Shanghai Painters and Their World Walters Art Gallery (Baltimore, Md.),1991 Figuring the Body Lisa R. Claypool,2001 Art Worlds Roberta Wue,2014-12-09 The growth of Shanghai in the late nineteenth century gave rise to an exciting new art world in which a flourishing market in popular art became a highly visible part of the treaty port's commercialized culture Art Worlds examines the relationship between the city's visual artists and their urban audiences Through a discussion of images ranging from fashionable painted fans to lithograph illustrated magazines the book explores how popular art intersected with broader cultural trends It also investigates the multiple roles played by the modern Chinese artist as image maker entrepreneur celebrity and urban sojourner Focusing on industrially produced images mass advertisements and other hitherto neglected sources the book offers a new interpretation of late Qing visual culture at a watershed moment in the history of modern Chinese art Art Worlds will be of interest to scholars of art history and to anyone with an interest in the cultural history of modern China By focusing on objects sites social networks and technologies this elegantly conceived book enriches our understanding of art production and consumption in nineteenth century Shanghai The author makes masterful use of newspapers guidebooks diaries and advertisements as well as paintings to present readers with the compelling story of a city and its artists Tobie Meyer Fong author of What Remains Coming to Terms with Civil War in 19th Century China and Building Culture in Early Qing Yangzhou Rich in findings forensic in visual analysis and not least elegantly crafted Wue's book on painting printing and the social worlds of art in late Qing Shanghai is an exemplary contribution A must read volume Shane McCausland author of Zhao Mengfu Calligraphy and Painting for Khubilai's China Art and Artists of Twentieth-century China Michael Sullivan,1996 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope Chinese Ways of Seeing and Open-Air Painting Yi Gu,2021-02-01 How did modern Chinese painters see landscape Did they depict nature in the same way as premodern Chinese painters What does the artistic perception of modern Chinese painters reveal about the relationship between artists and the nation state Could an understanding of modern Chinese landscape painting tell us something previously unknown about art political change and the epistemological and sensory regime of twentieth century China Yi Gu tackles these questions by focusing on the rise of open air painting in modern China Chinese artists almost never painted outdoors until the late 1910s when the New Culture Movement prompted them to embrace direct observation linear perspective and a conception of vision based on Cartesian optics The new landscape practice brought with it unprecedented emphasis on perception and redefined artistic expertise Central to the pursuit of open air painting from the late 1910s right through to the early 1960s was a reinvigorated and ever growing urgency to see suitably as a Chinese and to see the Chinese homeland correctly Examining this long overlooked ocular turn Gu not only provides an innovative perspective from which to reflect on complicated interactions of the global and local in China but also calls for rethinking the nature of visual modernity there

The Art of Modern China Julia F. Andrews, Kuiyi Shen, 2012-09-24 In the early twenty first century China occupies a place on center stage in the international art world But what does it mean to be a Chinese artist in the modern age This first comprehensive study of modern Chinese art history traces its evolution chronologically and thematically from the Age of Imperialism to the present day Julia Andrews and Kuiyi Shen pay particular attention to the dynamic tension between modernity and tradition as well as the interplay of global cosmopolitanism and cultural nationalism This lively accessible and beautifully illustrated text will serve and enlighten scholars students collectors and anyone with an interest in Asian art and artists

Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs Christine Velde, 2016-08-03 Although there have been many discussions about challenges faced by individuals going through East to West migrations there are few literary accounts about those moving from the West to the East Yet these migrations are becoming more frequent now due to advances in technology and the fact that a writer s work can now involve an increasingly global audience One way of expressing these challenges is through writing memoirs

Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs exemplifies the craft of memoirs written while living in a foreign country and explains how this is different from writing from home The book is a theoretical analysis of xenotropism based on the work of three prominent writers in China s history Emily Hahn Nien Cheng and Qiu Xiaolong The author explores the relationship between xenotropism turning towards foreign ideals and practices its complexities and challenges and the writing of a memoir and its impact on mental health This discourse will contribute to new knowledge in the field of creative writing and Asian studies by illustrating how xenotropism or turning towards foreign ideals and practices results in both personal and artistic development and builds an understanding and acceptance of different cultures within an individual These processes of change and understanding in turn facilitate the writing of a memoir which is a cathartic process having a positive effect on one s mental state Readers interested in creative writing or Asian literary studies will be able to understand the creative process behind writing memoirs from a combination of personal research based literary and theoretical perspectives

Harper's New Monthly Magazine Henry Mills Alden, 1854 Harper s informs a diverse body of readers of cultural business political literary and scientific affairs

Transforming Traditions in Modern Chinese Painting Jason C. Kuo, 2004 Modern Chinese painting embodies the constant renewal and reinvigorations of Chinese civilization amidst rebellions reforms and revolutions even if the process may appear confusing and bewildering It also demonstrates the persistence of tradition and limits of continuities and changes in modern Chinese culture Most significantly it compels us to ask several important questions in the study of modern Chinese culture How extensively can cultural tradition be re interpreted before it is subverted At what point is creative re invention an act of betrayal of tradition How has selective borrowing from Chinese tradition and foreign culture enabled modern Chinese artists to sustain themselves in the modern world By focusing on the art of Huang Pin hung 1865 1955 particularly his late work this book attempts to provide some answers to these questions Harper's New Monthly Magazine ,1855 Look Japan ,2001 Geek in China Matthew B. Christensen,2016-11-15 For every fan of kung fu steamed dumplings Confucius and giant skyscrapers A Geek in China is a hip smart and concise guide to the Middle Kingdom Packed with photographs and short articles on all aspects of Chinese culture past and present A Geek in China introduces readers to everything from Taoism and Confucianism to pop music and China s new middle class A mix of traditional culture such as highlights of Chinese history great historical and mythological figures traditional medicine how the Chinese language works real Chinese food martial arts and how the Chinese Communist Party works is complimented with information on what makes China unique today Chapters discuss why China is so crowded what it s like to work in an office internet and cell phone culture dating and marriage practices top popular movies and movie stars the contemporary art scene China s amazing new architecture and infrastructure and popular holidays It also contains chapters on what makes the Chinese tick such as the importance of harmony in society the practice of humility and the importance of hierarchy For visitors to the country the author includes sections on what to see both common cultural sites and off the beaten track sites and how to get around in China Sections on visiting Hong Kong and Taiwan are also included This China travel guide is a unique guide to the world s most populous and longest continuous culture Readers will learn essential information about China s past and present to be able to understand the many references to history politics and pop culture that come up in everyday conversation and in the media Beijing and Shanghai Paul Mooney,Andrew Forbes,Andrew D. W. Forbes,2013 This book is a description and travel guidebook of Beijing and Shanghai in China It will assist travellers with their itinerary and plans The Golden Key: Modern Women Artists and Gender Negotiations in Republican China (1911-1949) Amanda Wangwright,2021-08-16 The first monograph devoted to women artists of the Republican period The Golden Key recovers the history of a groundbreaking yet forgotten force in China s modern art world Through its detailed examination of the lives and careers of six female artists Guan Zilan Qiu Ti Pan Yuliang Fang Junbi Yu Feng and Liang Baibo this book argues that women were central to the emergence of modernist art in early twentieth century China and to the nation s larger modernization project Amanda S Wangwright s analysis of a wealth of primary sources demonstrates how these women constructed public personas negotiated space within art societies applied feminist thought to their artistic praxis and surmounted obstacles to their careers wielding art as the golden key to professional advancement and gender equality Global Art in Local Art Worlds Oscar Salemink,Amélia Siegel Corrêa,Jens Sejrup,Vibe Nielsen,2023-03-30 This book explores the attribution and local negotiation of cultural valuations of artistic and art institutional practices around the world and considers the diverse ways in which these value attributions intersect with claims of universality and cosmopolitanism Taking Michael Herzfeld s notion of the global hierarchy of value as point of departure the volume brings together six empirical studies of the collection circulation classification and exhibition of objects in present day Brazil China India Japan South Africa and Indigenous Australia in light of Europe's loss of global hegemony Including reflections by a number of senior scholars the chapters demonstrate that the question of valuation lies at the heart of artistic and art institutional practices writ large including museum practices museum architecture galleries auction houses art fairs and biennales The Literary Field of Twentieth Century China Michel Hockx, 2019-05-08 At least since the late nineteenth century onwards Chinese literature as a form of cultural production has been taking place within a specific social space including writers critics journalists editors publishers printers and booksellers Focusing on people as well as on texts and looking at what writers did as well as at what they wrote the essays in this volume draw a vivid and variegated picture of Chinese literary life throughout the modern period The book treats differences between periods but also traces the continuities that have characterised modern Chinese literary practice and its discourses from the beginning to the present including ties of allegiance utilisation of the people and appropriation of the west The book places modern Chinese literature firmly within its socio historical context thereby increasing the reader's awareness of the hidden assumptions behind literary production In doing so it opens new perspectives on Chinese culture as a whole and on literature as a cosmopolitan concept China Monthly Review, 1925 Printers' Ink Monthly, 1924 A Century in Crisis Julia Frances Andrews, Kuiyi Shen, 1998 Between 1850 and today China has undergone an unprecedented series of shocks and transformations Published to accompany an exhibition at the Guggenheim Museum this book systematically explores 150 years of artistic production in China
