Shape Of Living Spiritual Directions For Everyday Life:

The Shape of Living David F. Ford, 2014-08-12 In an overwhelming world how can our lives be shaped to their greatest potential David F Ford examines the whirl of life today the endless information that inundates us and pervades our lives He serves up practical wisdom for coping creatively offering a vision of genuine Christian life that can face the best and worst of today's world

Digital Overwhelm Craig E. Mattson, 2024-07-30 Why does doing your job feel so flooded and so pointless at the same time Nobody knows better than millennial and Gen Z professionals how rapid technological development has inundated post pandemic work Organizational researcher Craig Mattson listens to their stories and builds a framework for coping with digital overwhelm at work This book won't tell you to declutter your digital life or to end capitalism now But what you can do suggests Professor Mattson is change how you attend to zones where technological disruption meets emotional pressure Calling these zones modes of communication this book urges you to practice mode switching Addressed to millennial and Gen Z professionals Digital Overwhelm draws on biblical wisdom literature to offer a primer on organizational communication Each chapter is followed by a short Mode Switch Workshop addressing questions such as how to survive the Zoom room how to write an email that sounds like you how to get unstuck when tools break down and how to get people to do things so you can too Even technologically disrupted organizations are more navigable than they feel if you know how to switch up your modes of communication

Crossing Thresholds Timothy Carson, Nigel Rooms, Lisa Withrow, Rosemary Fairhurst, 2021-01-01 The human transformation available at the limen literally the edge or threshold noticed across different cultures by anthropologists is at the heart of the Gospel Indeed the liminal place is the place of transformation and change par excellence We live in age of enormous and rapid change to which we do not yet see an end There is therefore a kairos moment here for the church to understand the importance of liminality through this unique book Reading this book will offer new lenses to understand humanity God's world the shape of Christian discipleship the church and its mission differently The authors believe engaging with liminality can help both readers faith and the church to be re imagined and have included case studies exercises and questions in each chapter to help this process

Clinician's Guide to Self-Renewal Robert J. Wicks, Elizabeth A. Maynard, 2014-03-13 Providing clinicians with advice consistent with the current emphasis on working from strengths to promote renewal this guide presents a holistic approach to psychological wellness Time tested advice is featured from experts such as Craig Cashwell Jeffrey Barnett and Kenneth Pargament With strategies to renew the mind body spirit and community this book equips clinicians with guidance and inspiration for the renewal of body mind community and spirit in their clients and themselves

The Living Church, 1999 Kingdom Come Jason Byassee, Jeremy Kidwell, Jonathan Wilson-Hartgrove, Leah Wilson-Hartgrove, 2022-09-19 For four decades the Rev Dr Jonathan R Wilson has cultivated an imagination for kingdom realism as a pastor teacher theologian and friend To celebrate his seventieth birthday Kingdom Come has gathered reflections from fellow theologians popular authors poets and practitioners to mark both the range of Wilson's influence on the Christian church and the consistency of his prayer and work for God's kingdom to come here on earth as it is in heaven Pastor William H. Willimon, 2002 Examines the roles of the pastor Focuses on the pastor as preacher counselor teacher interpreter of scripture evangelist prophet leader and role model

Scattered and Gathered Neil Hudson, 2019-06-20 How can the local church empower people to live faithfully and fruitfully for Christ in their Monday to Saturday lives How can what happens on Sundays and in midweek groups equip and sustain God's people for the opportunities and challenges that present themselves in the places where they are each day What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus What sort of churches grow these sort of disciples What sort of leaders serve these sort of churches These are challenges that LICC London Institute of Contemporary Christianity have been successfully helping churches address with training events resources and tools Scattered and Gathered is the follow up book to Imagine Church 2012 This new book will enable church leaders to grow churches that help people know what it means to serve the purposes of God on their front lines It's a book that is based on the latest of LICC's thinking and methods of supporting churches with their practice of ministry Each chapter will help church leaders to move past good intentions into knowing how the practices of their church will lead to the development of confident front line focused disciples Providing a resource that leaders can use with wider church leadership teams small group leaders and pastoral workers It will ensure that local churches are able to keep the contexts of their church communities central to their mission planning and practice Scattered and Gathered offers a clear vision of what it means to be the people of God guides in reflecting on the shape and culture of church life and then explores what that means for the leadership styles and expectations of those who have that responsibility This is a book that will further develop the conversation about churches being communities that shape us for our scattered living Wisdom from Babylon Gordon T. Smith, 2020-10-13 What does it mean to provide leadership for the church in an increasingly secular context Analyzing the phenomenon of secularization in the West and charting common Christian responses this indispensable resource from Gordon Smith discusses the competencies and capacities essential for cultivating distinctively Christian leadership today Essays Anglican and Analytic Robert MacSwain, 2025-04-17 Explore the riches at the intersection of Anglican and philosophical theology In this thought provoking essay collection Robert MacSwain explores important connections between Anglican and philosophical theology Shining a spotlight on the underappreciated theological work of Austin Farrer and David Brown he brings them into creative conversation with better known figures such as Joseph Butler C S Lewis Stanley Hauerwas and Eleonore Stump He skillfully leads readers through diverse conceptual territory ranging from the Reformed epistemology of Alvin Plantinga and Nicholas Wolterstorff to the hiddenness argument of J L Schellenberg to a sacramental vision of human culture and the arts More broadly MacSwain outlines what he calls Critical Catholicism explaining how it differs from other movements in contemporary Christian thought such as Radical Orthodoxy and Analytic Theology These perceptive essays will be of particular interest to scholars and pastors who are curious about connections between theology philosophy and Anglican studies The Cambridge Companion to Postmodern Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2003-07-31 Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without Unfettered Hope Marva J. Dawn, 2003-03-31 In this prophetic call to faithful Christian living Marva Dawn identifies the epidemic socio cultural attitudes that destroy hope in our modern lives Because affluent persons don't know what to value how to choose what's important and weed out the rest we remain dissatisfied with what we have and are compelled to want more Dawn demonstrates however how Christians can organize their lives to live in ways that allow them to love God and neighbor and in the process alleviate the despair in their lives and in the lives of others in the world Theology and the Mirror of Scripture Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Daniel J. Treier, 2015-12-09 In this inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Daniel J Treier and Kevin J Vanhoozer set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church's vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship The Faces of Forgiveness F. LeRon Shults, Steven J. Sandage, 2003-05-01 While forgiveness has historically been regarded as a religious concern it has also become a popular topic in contemporary psychology Unfortunately there has been little effort to combine a Christian understanding of forgiveness with psychology The Faces of Forgiveness winner of the Narramore Award from the Christian Association for Psychological Studies steps in to fill this void The authors fuse Christian forgiveness and psychology with the unifying motif of the face thereby building on the considerable psychological research linking emotions related to forgiveness with the human face At a deeper level the face can serve as a metaphor for integrating forgiveness wholeness and salvation The authors argue that forgiveness should take a central role in our understanding of salvation because it is warranted by the Bible and engages our postmodern context Pastors psychologists family counselors and students of psychology and theology will find The Faces of Forgiveness a helpful resource

Stewards of God's Delight Mark Clavier, 2015-12-17 The world is our parish and all her creatures our congregation Based on talks given to ordinands in Wales this book presents the ministry as responding to God's call to be priestly stewards of creation and to participate in the blossoming of the new creation Clavier engages with Scripture and people such as Augustine Anselm Bernard of Clairvaux Bonaventure Julian of Norwich Lancelot Andrewes George Herbert C S Lewis N T

Wright and Rowan Williams to portray the whole ministry of God's people as being animated by the generosity freedom delight and love of God Our understanding of the ministry must break free from managerial philosophy and business know how to recapture an approach to ministry that seeks to delight in God neighbors and all of creation in order to reveal the depth of God's love to a world increasingly immersed in mass consumption The Grammar of Grace Kent Eilers, Ashley Cocksworth, Anna M. Silvas, 2019-06-11 This anthology is a collection of readings on the Christian life They were carefully selected from every era of history and from across the spectrum of Christian traditions They include letters sermons treatises and disputations poems songs and hymns confessions biblical commentary and even part of a novel In each case the subject is life with God life in God life for God life infused and enlivened by God's grace The editors introduce each selection highlighting relevant aspects of the author's biography spirituality and historical context Introductions are also provided for the major eras of the church which present theological historical and cultural perspectives to help the reader best engage the selections For individuals and groups classrooms and seminars this collection will generate dialogue between past and present and between traditions familiar and unfamiliar It is not merely a book on the Christian life but for the Christian life making yesterday's witness to life with God a resource for the Church today Things That Matter William W. Emilsen, Patricia Curthoys, 2025-04-25 Often theological colleges are the site of tension between the aspirations of the overall institution of the church and the goals of the particular college itself While they are usually the first called upon to solve the numerous problems facing the modern church yet just as likely they are criticized for being too academic too out of touch with contemporary society and too expensive A fair reading of the ten essays in Things That Matter will refute or at the very least question these criticisms The authors of this inspiring collection although far from uncritical clearly show that since 1999 when United Theological College the Uniting Church's premier college in New South Wales became part of Charles Sturt University's School of Theology there have been great benefits for students faculty the church and the broader community Heidegger, Bonhoeffer and the Concept of Home in Christian Youth Work Phoebe Hill, 2022-05-25 This book explores what it means to be and become at home in theological perspective located in the context of a youth club Drawing on ethnographic research Phoebe Hill presents an account of what an authentic Christian hospitality could look like in a youth setting and the ways in which the young people the strangers at the door might enable the Christian youth worker to become more fully at home Discourses around Christian hospitality often unwittingly perpetuate implicit power imbalances The youth club offers a context for Christian hospitality that tips the power in favour of the young people who attend enabling the youth leaders to share and create home with young people in a distinctive way As young people leave the Church in droves the Church faces the urgent and daunting task of finding new ways of being with young people on their own terms this book offers one solution Hill argues that homecoming is an essential task of humanity We are connected in this common pilgrimage and the need to find places and spaces where we can be at home Becoming at home may be harder than ever before numerous sociological philosophical and theological factors are compromising our ability to dwell in the contemporary world Rest Siang-Yang Tan,2003 Come to Me all you who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest Bringing a distinctly Christian perspective to the subject of finding true rest in the midst of daily pressures Siang Yang Tan diagnoses what ails us and provides thoroughly practical steps to help us respond to Jesus invitation In this book Siang Yang Tan draws from a richness of experience to write with warmth and compassion Since he himself knows the difficulty of slowing down in these hyperactive times he is able to give practical guidelines to others drawn from a wealth of information found in the Scriptures empirical research and psychological reports If rest is not easy for you to put into practice learn from an author who is growing at a healthy pace and willing to bring others along on the journey from the Foreword by Dr Gary R Collins SIANG YANG TAN is professor of psychology at Fuller Theological Seminary He also serves as Senior Pastor of First Evangelical Church in Glendale California He has authored or co authored eight previous books including Disciplines of the Holy Spirit and Understanding Depression He is an associate editor of The Journal of Psychology and Christianity
