Self-evaluation for Primary Schools I. A. Rodger, J. A. S. Richardson, 1985 Looking at Our School Ireland. Department of Education and Science. Inspectorate. Evaluation Support and Research Unit, 2003-01-01 Self-Evaluation for Primary Schools Kevin Bullock, 2005-04 The self evaluation pro formas can be used to shape classroom and management practice and curriculum leadership highlight gaps and ensure a consistent approach in a variety of contexts You will be able to use these in preparation for school inspections and to feed in formation into school improvement Areas covered include teaching and learning the role of the subject coordinator whole school development planning and performance management Reflection Michael Henley, 1985 School Improvement Through Performance Feedback A.J. Visscher, R. Coe, 2013-10-08 Internationally there is an increasing trend to publish and feed back information to schools and teachers on their functioning School improvement is often the central goal though accountability and the promotion of parental student school choice also play an important role Practical initiatives and research in this field have often failed to recognize the full complexity of improving schools through school performance feedback Relevant questions are for example to what extent the information fed back to schools is valued and understood by them the school performance feedback enables appropriate diagnosis and remediation to take place in schools the use of the feedback generates conflicts and tensions for teachers and administrators the features of the implementation process and school organization influence the utilization of school performance feedback systems schools do actually improve as a result of performance feedback and the feedback systems have unintended effects This book fills the gap by including a thorough conceptualization of school feedback as a performance enhancing mechanism and the prerequisites for utilizing this information in schools a typology of school performance indicators a review of the research on the impact of feeding back performance information to individuals and to organizations evidence on the process problems and impact of school performance feedback from an international variety of contexts Australia the Netherlands United Kingdom USA and reflections on these experiences within the theoretical framework leading to recommended strategies for school improvement through performance feedback OECD Reviews of Evaluation and Assessment in Education: Northern Ireland, United Kingdom Shewbridge Claire, Hulshof Marian, Nusche Deborah, Staehr Lars Stenius, 2014-01-16 This comprehensive review of Northern Ireland s educational evaluation and assessment framework finds a programme that is thoughtfully designed and which stands out internationally
