vis the challenge of African development and Africa's place in a globalized neoliberal capitalist economy The volume offers a comprehensive survey of the philosophical enterprise in Africa especially with reference to current discourses arguments and new issues feminism and gender terrorism and fundamentalism sexuality development identity pedagogy and multidisciplinary etc that are significant for understanding how Africa can resume its arrested march towards decolonization and liberation

Logic and African Philosophy Jonathan O. Chimakonam, 2020-10-06 Logic and African Philosophy Seminal Essays on African Systems of Thought aims to put African intellectual history in perspective with focus on the subjects of racism logic language and psychology The volume seeks to fill in the gaps left by the exclusion of African thinkers that are frequent in the curricula of African schools concerning history sociology philosophy and cultural studies The book is divided into four parts that are preceded by an introduction to link up the essays and emphasise their sociological implications Part one is comprised of essays that opened the controversy of whether logic can be found in traditional African cultures as well as other matters like the nature of the mind and behaviour of African peoples The essays in part two are centred on the following question are the laws of thought present in African languages and cultures Part three brings together essays that sparkle the debate on whether there can be such a thing as African logic which stems from the discussions in part two Part four is concerned on the theme of system building in logic contributions are written by members of the budding African philosophy movement called the Conversational School of Philosophy based at the University of Calabar and the main objective of their papers is to formulate systems of African logic

Atuolu Omalu Jonathan O. Chimakonam, 2014-12-15 The story of African philosophy is surrounded by controversy Decades after the great debate over its mere existence many vital questions have been left unanswered From examining the origins of African philosophy to addressing fundamental issues in ontology epistemology ethics and political thought this collection of essays brings fresh insight to questions both old and new First time readers and seasoned scholars alike will find this book to be an essential resource in African thought At I mal gives shape and direction to a hitherto formless discipline and heralds an exciting future for African philosophy

Ezumezu Jonathan O. Chimakonam, 2019-03-05 The issue of a logic foundation for African thought connects well with the question of method Do we need new methods for African philosophy and studies Or are the methods of Western thought adequate for African intellectual space These questions are not some of the easiest to answer because they lead straight to the question of whether or not a logic tradition from African intellectual space is possible Thus in charting the course of future direction in African philosophy and studies one must be confronted with this question of logic The author boldly takes up this challenge and becomes the first to do so in a book by introducing new concepts and formulating a new African culture inspired system of logic called Ezumezu which he believes would ground new methods in African philosophy and studies He develops this system to rescue African philosophy and by extension sundry fields in African Indigenous Knowledge Systems from the spell of Plato and the hegemony of Aristotle African philosophers can now ground their discourses in Ezumazu logic which will distinguish their philosophy as a tradition in its own right On the whole the book engages with some of the lingering controversies in the idea of an African logic before unveiling Ezumazu as a philosophy of logic methodology and formal system The book also provides fresh arguments and insights on the themes of decolonisation and Africanisation for the intellectual transformation of scholarship in Africa It will appeal to philosophers and logicians undergraduates and post graduate researchers as well as those in various areas of African studies
