Selected Poems 1960-92:

Selected Poems 1960-92 Stephen Gray, 1994 Lyrik S dafrika Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English
Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide In the Country of the Heart P. R. Anderson, 2004 Love poems written by South Africans and set in its police vans and bluegum trees its backyards and its bedrooms are collected in this anthology The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell, Dirk Kloppe, Craig Mackenzie, 2010-04-13 From the outset South Africa's history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party's policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele's call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country's literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945 Writing South Africa Derek Attridge, Rosemary Jolly, 1998-01-22 During the final years of the apartheid era and the subsequent transition to democracy South African literary writing caught the world's attention as never before Writers responded to the changing political situation and its daily impact on the country's inhabitants with works that recorded or satirised state enforced racism explored the possibilities of resistance and rebuilding and creatively addressed the vexed question of literature's relation to politics and ethics Writing South Africa offers a window on the literary activity of this extraordinary period that conveys its range going well beyond a handful of world renowned names and its significance for anyone interested in the impact of decolonisation and democratisation on the cultural sphere It brings together for the first time discussions by some of the most distinguished South African novelists poets and dramatists with those of leading commentators based in South Africa Britain and North America A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka s Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood s study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Engaging with Literature of Commitment. The Scottish Sixties Eleano Bell,2013-09-01 Although a number of publications have appeared in recent years marking the importance of the swinging sixties many tend to be personally reflective in nature and London centric in their coverage By contrast The Scottish Sixties Reading Rebellion Revolution addresses this misrepresentation and in so doing fills a gap in both Scottish and British literary and cultural studies Through a series of academic analyses based on archival records ephemera and work produced during the 1960s this volume focuses uniquely on Scotland In its concern with some of the key figures of Scottish cultural life the book considers amongst other topics the implications of censorship the role of little magazines in shaping cultural debates the radical nature of much Scottish literature of the time developments in the avant garde and the role of experiment in theatre film TV fine art and music International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications,2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson,Alice Entwistle,2005-05-19 Publisher Description The English Academy Review ,1995 Contemporary Literary Criticism ,1973 The International Who's Who of Women 2002 Elizabeth Sleeman,2001 Over 5 500 detailed biographies of the most eminent talented and distinguished women in the world today Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren,2008-05-01 Volume four of the Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren covers a crucial time of personal and professional rejuvenation in Warren s life During the fifteen year period spanned by this correspondence he completed Brother to Dragons Segregation The Inner Conflict in the South and Who Speaks for the Negro As these titles suggest these years were marked by Warren s immersion in American history and his maturing interest in race relations They also saw his return to lyric poetry after a ten year hiatus with the publication of the Pulitzer Prize winning collection Promises Along with seeing the completion of some of his most successful work this period was a time of momentous change in Warren s life including his move to Yale University his marriage to his second wife Eleanor and the birth of his two children As a chronicle of Warren s thoughts on his family his work his friends the state of literary studies and the culture at large these letters are invaluable Unlike many writers Warren rarely drafted his correspondence with future readers and scholars in mind he typically saved his prepared statements about the human condition and the state of the world for his poetry fiction and social commentary His letters offer a candid and personal glimpse of Warren s relationships as well as his personal views on literature politics and social trends Their recipients include Ralph Ellison Allen Tate Saul Bellow Robert Lowell Eudora Welty and Louis Rubin as well as Warren's editors reviewers collaborators and other friends Providing an unusually vivid and personal account of Warren's rich and fully realized life these missives are equally revealing of his thoughts on the state of contemporary American culture during this dynamic time in American history International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2008 Europa

Publications,2007-08-23 An invaluable source of information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world

Beyond Maximus Anne Day Dewey,2007 Beyond Maximus shows how field poetics influenced the construction of the public voices of five Black Mountain poets Charles Olson Robert Creeley Robert Duncan Denise Levertov and Ed Dorn in order to explain their association in the 1950s and 60s as well as their break up as a result of the political and poetic crises of the Vietnam War era Mexican Ballads, Chicano Poems José E. Limón,1992-07-24

Mexican Ballads Chicano Poems combines literary theory with the personal engagement of a prominent Chicano scholar Recalling his experiences as a student in Texas Jos Limón examines the politically motivated Chicano poetry of the 60s and 70s He bases his analyses on Harold Bloom's theories of literary influence but takes Bloom into the socio political realm Limón shows how Chicano poetry is nourished by the oral tradition of the Mexican corrido or master ballad which was a vital part of artistic and political life along the Mexican U S border from 1890 to 1930 Limón's use of Bloom as well as of Marxist critics Raymond Williams and Fredric Jameson brings Chicano literature into the arena of contemporary literary theory By focusing on an important but little studied poetic tradition his book challenges our ideas of the American canon and extends the reach of Hispanists and folklorists as well
