Selected Poetry:

Selected Poetry George Gordon Byron Baron Byron, John Wight Duff, 1904 Selected Poetry of Ebenezer Elliott Ebenezer Elliott, 2008 Ebenezer Elliott 1781-1849 is best known in literary history as the self-styled Corn Law Rhymers because of his savage satirical poems published in the 1830s. With detailed introduction and explanatory notes, this work is intended to bring Elliott's work into the public domain, directed at both students of the period and the general reader.

Selected Poems Robert Duncan, 1993 A collection of poetry deals with such topics as love, death, revelation, religion, humanity, and war. Selected Poems Galway Kinnell, 2001 This selection of poems by Pulitzer Prize winner Galway Kinnell shows how the traditional Christian sensibility of his early work gives way to the sacramental transfiguring dimension of the later poetry. Selected Poetry John Donne, 1998 John Donne 1572-1631 is perhaps the most important poet of the seventeenth century. In his day it seemed to his admirers that Donne had changed the literary universe and he is now widely regarded as the founder of the metaphysical school. Donne's poetry is highly distinctive and individual, adopting a multitude of rhythms, images, forms, and personae from irresistible seducer to devout believer. His greatness stems from the subtleties and ambivalences of tone that convey his remarkably modern awareness of the instability of the self. This collection of Donne's verse is chosen from the Oxford Authors critical edition of his major works. It includes a wide selection from his secular and divine poems such as the rebellious and libertine satires and love elegies, the virtuoso Songs and Sonnets, and the desperate, passionate Holy Sonnets. John Carey's introduction and extensive notes provide valuable insights into Donne's poetic genius.

Selected Poems Kenneth Patchen, 1957 Poems of humor, protest, love, and wonder by one of America's most original voices. Selected Poems James Tate, 1991-06-14 An award-winning gathering of exquisite poems by a celebrated poet.

Selected Poems Paul Éluard, 1988 Now back in print, this collection of poems by one of the most popular and best-loved poets in France whose famous poem Liberté was dropped on French towns by the RAF during World War II. This bilingual edition contains a representative selection of poems from different periods and different aspects of his vast output.

Selected Poems of Christina G. Rossetti Christina Georgina Rossetti, 1913 Selected Poems Walt Whitman, 1991 Presents twenty-four poems from Leaves of Grass including I Hear America Singing, I Sing the Body Electric, and O Captain, My Captain. The Selected Poetry & Prose of Shelley Percy Bysshe Shelley, 1994 This edition contains all Shelley's poetry from his juvenilia to his great works such as The Revolt of Islam and Ode to the West Wind, and his only completed verse drama The Cenci, a melodramatic Venetian tale of incest, murder, and revenge. David's Copy David

Meltzer, 2005-10-25 One of the most respected poets of the Beat and San Francisco Renaissance periods, David Meltzer has kept alive interest in the interface between jazz and poetry that exploded in the 1950s. This new edition of selected poems includes previously unpublished material and serves as a map to this very prolific and interesting poet. Selected Poetry and Drama Leah Goldberg, 2005 This collection features a new translation by Rachel Tzvia Back of a large selection of

Goldberg's poetry as well as T. Carmi's classic translation of her only work for the theatre The Lady of the Castle Karl Shapiro: Selected Poems Karl Shapiro, 2003-01-27 With this eye-opening new collection selected and introduced by John Updike, Karl Shapiro is restored to his place as one of his generation's freshest and most compelling voices. Here are Shapiro's essential poems: lyrical, iconoclastic, often bitingly funny. Karl Shapiro was an exuberant force in American poetry for more than half a century. This collection selected and introduced by John Updike reveals him as one of the enduring voices of his generation. Included are works drawn from more than a dozen of Shapiro's published volumes: early poems like Drug Store and Buick which revel in the ordinary life of his native Baltimore; selections from Essay on Rime, his tour de force on the craft of poetry; the dignified and moving lyrics written near the front lines in New Guinea; of V Letter and Other Poems for which he won the Pulitzer Prize in 1944; candid late musings on subjects like Kleenex, New York City, and Creative Writing. His feet planted on the substantive, Updike writes in his introduction, Shapiro could be modest and casual but also bold with the boldness of truth personally verified. Early and late, he was irreverent, down to earth, and always a master of his craft. Book jacket Contemporary American Poetry Lloyd M. Davis, 1985 Lists over 5200 titles of books published by American poets between 1973 and 1983 Migration William Stanley Merwin, 2005 Named one of the 100 Notable Books of the Year by The New York Times. Winner of the National Book Award for Poetry. Named by O as one of the 20 Books of Poetry Everyone Should Own. The poems in Migration speak a life-long belief in the power of words to awaken our drowsy souls and see the world with compassionate interconnection. National Book Award judges' statement: The publication of W. S. Merwin's selected and new poems is one of those landmark events in the literary world. Los Angeles Times: W. S. Merwin is the most influential American poet of the last half century, an artist who has transfigured and reinvigorated the vision of poetry for our time. Migration: New and Selected Poems is that case. This 540-page distillation selected by Merwin from fifteen diverse volumes is a gathering of the best poems from a profound body of work accented by a selection of distinctive new poems. As an undergraduate at Princeton University, Merwin was advised by John Berryman to get down on your knees and pray to the muse every day. Migration represents the bounty of those prayers. Over the last fifty years, Merwin's muse has led him beyond the formal verse of his early years to revolutionary open forms that engage a vast array of influences and possibilities. As Adrienne Rich wrote of Merwin's work: I would be shamelessly jealous of this poetry if I didn't take so much from it into my own life. W. S. Merwin is the author of over fifty books of poetry, prose, and translation. He lives in Hawaii where he raises endangered palm trees The Selected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Robinson Jeffers, 1938 This new Jeffers Selected Poetry includes poems from the last quarter century of his life; the previous Selected Poetry included poems only through 1937. It derives from the monumental five-volume The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Stanford 1988, 2000, edited by Tim Hunt and includes a sampling of the poems Jeffers left unpublished along with several prose pieces in which he reflects on his poetry and poetics Selected Poems Lee Gerlach, 2005 Lee Gerlach's Selected Poems is a rigorous culling from the life's work of a remarkable and prolific poet. Written over a period of fifty years, the poetry of Lee Gerlach is a full spectrum of human expression, vision, and experience. It reflects a wisdom and maturity of character that has been constant during the entire span of Gerlach's writing career. This selection, chosen by the poet, is the retrospective of a true twentieth-century American original. As Joseph Brodsky, the Nobel Laureate for Literature, said about Lee Gerlach's work: "This poetry is of tremendously high concentration and lucidity. Each one of Gerlach's poems constitutes as it were an autonomous self-contained world, a sort of biosphere or spacecraft, if you will, fully equipped for a long passage through the cosmos. It is a world indeed that every poet would love to create, I for one certainly would, and that every reader would love to inhabit." Lee Gerlach is the author of several collections of poetry. His work has appeared in numerous anthologies and journals, including The Paris Review, Partisan Review, and Poetry. He lives in San Diego. Selected Poems Robert Pinsky, 2025-06-25

Intense verbal music with a jazz feeling, invention against the grain of expectation, intelligence racing among materials with the variety of a busy street—these have been the qualities of Robert Pinsky's work since his first book, Sadness and Happiness (1975), celebrated for setting a new direction in American poetry. At that time, responding to a question about that book, Pinsky said, "I would like to write a poetry which could contain every kind of thing while keeping all the excitement of poetry." That ambition was realized in a new way with each of his books, including the book-length personal monologue An Explanation of America, the transformed autobiography History of My Heart, the bestselling translation The Inferno of Dante, and most recently the savage inventive Gulf Music. That variety and renewal are represented in this brilliantly chosen volume. Lydia Sigourney Lydia Sigourney, 2008-08-28

Lydia Huntley Sigourney (1791–1865) was the most widely read and respected pre-Civil War American woman poet in the English-speaking world. In a half-century career, Sigourney produced a wide range of poetry and prose envisaging the United States as a new kind of republic with a unique mission in history, in which women like herself had a central role. This edition contributes to the current recovery of Sigourney and her republican vision from the oblivion into which they were cast by the aftermath of the Civil War, the construction of a male-dominated American national literary canon, and the aesthetics of Modernism. In this Broadview edition, a representative selection of poetry and prose from across her career illustrates Sigourney's national vision and the diversity of forms she used to promote it. In the appendices, letters and documents illustrate her challenges and working methods in what she called her kitchen in Parnassus.
