Interpretations of Amos Oz's Writings Dorit Lemberger, 2023-05-01 Pragmatic Psychoanalytic Interpretations of Amos Oz's Writings Words Significantly Uttered presents intermediate links between three intellectual domains the literary works of Amos Oz American Pragmatism and object relations psychoanalysis The interdisciplinary method employed here involves a presentation of Oz's writings as the starting point for an existential debate that addresses a mental conceptual struggle This conceptual conflict which has been given aesthetic shape in the literary work inspires the presentation of central pragmatic and psychoanalytic concepts which contribute to a new and richer understanding of the conceptual tension or existential challenge The chapters interpret Oz's works not only as literary masterpieces but as existential philosophical expressions Dorit Lemberger's argues that Oz reconceptualizes psychological personal familial and often national processes in a way that allows readers to understand such processes in general life from a retrospective perspective Media and the Make-Believe Worlds of Children Maya Gotz, Dafna Lemish, Hyesung Moon, Amy Aidman, 2014-04-04 Media and the Make Believe Worlds of Children offers new insights into children's descriptions of their invented or make believe worlds and the role that the children's experience with media plays in creating these worlds Based on the results of a cross cultural study conducted in the United States Germany Israel and South Korea it offers an innovative look at media's role on children's creative lives This distinctive volume outlines the central debates and research findings in the area of children fantasy worlds and the media provides a descriptive account of children's make believe worlds and their wishes for actions they would like to take in these worlds highlights the centrality of media in children's make believe worlds emphasizes the multiple creative ways in which children use media as resources in their environment to express their own inner worlds and suggests the various ways in which the tension between traditional gender portrayals that continue to dominate media texts and children's wishes to act are presented in their fantasies The work also demonstrates the value of research in unveiling the complicated ways in which media are woven into the fabric of children's everyday lives examining the creative and sophisticated uses they make of their contents and highlighting the responsibility that producers of media texts for children have in offering young viewers a wide array of role models and narratives to use in their fantasies The downloadable resources provide full color images of the artwork produced during the study This book will appeal to scholars and graduate students in children and media early childhood education and developmental psychology It can be used in graduate level courses in these areas Assessing Family Relationships Theresa Beeton, Ronald Clark, 2019-05-28 Assessing Family Relationships shows mental health professionals how to utilize the Family Life Space Drawing the FLSD a family assessment tool that incorporates information from multiple family members while building connections between the clinician and the client In this manual Theresa A

Beeton and Ronald A Clark demonstrate the usefulness of the FLSD in both family and couple counseling. As a task centered assessment tool the FLSD enables an interactive and personalized process of counseling which helps individuals to express concerns and information about themselves in an indirect and nonthreatening manner. Chapters are illustrated throughout with case studies and drawings adapted from the authors own clinical experience and the manual offers an overview of the history of the FLSD as well as where future research is headed. Providing a practical explanation of how to complete the FLSD process, Assessing Family Relationships will be highly relevant to couple and family therapists as well as clinical social workers who are interested in updating their practice with innovative family assessment research and techniques.
