein neues Quartett Europa
