Shaping A Professional Identity:

Shaping a Professional Identity F. Michael Connelly, D. Jean Clandinin, 1999 Working with a group of teacher researchers Connelly and Clandinin address the question of how professional identities are formed The volume includes richly textured stories of professional lives in teacher administrative and curriculum making settings These thoroughly readable autobiographical depictions help unravel the narrative interweavings of professional contexts teacher knowledge and teacher identity Authors insightful interpretations of these stories provide valuable implications for teacher education professional development and progressive school change Shaping a Professional Identity Dorothy Jean Clandinin, F. Michael Connelly, Applebaum, Sheila Dermer, 1999

The Development of Professional Identity in Higher Education Myint Swe Khine, Abdulghani Muthanna, 2024-02-20 In this book first hand accounts from academics and practitioners explore the concept of professional identity development in the context of higher education and provide guidance to develop and enhance professionalism The Development of Professional Identity in Higher Education presents a new understanding of identity development Highlighting the importance of building positive identities in the development of a professional career it argues for a reframing of the way academics think of themselves suggesting the role of practitioner as one in which there is a continuous need to develop their professionalism as it connects to their daily practices and different identities With contributions from a range of international authors it demonstrates how professional development can change our beliefs and perceptions of the profession itself whether it be through on the job instruction aimed at making teachers researchers better or through self learning whereby teachers and researchers learn to develop and enhance their teaching and research competency through daily activities and self analysis This book will be of great interest to researchers and graduate and postgraduate students in teacher education and professional development

Professional Identity and Social Work Stephen A.
