Conference of the European Council on Pastoral Care and Counselling a network of organizations and individuals in the practice teaching or supervising of pastoral care and counselling in Europe The Cry of Tamar Pamela Cooper-White, 2013-06-24 In this comprehensive practical and gripping assessment of various forms of violence against women Pamela Cooper White challenges the Christian churches to examine their own responses to the cry of Tamar in our time She describes specific forms of such violence and outlines appropriate pastoral responses The second edition of this groundbreaking work is thoroughly updated and examines not only where the church has made progress since 1995 but also where women remain at unchanged or even greater risk of violence Pastoral Identity as Social Construction Samuel Park, 2017-09-15 How do chaplains and counselors form their identities as pastoral caregivers in challenging clinical contexts such as institutional interdisciplinary postmodern inter cultural and multi faith work environments This book is a product of the fifteen year long journey towards answering a well known but hardly answered question about pastoral identity Based on narratives of many pastoral practitioners who work in hospitals or counseling settings the author puzzles through ways for helping professionals to form their identities in bewildering work environments Previous studies on pastoral identity have focused on an individual interiority of pastoral practitioners and have emphasized mainly the caregivers perceptions and practices from a developmental and training perspective Grounded in an empirical study of active pastoral care providers this book presents pastoral identity as a relational and interactional property socially constructed among pastoral care partners culture and God Findings of the empirical study support contemporary theological and social psychological discourses identity is embedded in and embodied by relationships This book will guide you through confusions worries insights and woes you have experienced while helping others in order to envision yourself more clearly as a spiritually embodied and pastorally tending caregiver You will find yourself to be more who you are and engage more with others as they become who they are What Is Spiritual Care? Pamela Cooper-White, Claudia Kohli Reichenbach, Emmanuel Y. Lartey, 2025-05-15 What is spiritual care Much has been assumed as an answer to this question within particular professional and religious silos The contributors to this volume offer fresh answers from perspectives of different caregiving professions medicine nursing public health psychology pastoral care and pastoral theology different religious traditions Islam Judaism Christianity and Buddhism and different cultural contexts Certain red threads become apparent the importance of deep listening openness to difference willingness to recognize the importance of spiritual care as practiced in different professions and religions respect for the inherent dignity of every person and support for each individual s unique spiritual journey At the same time the diversity of voices makes clear both by juxtaposition and argumentation that the hegemony of a mid twentieth century white American Protestant tradition of pastoral care is being reevaluated contested expanded and even decolonized as voices formerly from the margins are being brought to the center and the spiritual needs of persons from many different traditions and locations are increasingly being met on their own terms. The cumulative impact of this work emphasizes that spiritual care is finally inseparable from larger efforts toward justice and peacemaking This is an invaluable resource for healthcare providers chaplains and pastoral professionals Braided Selves Pamela Cooper-White, 2011-06-10 What if we are more multiple as persons than traditional psychology has taught us to believe And what if our multiplicity is a part of how we are made in the very image of a loving relational multiple God How have modern Western notions of Oneness caused harm to both individuals and society And how can an appreciation of our multiplicity help liberate the voices of those who live at the margins both of society and within our own complex selves Braided Selves explores these questions from the perspectives of postmodern pastoral psychology and Trinitarian theology with implications for the practice of spiritual care counseling and psychotherapy This volume gathers ten years of essays on this theme by preeminent pastoral theologian Pamela Cooper White whose writings bring into dialogue postmodern feminist and psychoanalytic theory and constructive theology Accountability, Healing, and Trust Kimberly Hope Belcher, David A. Clairmont, 2025-01-17 By carefully listening to the words and wisdom of survivors this volume focuses on ways forward in the work of creating an atmosphere of accountability healing and trust in today s church In March of 2022 practitioners of psychology law and theology gathered at the University of Notre Dame for a major conference to explore practical strategies to increase accountability promote healing and rebuild trust in the life of the Catholic Church in the wake of the clergy sexual abuse crisis The essays in this volume share the fruits of those days spent reflecting on recent research on these challenging issues. The result is a hopeful resource in service to survivors and to those who minister with them through listening giving voice and bearing witness to the wounded body of Christ The challenges of addressing the range of problems caused by the abuse crisis are great affecting the work of ministry in profound ways From the training of future ministers lay and ordained to the exercise of the church's various ministries in parishes education and direct service the abuse crisis calls out for a response to the questions posed by abuse survivors and those who accompany and hope to serve them Organized around three themes accountability healing and trust the contributors to this volume probe the deepest understanding of the church's mission and name the most significant divisions in the response to the sexual abuse crisis By carefully listening to the words and wisdom of survivors this volume focuses on ways forward and treats clergy laypeople scholars and ministers as partners in the work of creating an atmosphere of accountability healing and trust in the post abuse revelation church Contributors include Melanie Susan Barrett Kimberly Hope Belcher Jennifer Beste Julia Canonico Peter Capretto David A Clairmont Tristan Cooley Anselma Dolcich Ashley Sarah Gallagher Kevin Grove CSC Gerard J McGlone SJ Marcus Mescher Bruce Morrill SJ Stacey Noem Ronald Patrick Raab CSC Hilary Jerome Scarsella Kenneth W Schmidt Eric T Styles Patrick J Wall J J Wright Connections Michael S. Koppel, 2021-08-03 A new articulation of pastoral theology care and counseling Too often we think and teach in ways that reinforce a mind body split This can lead people to self alienation impeding holistic healthy relationships between people God and each other Body Connections takes a different approach teaching us to see the connections between our embodied experience and faithful spiritual care Author Michael Koppel focuses on the human body and its relationship to faith and spiritual care He engages religious texts and traditions as well as scientific insights offering accessible theology and spiritual practices for healing and care of the body Our bodies are amazing resources but we are too often unaware of their power or unable to harness it in helpful ways for our own good This remarkable book empowers pastors counselors chaplains seminarians and caregivers to understand and provide the ministry of care in an entirely new life giving way This book is highly useful for individuals and groups It is for clergy chaplains spiritual directors seminarians clinical educators lay people in churches and those who are institutionally unaffiliated but care deeply about fostering a holistic spiritual path Praise for Body Connections Everything we think feel and do comes through the body But practices of spiritual care tend to downplay the body as a source of knowledge and a tool for responding to others and to God Koppel s book reclaims that wisdom coaching us to strengthen our abilities to read listen and think with the body I can t wait to teach this practical wise and convicting book which addresses embodied emotion grief silence trauma and more Koppel's seasoned pastoral voice offers a rich synthesis of sources and insights that demonstrate the body s place at the center of ministry Duane Bidwell professor of practical theology spiritual care and counseling Claremont School of Theology Claremont CA Body Connections provides new insights into the voice and language of the body Koppel crafts a body theology that encourages spiritual care practitioners to be proactive in their spiritual practices of listening adapting and responding to our bodies and to the bodies of those to whom we offer care Using the image of body as storyteller and other metaphors Koppel captures and defines the healing power of the body in clear and profound ways Bishop Teresa Jefferson Snorton D Min Presiding Bishop Fifth Episcopal District The CME Church Michael Koppel returns the body to its rightful place at the center of each person's story and the center of the Christian story He calls readers home to their bodies and gently challenges escapes from the body into hasty fixing detached rationalizing anxious dithering or addictive numbing At a time when the COVID pandemic has underscored the vulnerability of bodies Koppel's focused healing deep body consciousness paints a portrait of health far beyond mere absence of disease Don t just read this book absorb it practice it and let it heal you Douglas M Thorpe PhD is Executive Director of the Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care and a past president of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors It is surprisingly difficult even confusing to have a body to be a body to touch talk and listen to even read a sensing body to honor and restore the body s wounds traumas and shame while celebrating its healing and resilience Koppel is a wise guide and caregiver for those seeking to embrace the sacredness of a human body and its unique story Body Connections empowers a reader to discover body knowledge anew It deepens trust in the most intimate relationship one has the relationship with one s body Jaco J Hamman professor of religion psychology and culture and director of the Program iin Theology and Practice Vanderbilt University Nashville TN Human Development and Faith (Second Edition) Felicity B. Kelcourse, 2015-07-28 This book now in its second edition brings together the best available understandings of human development from a multidisciplinary perspective Uniquely inclusive of the moral and faith dimensions of context and life cycle development Human Development and Faith examines the interplay of mind body family community and soul at every stage of development It addresses two central questions What are the good enough conditions of parenting family and community in each phase of life from birth to death which support growth and development What gives life adequate meaning as development proceeds If human development describes the normative and hoped for passages of life then faith provides the necessary component of meaning Throughout the various perspectives offered in this volume is the premise that faith is that quality of living that makes it possible to fully live The Journal of Pastoral Theology called the first edition of Human Development and Faith an excellent text for pastoral theology courses because it fulfills its ambitious goal of bringing a holistic faith perspective to the usual topics of development This second edition includes a new chapter on infancy updates reflecting our growing awareness of cultural diversity and a new preface Beyond Intolerance Stella Adamma Nneji, 2018-04-20 There is no gainsaying the fact that the problem of religious intolerance has become a worldwide problem In todays pluralistic society the dialogical tension between openness and identity has become a major challenge for interreligious dialogue and peaceful co existence This tension is expressed in the guestion Can one maintain ones own religious identity without one closing oneself off from the other This question is central to the challenges posed on how religious education can contribute to sustainable peace in Nigeria and the world over In this book Stella Nneji critically assesses the various models of religious pedagogy mono religious multi religious and inter religious by asking how these models relate to the dialogical tension between openness and identity in Nigeriaa nation perceivably confronted with an enduring history of post colonial strife religious intolerance and violence The contention is that the mono religious and multi religious models which while dominant in current practice and in academia nevertheless fall short of expressing the authentic challenges and opportunities religious intolerance presents in Nigerian multi religious cultural context In this connection this book provides a clear notion of the theological foundation principles and framework of inter religious education and a practical guide for authentic dialogue in a plural context She calls for a paradigm shift for confessional religious pedagogy to a model of inter religious learning as incorporated within the hermeneutical communicative education On this basis the book proposes a new model for the role of religious education in Nigeria This model in a critical enculturated way attempts to recognize the tensions of authentic religious difference presupposing a broad spectrum of difference in the classroom in a way that also incorporates genuine religious encounters and expressions of identity

Exploring Practices of Ministry Pamela Cooper-White, Michael Cooper-White, 2014-12-01 Fortress Presss Foundations for Learning series prepares students for academic success through compelling resources that kick start their educational journey into professional Christian ministry In Exploring Practices of Ministry Pamela Cooper White and Michael Cooper White share insights from their extensive experience as parish ministers church agency executives and seminary educators in diverse multicultural and international contexts Pamela an Episcopal priest who teaches pastoral theology care and counseling is also a pastoral psychotherapist with an extensive clinical background Michael a Lutheran pastor and seminary president is also a pilot and flight instructor and has served as a chaplain with the Civil Air Patrol The authors share their wisdom with seminarians and other readers seeking to deepen theological reflection and expand skills as ministry practitioners While not all readers are preparing to be ordained ministers most will engage in many of the practices described in the book preaching and public speaking teaching leading liturgies conducting ceremonies counseling and offering pastoral support for persons undergoing life transitions and serving as organizational leaders in congregations chaplaincies social ministries and in the public arena This book is a companion journal for pilgrims on the way to becoming confident practitioners of ministry Teaching Sexuality and Religion in Higher Education Darryl W. Stephens, Kate Ott,2020-04-19 This volume combines insights from secular sexuality education trauma studies and embodiment to explore effective strategies for teaching sexuality and religion in colleges universities and seminaries Contributors to this volume address a variety of sexuality related issues including reproductive rights military prostitution gender fidelity queerness sexual trauma and veiling from the perspective of multiple religious faiths Christian Jewish and Muslim scholars present pedagogy and classroom strategies appropriate for secular and religious institutional contexts By foregrounding a combination of perspective transformation and embodied learning as a means of increasing students appreciation for the varied social psychological theological and cultural contexts in which attitudes to sexuality develop the volume posits sexuality as a critical element of teaching about religion in higher education This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students researchers academics and libraries in the fields of Religious Studies Religious Education Gender Sexuality Religion Education and Sociology of Religion From Nazareth to Skid Row: The Real Reality of Skid Row: Systemic and Homiletic Insights Rev. Jeffrey R. Thomas, PhD, 2014-08-28 The Real Reality of Skid Row A Practical Theology Perspective looks with an unblinking eye at the details of the lives of homeless people and uses the portraits that emerge as the perspective from which to think theologically about the challenges they face and calling the church hears to offer its witness to them Rev Jeffrey R Thomas PhD drawing upon his time serving as a pastor of a congregation in Skid Row Los Angeles sketches out the contours of individuals lives analyzes the personal and societal factors that contribute to their circumstances and suggests approaches for shaping the church's responses in both word and deed The First Gentleman Jacqueline Tuggle Taylor, 2012-05 Female leadership has been a topic of debate for centuries between theologians and laity Christians and non Christians as well as men and women This study will present a theological analysis of the debate concerning male and female roles in leadership positions and ministry An analysis of the role of the female pastor s spouse the effects of sexism in religion and how it has influenced the ecclesiology of the church will be examined as well Reflections of case studies employing biblical narratives of couples in the Bible will be used to substantiate the roles of women leaders and their spouses Each scenario identifies the particular role of the husband and the wife specifically when the wife is the spiritual leader Read with anticipation the outcome of biblical interpretation of the roles of the female leader and their Neuroplasticity, Performativity, and Clergy Wellness William D. Roozeboom, 2016-12-24 This book invites readers particularly clergy members to rethink their understandings of the human person in light of recent developments in neuroscience In addition to bringing together religion and neuroscience it engages narrative theory exercise physiology and constructions of wellness to raise crucial questions about human identity and relationality and argue for a model of care that connects self care and care for with others Furthermore it claims that human beings are whole intra inter relational dynamic plastic and performative agents who have the capacity to story themselves neurophysiologically in both top down and bottom up ways through their regular practices of wellness Addiction and Pastoral Care Sonia E. Waters, 2019-02-05 A timely resource treating addiction holistically as both a spiritual and a pathological condition Substance addictions present a unique set of challenges for pastoral care In this book Sonia Waters weaves together personal stories research and theological reflection to offer helpful tools for ministers counselors chaplains and anyone else called to care pastorally for those struggling with addiction Waters uses the story of the Gerasene demoniac in Mark's Gospel to reframe addiction as a soul sickness that arises from a legion of individual and social vulnerabilities. She includes pastoral reflections on oppression the War on Drugs trauma guilt discipleship and identity The final chapters focus on practical care skills that address the challenges of recovery especially ambivalence and resistance to change
