Weisberger's popular painting The Birth of Our Nation's Flag a motherly figure sewing at the hearth. In fact as Jo Ann Menezes's analysis in Nostalgia Gender and Nationalism points out Ross was a widowed businesswoman who ran an upholstery shop out of her house. In Weisberger's painting all signs of economic industry are erased and Ross's house is transformed into a home rather than the site of cottage industry. Ross is constructed as the perfect heroic mother worthy of sacred creation thus our flag was born. Ross's transformation into an icon neatly illustrates the conjunction of soaring nationalism and the establishment of woman as a fixed domestic presence and serves as an excellent example of the master narratives revealed in Nostalgia Gender and Nationalism. The essays in this provocative anthology explore the connections between nation and gender and the ways in which nostalgia functions to bind these two presumably unrelated constructions together. Collectively they suggest that women pay a special fee on behalf of the nation even though it is traditionally represented as an honorarium given to them and that in fact the nation state takes as a foundational principle the subordination of women.

The Mind of the Novel Bruce F. Kavin, 2006 From Moby Dick to The Unnamable from A Tale of a Tub to The Book of Questions Bruce Kavin explores the nature of self-conscious fiction and compares its structure to that of human consciousness. Focusing on texts that confront their own limits by trying to name the unnamable the ineffable self Kavin draws on methods from literary criticism to systems theory to explain a variety of first person works that dance around the ungraspable subject.

Robert Wilson Maria Shevtsova, 2007-05-07 This book is a comprehensive study of the theatre work of Robert Wilson. It details his aesthetic principles and the elements of composition that distinguish his directorial approach and provides insight into how they operate through practical exercises. Public Library Catalog, 1972

Making Noise, Making News Mary Chapman, 2014 For most people the U.S. suffrage campaign is encapsulated by images of iconic nineteenth-century orators like the tightly coiffed Susan B. Anthony or the wimpled Elizabeth Cady Stanton. However as Mary Chapman shows the campaign to secure the vote for U.S. women was also a modern and print cultural phenomenon waged with humor, creativity and style. Making Noise Making News also understands modern suffragist print culture as a demonstrable link between the Progressive Era's political campaign for a voice in the public sphere and Modernism's aesthetic efforts to re-imagine literary voice. Chapman charts a relationship between modern suffragist print cultural noise and what literary modernists understood by making it new, asserting that the experimental tactics of U.S. suffrage print culture contributed to and even anticipated the formal innovations of U.S. literary modernism. Drawing on little-known archives and featuring over twenty illustrations Making Noise Making News provides startling documentation of Marianne Moore's closeted career as a suffrage propagandist, the persuasive effects of Alice Duer Miller's popular poetry column, Asian American author Sui Sin Far's challenge to the racism and classism of modern suffragism and Gertrude Stein's midcentury acknowledgement of intersections between suffrage discourse and literary modernism.
