In Search of a Canon Greg Wiggan, 2015-02-03 Harnessing Paulo Freire's critical analysis of education and society In Search of a Canon explores Africa and Asia and their relationship to Europe and Europe's connection to the rest of the western world. As such, this book is situated in the tradition of critical scholars as it explores the relationship between historical processes and the development of a canon or literature that is considered as sacred or accepted. In doing so, it intricately explores the intersection of history, religion, sacred text, race relations, and education. The book uncovers the origins of the human family tree and the historical context related to the emergence of sacred literature and institutionalized systems of thought and educational processes. It presents critical dates, timelines, and perspectives that are aimed at raising awareness in order to make schools and society more humane and democratic. Greg Wiggan is Associate Professor of Urban Education, Adjunct Associate Professor of Sociology, and Affiliate Faculty Member of Africana Studies at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. His research addresses urban education and urban sociology in the context of school processes that promote high achievement among African American students and other underserved minority student populations. In doing so, his research also examines the broader connections between the history of urbanization, globalization processes, and the internationalization of education in urban schools. His books include Global Issues in Education: Pedagogy, Policy, Practice and The Minority Experience: Education in a Strange Land. Globalization, Urbanization, and Urban Schools: The Social and Educational Implications of the Geopolitical Economy. Curriculum Violence: America's New Civil Rights Issue. Education for the New Frontier: Race, Education, and Triumph in Jim Crow America, 1867-1945. Following the Northern Star: Caribbean Identities and Education in North American Schools. Unshackled: Education for Freedom, Student Achievement, and Personal Emancipation. Catalogue of "A.L.A." Library: 5000 Volumes for a Popular Library Selected by American Library Association and Shown at World's Columbian Exposition. United States. Bureau of Education, 1893. The Select Library, 1836. Writing Talk. Derek Neale, 2020-01-22. Writing Talk includes interviews with nineteen well-known contemporary writers exploring the ways in which they research and find their original ideas. Working across genres such as fiction, scriptwriting, radio, life writing, biography, and more, the writers offer insight into how they interpret, hone, and develop these ideas. The conversations examine the roles of technique, craft, language, reading, memory, serendipity, habit, and persistence. They offer technical detail about the creative process and give unique insights into the borderlands between genres, as well as offering rich personal insights and universal resonances. A wide-ranging introduction surveys the reasons why we are intrigued by the mysteries of individual writing practice and how these illuminate critical attitudes to literature and performance. Offering a rare glimpse into the creative process of some of this generation's most eminent voices, Writing Talk is a must-read for anyone interested in how stories are found and made. Interviewees: Alan Ayckbourn, Iain Banks, Helen Blakeman, Louis de Bernières, Sarah Butler, Andrew Cowan, Jenny Diski, Patricia Duncker, David Edgar, Tanika Gupta, Richard
