Sharing The Gift Of Love:

Sharing the Gift of Encouragement Charles F. Stanley, 2008-02-19 It takes feeling encouraged in spirit to share that encouragement with others Our world is experiencing a drought of encouraging words uplifting examples and genuine expressions of appreciation Why is it that each of us has such a deep need for encouragement and yet can find so little of it Part of the problem is that so few people feel encouraged in their own spirits and it is difficult to share something we don't feel ourselves In Sharing the Gift of Encouragement Dr Charles Stanley focuses on several key aspects of encouragement including giving and receiving it and encountering it in the Scriptures He also teaches on the three things in which encouragement is rooted God's love dignity and respect Each study draws on Dr Stanley's many years of teaching the guiding principles found in God's Word showing how we can apply them in practical ways to every situation we face Each of the ten lessons includes A brief look at what is covered in the lesson A teaching from Dr Stanley that unpacks the topic of the lesson Application and Bible study questions based on the key points Key takeaways to put into practice today and tomorrow

A Gift of Love Charles F. Stanley, 2008-07-13 Love has always been the need Jesus has always been the answer The world is hurting for love writes pastor and Bible teacher Charles Stanley Because God is infinite and full of compassion He heard our cries and responded in the form of a perfect gift Jesus Consider this simple truth all the wonderful attributes of God would be meaningless unless God was also a giver He loves the world and the evidence of that love is that he gave His Son From this simple but profound premise Dr Stanley unfolds the riches of the giver and the glories of the gift Stanley explores the many dimensions of God's generous nature first in His character then in the revelation of Himself through His Son and finally in the impact of His magnificent gift Written in a warm daily devotional format A Gift of Love will cause the height and depth of God's love to shine in your heart

The Gift of Love Vladimir Berzonsky, 1985 Love is a gift from God a sacred grace that invites us indeed challenges us to respond with whatever capability we have within us to love God one another and his creation With these words Fr Vladimir Berzonsky penetrates the sublime yet mysterious passages from the Song of Songs I Corinthians and other books of the Bible which speaks of love Much has been written in recent years about the difference between erotic love called agape which is both Christ-like and Christian but it is the former type of love according to Berzonsky that conditions us for the latter The Gift of Love suggests that we learn to love in stages developing an ever greater power to become godlike in our affections increasing our capacity to care less for self and becoming filled with concern for God and all he made The fifty-seven reflections in this book are written and intended to read separately yet all deal with the underlying theme of love as expressed in the Bible

Shepherd,2014-04-28 We live in an age of global capitalism and terror In a climate of consumption and fear the unknown Other is regarded as a threat to our safety a client to assist or a competitor to be overcome in the struggle for scarce resources And yet the Christian Scriptures explicitly summon us to welcome strangers to care for the widow and the orphan and to build relationships with those distant from us But how in this world of hostility and commodification do we practice hospitality In The Gift of the Other Andrew Shepherd engages deeply with the influential thought of French thinkers Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida and argues that a true vision of hospitality is ultimately found not in postmodern philosophies but in the Christian narrative The book offers a compelling Trinitarian account of the God of hospitality a God of communion who makes room for otherness who overcomes the hostility of the world through Jesus life death and resurrection and who through the work of the Spirit is forming a new community the Church a people of welcome Celebrating the Gift
