Expatriate American Authors in Paris Michael Grawe, 2001-03-05 Inhaltsangabe Abstract Paris has traditionally called to the American heart beginning with the arrival of Benjamin Franklin in 1776 in an effort to win the support of France for the colonies War of Independence Franklin would remain in Paris for nine years returning to Philadelphia in 1785 Then in the first great period of American literature before 1860 literary pioneers such as Washington Irving James Fenimore Cooper Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Ralph Waldo Emerson and Nathaniel Hawthorne were all to spend time in the French capital Henry James toward the close of the nineteenth century was the first to create the image of a talented literary artist who was ready to foreswear his citizenship From his adopted home in England he traveled widely through Italy and France living in Paris for two years There he became close friends with another literary expatriate Edith Wharton who made Paris her permanent home Between them they gave the term expatriate a high literary polish at the turn of the century and their prestige was undeniable They were the in cosmopolitans sought out by traveling Americans commented on in the press the favored guests of scholars as well as men and women of affairs This thesis investigates the mass expatriation of Americans to Paris during the 1920s and then focuses on selected works by two of the expatriates Ernest Hemingway s The Sun Also Rises 1926 and F Scott Fitzgerald s The Great Gatsby 1925 The specific emphasis is on disillusionment with the American lifestyle as reflected in these novels The two books have been chosen because both are prominent examples of the literary criticism that Americans were directing at their homeland from abroad throughout the twenties In a first step necessary historical background regarding the nature of the American lifestyle is provided in chapter two This information is included in order to facilitate a better understanding of what Hemingway and Fitzgerald were actually disillusioned with Furthermore that lifestyle was a primary motivating factor behind the expatriation of many United States citizens Attention is given to the extraordinary nature of the American migration to Paris in the twenties as the sheer volume of exiles set it apart from any expatriation movement before or since in American history Moreover a vast majority of the participants were writers artists or intellectuals a fact which suggests the United States during

The Selected Works of Ora Eddleman Reed Ora Eddleman Reed, Kirby Brown, 2024-02-22 The Selected Works of Ora Eddleman Reed collects the writings of Ora Eddleman Reed with an introduction that contextualizes her as an author a publishing pioneer a New Woman and a person with a complicated lineage Little Writer Ora V Eddleman pseudonym Mignon Schreiber was only eighteen when she published her first work in the Indian Territory newspaper Twin Territories which she edited for much of its brief run This publication promoted the literary works of Muskogee Creek poet Chinnubie Harjo Alexander Posey Cherokee historian Joshua Ross and Muskogee Creek chief Pleasant Porter In the advice column What the Curious Want to Know Eddleman Reed answered readers from around the country who had ignorant impressions of Indian Territory and whose questions notably she did not include Such columns were accompanied by pieces that amount to some of the earliest Native historiography by an American woman claiming Indigenous heritage Twin Territories was directed at both Natives and non Natives and had a national readership The heterogeneous form of the newspaper gave room for healthy internal debate on controversial ideas like Indigenous sovereignty and assimilation affirming Native Americans as a significant diverse collective In this first book of Eddleman Reed s work Cari M Carpenter and Karen L Kilcup revive the writings of an important author publisher and activist for Cherokee rights Research in Education ,1971 In Search of the Utopian States of America Verena Adamik,2020-12-01 This book endeavours to understand the seemingly direct link between utopianism and the USA discussing novels that have never been brought together in this combination before even though they all revolve around intentional communities Imlay s The Emigrants 1793 Hawthorne s The Blithedale Romance 1852 Howland s Papas Own Girl 1874 Griggs s Imperium in Imperio 1899 and Du Bois s The Quest of the Silver Fleece 1911 They relate nation and utopia not by describing perfect societies but by writing about attempts to immediately live radically different lives Signposting the respective communal history the readings provide a literary perspective to communal studies and add to a deeply necessary historicization for strictly literary approaches to US utopianism and for studies that focus on Pilgrims Puritans Founding Fathers as utopian practitioners This book therefore highlights how the authors evaluated the USA s utopian potential and traces the nineteenth century development of the utopian imagination from various perspectives *Select Works of the Late Rev. small circulation outlets have served the dual functions of representing the avant garde of literary expression while also helping many emerging writers become established authors Although changing technology and the increasingly harsh financial realities of publishing over the past three decades would seem to have pushed little magazines to the brink of extinction their story is far more complicated In this collection Ian Morris and Joanne Diaz gather the reflections of twenty three prominent editors whose little magazines have flourished over the past thirty five years Highlighting the creativity and innovation driving this diverse and still vital medium contributors offer insights into how their publications sometimes succeeded sometimes reluctantly folded but mostly how they evolved and persevered Other topics discussed include the role of little magazines in promoting the work and concerns of minority and women writers the place of universities in supporting and shaping little magazines and the online and offline future of these publications Selected contributors Betsy Sussler BOMB Lee Gutkind Creative Nonfiction Bruce Andrews L A N G U A G E Dave Eggers McSweeney s Keith Gessen n 1 Don Share Poetry Jane Friedman VQR Amy Hoffman Women s Review of Books and more
