Leadership as Service Kent A. Farnsworth, 2006-12-30 This provocative and readable discussion of leadership in higher education argues that leadership is essentially an act of service that the more responsible the leadership position the greater the responsibility to serve Weaving together the Servant Leadership philosophy of Robert Greenleaf with the management principles of Mary Parker Follett Farnsworth presents a model for 21st century educational leadership that calls upon college administrators to see themselves as servants first He argues that the voices and interests of many of education s key stakeholders students employers and society as a whole have been marginalized by a consolidation of power in the faculty requiring a bold new approach to leadership that refocuses service to these important but underrepresented constituents

Survival Or Revival Carnegie Samuel Calian, 1998-01-01 Carnegie Calian challenges churches and their members to become committed to their own success and to take ownership of their future He identifies ten keys to congregational vitality including biblical literacy prayer knowledge and forgiveness and suggests that these become the cornerstone of a holistic approach to congregational vitality Where Parallels Intersect Eli Cohen, Transforming Wisdom Felicity Kelcourse,K. Brynolf Lyon,2015-10-09 Transforming Wisdom offers an extensive multidisciplinary introduction to pastoral psychotherapy from some of the most respected practitioners in the field With special attention to theological perspectives on the practice of psychotherapy this collection of essays will be useful to students seeking an orientation to the art and science of pastoral psychotherapy as well as to seasoned professionals looking to refresh and renew their practice As the subtitle Pastoral Psychotherapy in Theological Perspective suggests this book is intended to represent the field of pastoral psychotherapy as a mental health discipline that maintains intentional dialogue with its theological roots Even as pastoral psychotherapy has developed from the ancient notion of the cure of souls to the current search for a psychology of happiness therapists grounded in faith communities seek a practice that is respectful of all persons mindful of the deep wisdom that emanates from the true self or soul While many contributors write from a psychoanalytic or psychodynamic perspective grounded in Christian theological idioms diverse theoretical perspectives including Emotionally Focused Couples Therapy Narrative Therapy Buddhist Mindfulness and Jungian understanding of individuation are represented Youth Futures Jennifer Gidley,Sohail Inayatullah,2002-08-30 How do young people see the future Are they optimistic or pessimistic Do their views vary from culture to culture Are young people actively engaged in creating their desired futures or are they passively receiving the future What effect has globalization on youth culture How is the future taught in schools These and many other questions are dealt with in this volume of comparative empirical research from around the world on how youth see the future Generally youth are considered immature irresponsible toward the future cliquish impressionistic and dangerous toward self and others They are considered as a mass market two billion strong the passive recipients of globalization Most recently in OECD nations youth have become fodder for political speeches they are the problem that reflects both the failure of the welfare state dependence on the state the failure of globalization unemployment and postmodernism loss of meaning and the crisis of the spirit In the Third World youth are seen not only as the problem but equally as the force that can topple a regime as in Yugoslavia However youth can also be seen as carriers of a new worldview a new ideology These and other views concerning youth are examined in this volume of comparative empirical research Studies from around the world provide intriguing answers to questions about how youth see the future and their future roles This book will be of particular interest to scholars students researchers and policymakers involved with youth issues and future studies The Professional Edge James S. Bowman,Jonathan P. West,Margo Berman,Montgomery Van Wart,2016-04-29 The new context and character of public service shifting values entrepreneurship information technology multi sector careers require enhanced technical ethical and leadership skills This concise and readable work describes what it means to be a consummate professional public servant It sets standards for everyone who conducts the public s business and links them with performance management human resource administration and information technology skills The authors identify the ethical foundations of public service and how to integrate them in practice They also address individual leadership what it means and how it is based on a foundation of technical and ethical skills Filled with original illustrative examples and case studies from government the non profit sector and business The Professional Edge is an ideal supplement for any introductory course in Public Administration or Ethics in the Public Service

Subversive Spirituality L Paul Jensen,2011-06-30 Subversive Spirituality links the practice and study of Christian spirituality with Christian mission It develops a twofold thesis grace spiritual disciplines and mission practices are inseparably linked in the mission of Jesus of the early church and of several historical renewal movements as well as in a contemporary field research sample and amidst the collapse of space and time evidenced by our culture s increasingly hurried pace of life more time and space are needed for regular solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures if Christian mission is to transform people and culture in our time This requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word Specifically Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus the early church the apostolic fathers Origen the Devotio Moderna the early Jesuits David Brainerd and several women in 19th century Protestant missions He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960 Based on the theological historical cultural and field analyses of this study a model for spirituality and mission is proposed The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras Jensen s model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy which also has application for non formal leadership development structures is also proposed
