Titanic Lives Rob Rondeau, 2012-04-16 The sinking of the Titanic on its maiden voyage in 1912 captured the world's attention a hundred years ago and still holds it today. Although it was bound for New York more than 100 passengers aboard the ocean liner were headed for Canada. Titanic Lives delves into the unique stories of ten of those passengers. Some were rich like railroad tycoon Charles Melville Hays and a scion of Montreal's Molson family. Others were not and would have been lost to history had they not been a part of this unforgettable story. From the scandalous romance between Montreal's Quigg Baxter and his French showgirl mistress to one woman's search for her toddler and husband as the life boats were being launched from the decks, this book gives its readers a glimpse into the lives of those who took that fateful voyage on the Titanic. You will hear about Paul Chevre, renowned French artist travelling to Montreal to reveal his latest sculpture and Arthur Peuchen, the wealthy chemist and lumber king whose last minute decision to board the Titanic turned him into both a hero and a target. Be it nursemaid, cabaret dancer or ex soldier, Rob Rondeau weaves together the unique and compelling stories of ten people sharing one common thread: they were all on board the Titanic, destination Canada. Selections from American Literature Leonidas Warren Payne, 1919

April 1912 everyone in lifeboat No 11 would be rescued Bridget McDermott had brought a new hat before she set off for America Bridget climbed into one of the lifeboats believed to be No 13 before realising she had left her precious purchase behind She climbed out of the lifeboat retrieved her hat from her cabin ran back to the open deck and jumped fifteen feet from a rope ladder onto the lifeboat Other garments played an important part in the survival of one of the lifeboats which sprung a leak with the people onboard using clothes to plug the hole Charles Joughin the head baker aboard Titanic floated in the near freezing ocean for around two hours before being pulled out of the water onto one of the lifeboats He had not succumbed to the cold due to the amount of alcohol he had drunk Masabumi Hosono a civil servant from Tokyo was the only Japanese passenger onboard Titanic and being a man he accepted that the women and children first policy had sealed his fate However when a crew member shouted that there were two spaces left in a lifeboat No 10 Hosono jumped in As Japanese honour considered it far better for a man to suffer an honourable death than to survive in a shameful manner when he reached his homeland he was ostracized by his family and lost his job When it sailed Titanic carried twenty lifeboats that between them could accommodate 1 178 people a little over half of the 2 209 on board the night the liner sank Eighteen of these life saving craft were used that night but tragically only 706 people found a space in them This is the dramatic and moving story of the men women and children who made it into the lifeboats that fateful night in April 1912 Schwann
