Science in Arcady Charles Grant Blairfindie Allen,1892 SCIENCE IN ARCADY GRANT ALLEN, Science in Arcady by Grant Allen ,1892 Science in Arcady Grant Allen,2018-10-10 Science in Arcady Large Print By Grant Allen which they migrated that comparatively little change took place in their forms or habits Of course just in proportion as the islands got stocked I noticed that the changes were less and less marked for each new plant insect or bird that established itself successfully tended to make the balance of nature more similar to the one that obtained in the mainland opposite and so decreased the chances of novelty of variation Hence it struck me that the oldest arrivals were the ones which altered most in adaptation to the circumstances while the newest finding themselves in comparatively familiar surroundings had less occasion to be selected for strange and curious freaks or sports of form or colour

Science in Arcady Grant Allen,2021-04-03 About the middle of the Miocene period as well as I can now remember for I made no note of the precise date at the moment my islands first appeared above the stormy sheet of the North West Atlantic as a little rising group of mountain tops capping a broad boss of submarine volcanoes My attention was originally called to the new archipelago by a brother investigator of my own aerial race who pointed out to me on the wing that at a spot some 900 miles to the west of the Portuguese coast just opposite the place where your mushroom city of Lisbon now stands the water of the ocean as seen in a bird's eye view from some three thousand feet above formed a distinct greenish patch such as always betokens shoals or rising ground at the bottom Flying out at once to the point he indicated and poisoning myself above it on my broad pinions at a giddy altitude I saw at a glance that my friend was quite right Land making was in progress A volcanic upheaval was taking place on the bed of the sea A new island group was being forced right up by lateral pressure or internal energies from a depth of at least two thousand fathoms

Grant Allen - Science in Arcady Grant Allen,2017-02-10 Charles Grant Blairfindie Allen was born on February 24th 1848 at Alwington near Kingston Canada West now part of Ontario Home schooled until 13 when his family moved to England Grant was to become a highly regarded science writer who branched out to a fiction career and became enormously popular His work helped propel several genres of fiction and whilst his career was short it was enormously productive Grant's scientific background enabled him to root much of his work in a plausibility that was denied to others He had little fear in challenging a society that treated women as second class citizens and creating best sellers from such works On October 25th 1899 Grant Allen died at his home in Hindhead Haslemere Surrey England He died just before finishing Hilda Wade The novel s final episode which he dictated to his friend doctor and neighbour Sir Arthur Conan Doyle from his bed appeared under the appropriate title The Episode of the Dead Man Who Spoke in 1900
