Selective Check Lists of Bibliographical Scholarship, Series B, 1956-1962 University of Virginia. Bibliographical Society, 1966 Selective Check Lists of Bibliographical Scholarship, 1956 A Reference Guide for English Studies

Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15 The Bibliographical Society of the University of Virginia David L. Vander Meulen, 1998

An Introduction to Bibliographical and Textual Studies Craig S. Abbott, William Proctor Williams, 2014-08-01 To a reader of Joyce's Ulysses it makes a difference whether one of Stephen Dedalus's first thoughts is 'No mother' as in the printed version or 'No mother' as in the manuscript. The scholarship surrounding such textual differences and why this discipline should concern readers and literary scholars alike is the focus of William Proctor Williams and Craig S. Abbott's acclaimed handbook. This updated fourth edition outlines the study of texts: composition, revision, physical embodiments, process of transmission, and manner of reception. It describes how new technologies such as digital imaging and electronic tagging have changed the way we produce, read, preserve, and research texts. It discusses why these matters are central to a historical understanding of literature and shows how the insights, methods, and products of bibliographical and textual studies can be applied to other branches of scholarship.

The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis, articulation, and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition. The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade, to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available, and to re-shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries. The New Cambridge
