Shared Stories From Daughters Of Alzheimers Writing A Path To Peace:

Shared Stories from Daughters of Alzheimer's Persis Granger, 2004 Shared Stories from Daughters of Alzheimer's is a support group in print for those escorting a loved one on the Alzheimer's journey. Nine women map the passage of a parent through Alzheimer's disease, describing the evolution of their own emotional responses to the disease and the changes it effects in the patient and in her relationship with family members. The book invites the reader to take a first step in healing from Alzheimer's ripple effect by beginning to journal about the experience. Use the stories here as tools to understand your own painful situation. Employ them to help you empower yourself, sort through your emotions, and begin to heal. Seize upon that which makes sense to you and disregard that which seems irrelevant. Then pick up your favorite pen and notebook and talk about what is going on in your journey with Alzheimer's disease. We wish you well. Persis Granger, Editor. Shared Stories from Daughters of Alzheimer's. An enthralling, ambitious, and much needed effort, most definitely the sort of work on Alzheimer's that needs to get public notice. The author wrote the book not only to tell the story but to also reach out and share what they both learned along the way. Her mother lived with her family for eleven years and began developing dementia that slowly grew into Alzheimer's over this time. Eventually her mother needed nursing home care. The author spent over twenty-five years as a teacher of communication skills and psychological consultant to Hospices in the Chicago area and offered her services as an end of life counselor and grief counselor. She was a psychotherapist for the same period of time. She had developed many skills that helped her be with her mother in a positive way, but there were many things to learn that she did not know about in walking through the many years together in the stages often called the big forgetting. Her book details the stages that she her husband and her mother took together as they walked through the months weeks and days of eight years of forgetting The author and her mother had a close and friendship based relationship and had shared over many years conversations about books friends politics and family There was no loss as great as the ones that came about when her mother could no longer see to read could not remember the grandchildren s names and could no longer share a cup of tea with her daughter and simply talk the good talk of women everywhere Because of these losses the author Elizabeth Pannier began to keep a journal documenting conversations experiences laughter poetry sadness and finally the shared silences Because of the way in which their last years together evolved this memoir is written in the form of letters addressed to her mother Each chapter begins Dear Mother and then continues as it revolves around a particular theme The book is drawn on these journal entries and shared experiences and reads well Some of the themes are Forgetting Losing Oneself Nursing Homes Learning to Listen Reflections Falling Shadows and Letting Go The book is short and yet helpful and supportive to the reader Responses to this book have been positive and supportive It is helpful for people beginning to walk their own journey with a loved one at this stage of life It is profoundly helpful for those people who are grieving the loss of a loved one from this dementia path and it is a great help for those who are aging and desire to share a talk about the possibility of Dementia and Alzheimer s and what they would like their children to know about their wishes This is not a how to book It is a poignant truthful accounting of one mother and one family who loved her and cared for her throughout her final days and learned that each day is special In the end both her mother and the author moved through the final years in a positive way and that is one of the facts of living that they learned over and over again It continues to be the author s desire that this story of Walking Together will be of help to others who find themselves in the beginning middle or ending stages of walking with a beloved through this final journey assisting them with the process of acceptance and letting go of any fear Each moment is life and an opportunity for love and it is one way to walk together through the great forgetting

Parallel Journeys Wanda Burse, 2017-11-24 During the years of progressive struggle and decline Wanda kept journals of her experience as a means of coping with the frustration and heartache These documents served as the raw material for Parallel Journeys a memoir that is not only about Alzheimer's and its victims but the experiences of the family as well who must watch and care for a loved one as they fade away From the first symptoms to the inevitable end Wanda offers her story in a series of personal vignettes bravely revealing how Alzheimer's devastates the individuals it touches To those readers who have endured the disease in their family these moments will be all too familiar However in sharing her private experiences and deepest feelings Wanda shows us how it is possible to go through the darkness and survive Mixed in with the pain and sadness are glimmering gems of insight that teach us how to cope and maintain faith in the midst of suffering and doubt There are stories with Wanda and her mother that will make you laugh as well as those that will make you cry joy and suffering are both parts of life as Wanda beautifully and painfully explores Tender emotional and courageous Parallel Journeys serves an invaluable resource for anyone connected to the tragedies of Alzheimer's and dementia

Alzheimer's: A Mother-Daughter Journey Celia Pomerantz, 2011-09-21 Alzheimer's A Mother Daughter Journey is a photojournalistic memoir about a daughter's experience as primary caregiver to her late mother who was afflicted with Alzheimer's disease Ambushed by the demands of caregiving author photographer Celia Pomerantz anchored herself by developing a series of compassionate mission statements to meet each phase of the disease Like many caregivers her journey begins with the struggle of convincing her mother to move out of her home and into an assisted living facility Shortly after taking that courageous step she finds creative ways to manage her mother's daily living activities like showering swallowing pills and general hygiene Using the guiding principle she calls Safety and Happiness Celia learns how to make thoughtful decisions about her mother's medications family holidays and effective communication and collaboration with the staff at her mother's facility As the disease progresses her mission statement also changes At the end of this mother daughter journey Celia relies heavily on the guidance she formulates from the mission statement she calls Peace and Simplicity It is here that we discover how she keeps connected to her mother beyond words This book will change your outlook on caregiving by giving you practical tips on how to convert an otherwise stressful responsibility to a period populated with beautiful and memorable moments It is the hope of author photographer Celia Pomerantz that Alzheimer's A Mother Daughter Journey finds itself in the hands of caregivers whose daily struggles and fatigue contribute to their deep fear of being incompetent and very alone in their endeavors In this light she asks her readers to kindly pass this book on to another caregiver or a local Alzheimer's support group These stories are meant to be shared

Before My Eyes Dianne Currie, 2010-04-02 Imagine the heart wrenching devastation that is experienced by a family when a parent is diagnosed with Alzheimers disease In Before My Eyes author Diane Currie shares her candid and personal reflections about her mothers struggle with this disease as she copes with the reality of the present but always honors the memory of the past Through a series of moving vignettes she remains connected with her mother in a creative way as the strong bond between them slowly dissolves as the disease progresses From the first moment of her mothers diagnosis Currie conveys in a captivating manner the intense feelings of loss and hopelessness one experiences when dealing with this dreadful disease She is able to portray the subtle changes in her mothers behavior and personality throughout her decline all in a deeply human way While Before My Eyes describes one familys touching and painful journey in essence Curries reflective account may typify the Alzheimers experience while offering support and validation to all those who walk its arduous path
