Selected Papers From An International Co:

Selected Papers on Automath R.P. Nederpelt, J.H. Geuvers, R.C. de Vrijer, 1994-10-20 The present volume contains a considered choice of the existing literature on Automath. Many of the papers included in the book have been published in journals or conference proceedings but a number have only circulated as research reports or have remained unpublished. The aim of the editors is to present a representative selection of existing articles and reports and of material contained in dissertations giving a compact and more or less complete overview of the work that has been done in the Automath research field from the beginning to the present day. Six different areas have been distinguished which correspond to Parts A to F of the book. These areas range from general ideas and motivation to detailed syntactical investigations.

Maritime law in the second half of the 20th century. Selected articles Jan Łopuski, 2008 The book contains a selection of articles written in the years 1962-2004 and published in English or French languages. They provide information and present views of the author on matters relating to the development and transformations which occurred in maritime law in the second half of the 20th century. Articles on Polish maritime law are presented separately from more numerous articles on international and transnational maritime law. The articles compiled in this book illustrate the process of important changes and developments occurred in maritime law in the said period. They indicate how problems created by the progress in the organisation of maritime trade, technical innovations and political changes on the map of the world were identified, considered and sometimes solved. In the latter case the relevant article may have only a historical significance. At the same time some traditional institutions of maritime law were changing their role and needed a reappraisal and revision.
